WAY PROBE OF OODED LEGION ERROR LOOMS

. S. Agents, State, nd Congress Alert.

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—[Special.] A triple investigation into the ack Legion terror, involving the partment of justice and a congres- nal committee, loomed tonight as ditional tales of violence by the oded "knights" continued to ur in.

At Washington, Attorney General mer Cummings said he had taken der advisement a request by ayne County Prosecutor Duncan C. cCrea for the assistance of federal ents in tracing activities of the n in "between 15 and 18 states."

Representative Dickstein [Dem., Y.] simultaneously introduced a solution in the house asking an propriation of $100,000 and the ap- intment of a special committee to amine the legion and other subver- e "un-American" societies.

Asks Probe by "Jury."

Attorney General David Crowley peared late today before Judge olph Marschner of the Circuit urt, and requested a one-man grand ry probe of legion activities in ayne county. Similar judicial in- stigations will be sought in each unty where legion violence has oc- rred, Crowley said.

Two other developments here today cluded the discharge of nine em- oyés of the city owned street rail- y who were known to be members the legion, and a preliminary aring for twelve night riders arged with kidnaping and murder. Prosecutor McCrea brought the elve prisoners, manacled in pairs, fore Judge Ralph W. Liddy of the mmon Pleas court. At McCrea's quest the hearing was adjourned til next Tuesday and the prisoners ere sent back to the county jail, ill held without bond.

Hope to Arrest Twelve More.

"Within the week we expect to entify and arrest the twelve other embers of the clan named in John oe warants," McCrea said. The enty-fifth clansman is still under uard at a hospital.

The murder of which the prisoners e accused is that of Charles Poole, oung WPA worker, who was riddled ith bullets at a "ritual" slaying e night of May 12-13 because he ew too much. Poole's murder arted the investigation of the gion, which had previously been spected of many floggings and her terror reprisals.

Those held in the Poole case are: ayton Dean, "Colonel" Harvey avis, leader of the Detroit legion; rvin D. Lee, Urban Lipps, Paul R. dwards, Edgar Baldwin, Hershel ll, Lowell Rushing, Thomas R. raig, John Bannerman, John B. itchell, and John S. Vincent.

Judges to Meet Today.

The petition Crowley presented to udge Marschner accused the secret ociety of numerous acts of violence, ncluding murder, arson, bombings, nd floggings.

"This is too serious a matter for e to decide alone," said Judge arschner. "I will convene a meet- g of all 18 Circuit judges tomorrow t which we will reach a joint deci- ion concerning your request."

Attorney General Crowley declared e had no intention of supplanting McCrea, but intended to work in co- peration with the Wayne county rosecutor. The two were expected o confer later.

Telegram to Cummings.

The telegram asking government id which McCrea sent to Cummings ead:

"As prosecuting attorney I have een investigating the Black Legion n Wayne county. I have received numerous communications dealing with the activities of this organiza- ion in other states. Of course it is mpossible for me to investigate these, and I would appreciate it if you would assign a member of the department of justice to coöperate with me in making a complete in- vestigation. I believe the federal laws have been violated."

McCrea added that he had heard of the Black Knights engaging in subversive work in "from fifteen to eighteen states." Because of this, he stated, the federal government should step in and assist in checking the known acts of violence.

As Representative Dickstein pre- sented his request for the appoint-

BRITISH PURSUE ARAB REBELS IN HILL WARFARE

Mobilize Police to Protect Jews.

JERUSALEM, May 27.—(AP)—Authorities hastily enrolled special police and watchmen to protect outlying Jewish districts tonight from Arab bands keeping up an intermittent sniping throughout the troubled Holy Land.

The British battleship Barham arrived off Haifa today in command of Vice Admiral Sir Dudley Pound, commander in chief of the Mediterranean fleet. A battalion of troops started from Cairo, Egypt, to be added to the four battalions already in Palestine.

The British armed forces here are the largest since the world war. Detachments are advancing in a mountain sortie against Arabs accused of plundering Jewish property.

Towns Under Fire.

Curfew regulations are being strictly enforced in most principal cities, including Jerusalem. Several Arab towns are under virtual martial law. There were rumors full martial law might be declared.

Jaffa, Mount Ebal, Mount Canaan, Hatikvah, Samaria, Esdraelon, and Acre all were scenes of considerable firing. Bombs were thrown in Jaffa.

Disorders at Jaffa caused British officials to send their families from that city, predominantly Arab, to better protection in the all-Jewish city of Tel-Aviv. Yesterday British families at Nablus and Gaza took refuge in police barracks.

More than five weeks of disorders and terrorism, inaugurated when Arabs instituted a general strike and civil disobedience campaign, assumed the aspect of open rebellion in many parts of Palestine. Nationalistic Arabs have demanded that British authorities stop both Jewish immigration and the sale of land to Jews.

Report Casualty List.

An official casualty list issued today showed 48 persons, including one European, killed since April 29; 331 persons injured, including 17 Europeans. In addition 969 Arabs and 275 Jews have been arrested, some of whom were subsequently released. The latest fatality was an Arab watchman at Lydda. He was accidentally shot by a policeman.

Police combed many Arab villages and made several arrests. They confiscated arms and ammunition in three of the villages.

Rioters, in what an official bulletin described as a serious instance of arson, gutted an orange packing house at Petach Tikvah, in the heart of the citrus district. An orange grove financed by Felix M. Warburg, New York capitalist, was burned last night near Rishon le Zion.

Carry Away Wounded.

A typical skirmish took place last night in an orange grove near Tel-Aviv. Snipers hidden among the trees fired on and bombed the police. Police returned the fire for some time before the Arabs withdrew. In similar fighting to date it has been impossible to learn Arab casualties, for they always carry away their wounded or dead comrades.

The Arab unrest is traced as far back as the world war relations between T. E. Shaw [Lawrence of Arabia] and tribesmen.

As a reward for their desert revolt, which kept Turkey from cutting off the Suez canal, Britain's "life line," the Arabs held faith in Lawrence's promise of a free and united Arabia. He fought for them at the making of the Versailles treaty and at the British foreign office, but, like the tribesmen, was disappointed.

Immigration Leaps.

The bitterest blow to Arab hopes was Arthur Balfour's 1917 statement that Britain favored "establishment in Palestine of a national home for Jews." Britain was assigned a league mandate over Palestine and recognized the associations and claims there of Jews.

Jewish immigration and settlement was slow until persecutions of Jews began in Europe in this decade. In 1922 Palestine had 83,790 Jews and 656,258 Arabs. Now estimates place the division at 400,000 Jews and 800,000 Arabs.

Despite Arab protests, Britain recently authorized further Jewish immigration to admit some 11,000 by Oct. 1, and announced a royal commission to investigate unrest in Palestine.

DIARY TELLS FACTS OF BUFFALO BILL'S SLAYING OF CHIEF

Harrison, Ark., May 27.—(AP)—The 60 year old diary of an American soldier today revealed how William F. [Buffalo Bill] Cody killed an Indian chief named Yellow Hand in an encounter near the Nebraska-Wyoming border July 17, 1876.

The legends that sprang up about Cody said the famed scout shot the Indian after Yellow Hand had challenged him to a duel. Instead, the diary disclosed, the chief was slain in a fight to save two couriers.

The soldier who kept the diary—James B. Frew, 81, a member of the 5th United States cavalry during the Indian wars—now is a patient at the United States Veterans' hospital at Fort Roots, North Little Rock, Ark.

This entry was found.

"July 17, 1876, upon reports of scouts that many Indians were near by, the command was ordered to hide in a ravine. Two couriers from the agency approaching the command were placed in a dangerous predicament and Cody fired, killing Yellow Hand, the chief."

Queen Mary Races for U. S. on 1st Voyage

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ABOARD S. S. QUEEN MARY, May 28 [Thursday].—The Queen Mary, pride of the British merchant navy, was at sea today on her maiden voyage to New York. She cast off from the ocean dock at Southampton at 4:35 p. m. yesterday [10:35 a. m. Chicago time] and, making twenty-eight knots across the English channel, reached the Cherbourg, France, breakwater at 8:47 p. m.

After picking up seventy passengers the ocean giant slid from the Cherbourg harbor at 12:35 a. m. [6:35 p. m. Wednesday Chicago time] and raced westward into the Atlantic.

Woman Stowaway Found.

A woman stowaway was found shortly before the Queen Mary's arrival at Cherbourg. She is Miss Rohanna Siegel, who boarded the vessel at Southampton with a visitor's ticket and dodged going ashore by mingling with the passengers.

"I came on board for a thrill," she said.

Miss Siegel was taken ashore at Cherbourg and will be returned to Southampton.

The Queen Mary carries 715 cabin passengers, 650 tourists, and 475 first class passengers, including Robert Worth Bingham, the United States ambassador to London, whose name does not appear on the passenger list. The crew numbers 1,200.

King Edward VIII. of England, who visited the ship at Southampton Monday, last night sent a message to Commodore Sir Edgar Britten, the ship's commander, which said:

"All good wishes to you for a successful maiden voyage."

Record Hangs on Weather.

Whether the Queen Mary will attempt to wrest blue ribbon speed honors from the French liner Normandie on this trip depends, according to officials, chiefly upon the weather. The Normandie made the trip in 4 days 3 hours 5 minutes. Commodore Britten told inquirers he expected to reach New York at noon Monday.

What is said to be the biggest sendoff ever given a ship on her maiden voyage was accorded the Queen Mary.

Escorted by an armada of large and small craft, and with airplanes diving almost to the decks, the vast bulk of 80,773 tons passed smoothly down the basin, nudged and pulled by puffing tugs, and headed through the cheering crowds of hundreds of thousands lining the shores at Southampton and the Isle of Wight toward the English channel.

History of Ocean Trafic.

The whole history of Atlantic passenger trafic could be read in the contrast between the Queen Mary and the nearest escorting vessels—six paddle wheel steamers similar to the earliest trans-Atlantic liners. They were packed with spectators, and from the towering height of the Queen Mary's decks the near side of the paddle boxes appeared virtually awash.

At Cowes, Isle of Wight, the mist began to dissolve and the Queen Mary reached the open sea. Warships lying at Spithead mustered their crews to swell the final farewell cheers, the escorting armada gradually fell away, and the Queen Mary was left to pursue her path alone.

FINDS DOUBLE TOMB BUILT IN EGYTIAN REIGN 4100 YEARS AGO

CAIRO, Egypt, May 27.—(AP)—A new tomb with two burial chambers believed to have been constructed during the fifth Egyptian dynasty 4,100 years ago has been discovered by Selim Hassan Bey, professor of Egyptology at the University of Cairo. Announcing his discovery tonight, the professor said one of the burial chambers contains the body of Ka Niht, director of granaries, chief scribe and chief priest to the Pharaoh Sahure. The other chamber holds the body of Niht's wife. Sahure lived about 3200 B. C.

What Do School Children Do—with Thumb Tacks?

Each pupil in the Chicago public school system uses one thumb tack per month, it became known yesterday when a report was submitted to the board of education by F. P. Sullivan, director of educational expenditures and economy. As a result the board voted to purchase 3,300,000 tacks, or a seven month supply, for $990 from one of 40 firms which submitted bids.

'Iron Lung' Used in Vain Fight to Save Boy's Life

New York, May 28 [Thursday].—[Special.]—The jury trying John Fiorenza for his confessed strangle slaying of Mrs. Nancy Evans Titterton was locked up early today until 9 a. m. Chicago time after it had deliberated nine and a half hours without reaching a verdict.

When the jurors resumed deliberation at 8:45 o'clock last night after a dinner recess it was reported they were divided on the question of conviction on a charge of first degree murder or acquittal on the ground of insanity.

The latter verdict would amount to a conviction, since it would permit the court to send Fiorenza to the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane for the rest of his life.

Battle of Mental Experts.

Climaxing what has been primarily a battle of alienists and psychiatrists, presented by both the prosecution and the defense—the question of Fiorenza's sanity being the principal issue—both sides completed their summations shortly after 1 p. m. yesterday.

Following a recess, Judge Charles C. Knott Jr. began charging the jury at 2 p. m. He took 52 minutes to read his instructions refusing a request by Attorney Klauber to include in his charge a lesser degree of murder. Judge Nott told the jurors that commission of a felony such as rape was murder in the first degree and that premeditation or intent had nothing to do with it. He then sent them out to deliberate.

State Asks Death Sentence.

District Attorney William C. Dodge pleaded with the jury to bring in a verdict of murder in the first degree, which would send Fiorenza to the electric chair for the Good Friday murder of the wife of Lewis Titterton, National Broadcasting company executive.

The defense attorney, Henry Klauber, begged that his client's life be spared, but urged that he be locked up and not "turned loose in the city to rub shoulders with your wife and mine."

The defense attorney did not admit that Fiorenza was guilty, but it was perfectly clear that he was hanging his hopes on the jury finding Fiorenza insane and irresponsible.

District Attorney Dodge reviewed all the details of the crime and pointed to the testimony of alienists to show that Fiorenza, far from being a "lunatic," was "an astute and shrewd man," who knew exactly what he was about.

PRINCESS ELOPES WITH BELL HOP; BALKANS STIRRED

ATHENS, May 27.—[Havas.]—A few hours after eloping with Anastasius Charalambos, a Greek bellhop, Princess Assa, eldest daughter of the late King Feisal of Iraq and sister of the present king, Ghazi I., locked herself in her hotel suite with her husband and refused entrance even to members of the royal suite.

The 30 year old princess married Charalambos, who though Greek born is an Italian subject, after meeting him on the Island of Rhodes, where he was employed at the hotel where the Iraq party stayed. The marriage has provoked a Balkan stir.

Princess Assa refused admission even to her sister, Princess Rajihah, who is a year younger, turning a deaf ear to pleas that the royal suite wanted to "interview" Charalambos. Princess Assa disavowed the Mohammedan faith before the marriage and embraced the creed of the Greek Orthodox church.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, May 27.—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh were among the guests tonight at a dinner party given by King Edward VIII. of England at St. James's palace.

With the American flyer and his wife, Prime Minister and Mrs. Stanley Baldwin headed a notable list of guests which included, according to the court circular, Commander Lord Mountbatten and Lady Mountbatten, Colonel Lord Wigram and Lady Wigram, Alfred Duff Cooper, secretary of war, and Lady Diana Cooper, Lieut. Col. Piers Legh and Mrs. Legh, Lady Cunard, Admiral of the Fleet Sir Erne Chatfield and Lady Chatfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simpson. Mrs. Simpson is the former Miss Wallis Warfield of Baltimore, Md.

SENATORS BALK AT ROOSEVELT'S HIGH TAX PLEA

See Defeat for His Demands Today.

Money to President

Senate appropriations committee rejects provision to allot 1 billion 425 million dollars to WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins and gives it instead to President Roosevelt to spend as he chooses for relief purposes. Details on page 2.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Members of the senate finance committee predicted today that two drastic schedules of rates presented by President Roosevelt to carry out his tax on undistributed corporation earnings would be defeated tomorrow. They held also that the committee's original bill, which the President rejected, would be reported favorably.

The committee took no action today, but received estimates from the treasury on alternative schedules presented to the senators at a White House conference last night, when the President told them to go back and write a new bill along the lines he originally proposed.

The senate committee's so-called composite bill, which retains the existing capital stock and excess profits taxes, levies a flat 18 per cent corporation income tax and a 7 per cent supertax on undistributed earnings, designed as a face saving gesture to the President. Since he rejected it, there will be little face saving if the senators tomorrow reject the rates he ordered.

Opposition Is Determined.

And this is what the opposition senators, led by Harry F. Byrd [Dem., Va.] and Walter F. George [Dem., Ga.], are determined to do. Moreover, they have a majority of at least 12 to 8, if it holds together under the tremendous pressure being exerted by the White House.

Senator George served notice upon the committee that he would move at the outset of tomorrow's session to report the senate bill. The President's substitutes will then be in order and the opposition senators are confident that short shrift will be made of them.

The President, it was disclosed today, offered two alternatives, one a modification of the plan proposed by Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the federal reserve board. More drastic even than the house bill, with its maximum rate of 42½ per cent on undistributed earnings, the Eccles plan provides for repeal of the existing capital stock and excess profits taxes; retention of the corporation income tax at the present rates, ranging from 12½ to 15 per cent; taxing undistributed earnings 25 per cent on the first 20 per cent withheld, 35 per cent on the next 20 per cent, and 45 per cent on any part of the remainder. All corporations would be given a $15,000 exemption before computing the undistributed earnings tax.

See 622 Millions Extra.

Treasury experts estimated that this scheme would produce 622 million dollars in new revenue.

The second plan proposed by the President provides for retention of the existing capital stock and excess profits taxes, which yield 168 millions a year; retention of the existing corporation income tax rates; taxing undistributed earnings 15 per cent on the first 20 per cent withheld, 25 per cent on the next 20 per cent, and 40 per cent on any part of the remainder. Like the so-called Eccles plan, it would allow all corporations an exemption of $15,000.

Treasury experts estimated that it would yield 630 millions in new revenue.

The senate committee's bill, with propositions already adopted, would yield an estimated 560 millions in new revenue, but it is proposed to add 53 millions to this amount, making a total of 613 millions, by decreasing the estate tax exemptions on estates of $40,000 to $80,000 and removing the exemption on larger estates.

Hit Interest in Social Angles.

Senators opposed to the Roosevelt-Tugwell-Eccles undistributed earnings tax contend that the treasury deliberately has made these estimates low in an effort to preserve the philosophy of [illegible]menting industries and individu[illegible] [illegible]panies by allocating the amount of capital that may flow in to them for expansion and plant equipment. Advocates of this principle are more interested in the "social" implications of the bill than in revenue, the senators declare.

In the absence of Chairman Pat Harrison, presidential face saver No. 1, who is ill, Mr. Roosevelt last night designated Senator Hugo L. Black of Alabama, New Deal inquisitor No. 1, to lead the fight to save his undistributed earnings tax. Senator William H. King [Dem., Utah], who is acting chairman in the absence of Senator Harrison by virtue of his seniority, was ignored because of his violent opposition to "any such socialistic principle."

Black today was as busy as a snooper for his so-called lobby committee, buzzing in the ears of senators and shuttling between hearing room and senate floor.

Added Liberalization Sought.

The opposition senators, it was learned, hope to liberalize even the senate bill as it now stands by providing "cushions," or special consideration, for corporations with heavy debt burdens or deficits. This would entail a loss of revenue but they hope to make this up by strengthening the existing intercorporate dividend tax.

Under present law, only 10 per cent of dividends received by a corporation from another corporation are taxed at the regular income tax rate. The senators are considering an increase in this proportion to 20 to 30 per cent, which would amount to a decrease in the exemption from 90 to 80 or 70 per cent.

SWEDEN TO LET PRINCES MARRY COMMONER GIRLS

STOCKHOLM, May 27.—(AP)—Swedish princes are permitted to marry daughters of foreign commoners under a bill passed by the Swedish parliament tonight. Their marriages are still subject to the king's consent, however, after the monarch has conferred with the Swedish cabinet.

Princes still are formally forbidden from marrying a Swedish commoner's daughter. A Swedish prince heretofore has been required by law to take a consort only from the ruling houses or from certain specified nonruling foreign royal families. His rights of succession have otherwise been forfeited.

The decreasing number of European princesses available for marriage was held responsible for the change. Prince Sigvard, son of the Swedish crown prince, lost his rights to the throne two years ago by marrying Erika Patzek, Berlin commoner.

JAMES M'CAHEY RE-ELECTED HEAD OF SCHOOL BOARD

The board of education at its annual meeting yesterday reëlected James B. McCahey president for a fourth term and elected Charles W. Fry, an official of the machinists' union, as vice president to succeed Ernest Buehler, who resigned from the board last fall to become attorney for the sanitary district. Both McCahey and Fry were elected by unanimous vote. Mrs. William S. Hefferan, board member, said her vote for Fry was cast in the hope he would be won over to her viewpoint regarding board policies before the end of the year.

200 Night Watchmen Will Get Firemen's 'Diplomas'

Fire department certificates of merit will be presented tomorrow to 200 night watchmen for industrial concerns who this week are completing the first semester of the fire department school for watchmen. The school was initiated, according to fire department officials, to provide a second line of defense against the menace of fire. Fire Marshal Michael J. Corrigan, First Deputy Marshal Anthony J. Mullaney, Division Marshal George E. Graves, and other ranking fire department officials will be present at the "graduation" ceremony.

GIVE INVESTORS A FAIR TAX DEAL, MAGILL DEMANDS

Wires Protest Against Roosevelt Plan.

Describing the proposed New Deal tax on the undistributed earnings of corporations as a "cowardly attempt to mulct the savings of millions of thrifty Americans under the guise of soaking the wealthy," Dr. Hugh S. Magill, president of the American Federation of Investors, yesterday appealed to the senate finance committee to "deal fairly and justly" with investors.

Magill's appeal was in the form of a telegram sent to Senator Pat Harrison [Dem., Miss.], chairman of the committee. It was provoked by news dispatches telling of President Roosevelt's reported insistence that the committee increase the corporation surplus tax. The tax bill as passed by the house of representatives called for a maximum tax of 45 per cent on undistributed corporate earnings. As rewritten by the senate committee the bill calls for a flat 7 per cent tax on undistributed earnings plus an increase to 18 per cent in the normal corporate income tax rate.

Magill's Plea to Senate.

"The morning papers report that the administration favors heavier additional income taxes than recommended by the senate finance committee and that the entire levy shall be collected from corporations," said Dr. Magill's telegram to Senator Harrison.

"Of course, all taxes on corporations must ultimately fall on the stockholders in these corporations. These millions of investors in the securities of American industries are willing to bear their fair share of taxation but strenuously object to being unjustly discriminated against.

"We appeal to your committee on behalf of millions of investors who constitute a vast number of thrifty middle class American citizens to deal fairly and justly with them in the preparation of this tax bill. We believe that the tax proposed by the committee is too high. To increase it would be an outrage on investor-owned American industry.

Hits Confiscatory Taxation.

"We respectfully urge that your committee not yield to the demands of that radical element of society that would rob the thrifty by penalizing all private industry through confiscatory taxation."

Commenting later on his action in appealing to the senate committee, Dr. Magill said the administration's insistence that all the new taxes be levied on corporations appeared to be a cunning scheme to make it appear that only the rich were to pay the tax, whereas the burden would fall principally on the great number of small investors who own the bulk of the shares of American corporations.

"They may say that the rich are going to pay the bill," he said, "but we know that the big corporations are owned largely by the rank and file of middle class investors. The proposed taxes would come out of their pockets just as surely as if they personally had to lay the cash on the line at the collectors' offices.

Out of Balance Anyway.

"The most discouraging thing about the tax situation is that even if the extraordinarily high taxes proposed by President Roosevelt are voted by congress, the government's budget will be about as far out of balance as ever.

"The proposed taxes, it has been freely admitted, are only to cover the expenditures not originally planned by the New Dealers—that is, the cost of the veterans' bonus payments and the farm subsidies which were to have been taken care of by the AAA processing taxes, ruled unconstitutional by the Supreme court. The taxes will not take care of the billions spent for relief and boondoggling.

"Even after bleeding the investors the government won't be getting anywhere with its deficits. What the country really needs is less spending and less political waste. Even with curtailed spending the tax bills are going to be terrific."

BRITAIN READY TO TELL U. S.: NO PAY ON WAR DEBT

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, May 27.—The British government let it be known today through an official spokesman it had not swerved one inch from its policy of not paying its war debt to the United States at the present time.

The government is awaiting a polite reminder from Washington that another payment of about $75,000,000 is due June 15. The answer, however, will be the same as it has been since Great Britain made her last token payment in 1932.

Britain will not pay and will not seek to have the question of war debts reopened with a view to final settlement. If any such overture is made it must come from the United States, in the British view, but there is no reason to suppose it would produce the slightest result at the moment when Britain is spending every available penny on her vast rearmament program. The government here has convinced itself and its people that it is not Britain but the United States which is to blame for nonpayment through refusing to receive payment in the form of goods and services.

VOTE PRESIDENT POWER TO SPEND 1,425 MILLIONS

Senate Committee Against Power for Hopkins.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—The senate appropriations committee which reported out a 2 billion 368 million dollar deficiency bill today, rejected a provision of the house measure giving the entire relief appropriation of 1 billion 425 million dollars to WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins and gave it instead to President Roosevelt, to spend as he chooses.

The committee thus sought to resolve the three-cornered tug of war among Hopkins, PWA Administrator Harold L. Ickes, and Resettlement Administrator Rexford Guy Tugwell, New Deal spending triumvirs. Under the terms of the bill, however, the President still can designate Hopkins' WPA as the spending agency for the full amount, subject only to the limitations on classes of so-called work written in by the senate committee.

450 Million for Ickes.

The President could designate Tugwell as the spending agent for sums earmarked by limitation for specific projects, but no funds are set aside for such activities as his suburban housing, rural rehabilitation and resettlement. Secretary Ickes, however, is specifically authorized to spend up to 450 million dollars, not from the new appropriation, but from the PWA revolving fund from which municipal securities taken as collateral for loans are sold to the RFC.

Ickes is authorized to use up to 250 millions of the revolving fund for loans or grants or both. He now has $50,000,000 on hand in cash, available for grants so that it would be possible for him to use a maximum of 300 millions for grants to states or political subdivisions. He has a total of 400 millions in securities, but under the terms of the bill, only 250 millions may be used for loans or grants. He could use the entire 400 millions, plus the $50,000,000 in cash, for loans.

Classifications Made.

The work classifications set up by the senate committee are: Highways, roads, and streets, 413 million dollars; public buildings, $156,750,000; parks and other recreational facilities, $156,750,000; public utilities, 171 million dollars; flood control and conservation, $128,250,000; assistance for educational, professional, and clerical persons, $85,500,000; women's projects, $85,500,000; miscellaneous work projects, $71,250,000; National Youth administration, $71,250,000; loans and relief to farmers, $85,500,000.

The appropriation, like the 4 billion dollar work relief bill of 1935, is "to be used in the discretion and under the direction of the President," but is subject to more drastic limitations. Under last year's act, the President was authorized to increase or decrease any classification of work by 20 per cent of the full amount, 800 million dollars. Under the senate bill he may increase or decrease any classification by not more than 15 per cent of the limitation set upon it. For example, the $85,500,000 set aside for women's projects could not be increased or decreased by more than $12,825,000.

The committee also tied the President's hands with respect to such undertakings as the proposed 100 million dollar "shelter belt" from Canada to Texas, the $42,000,000 Passamaquoddy tide harnessing project and the 150 million dollar Florida ship canal. The President, by executive order, made allocations from relief funds to these unauthorized projects in the expectation that congress would subsequently authorize them. But congress did not. The senate's bill provides "that no federal project shall be undertaken or prosecuted with funds provided for in this appropriation unless and until an amount sufficient for its completion has been allocated and irrevocably set aside for its completion."

Gesture to Vandenberg.

Without a record vote, the committee, as was expected, rejected the substitute plan proposed by Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg [Rep., Mich.], which would have set aside 425 million dollars to be allocated by the President to states for emergencies and 1 billion dollars to be allocated to the states according to relative population, unemployment, financial resources, living costs, etc. The states would have been required to match 25 per cent of the federal funds and administer the full amount with bipartisan boards. Political discrimination would have been a criminal offense.

The committee, after rejecting this plan, made the following ironic gesture to Senator Vandenberg:

"The committee recommends that applicants for employment shall not be discriminated against on account of race, religion, or political affiliations."

The President is directed to make a survey of the lists of so-called employable persons in the United States provided for in the appropriation and "shall not knowingly permit to remain upon said lists any alien who is illegally within the limits of the United States or has not filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen," etc.

Notwithstanding the recent opinion of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, holding that the entire relief appropriation act of 1935 was an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority, the committee used identical language in the new appropriation. However, it included an item of $1,200 in its list of increases for the library of congress, for the "printing and binding of a compilation containing the provisions of federal laws held unconstitutional by the Supreme court of the United States."

Increased Over 4 Million.

The deficiency bill, as passed by the house, totaled $2,364,229,000, including the 1 billion, 425 million relief appropriation, but was increased $4,350,331 by the senate committee. Other nonrelief items in the increases included: Joint committee on inaugural ceremonies, $35,000; national emergency council, for stu[dy] of the various agencies of gover[n]ment, $100,000; rural electrification a[d]ministration, for salaries and e[x]penses, $1,000,000; Smithsonian ins[ti]tution, for an astrophysical observ[a]tory and solar observing statio[n], $200,000; Tennessee Valley Authorit[y] for two new dams, $1,200,000.

WHAT IT COSTS TO RESETTLE A FAMILY REVEALED IN BILL

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Full information on how much it costs Dr. Rexford Tugwell's Resettlement administration to do its resettling became available for the first time today, imbedded in the hearings of the senate appropriations committee on the deficiency bill.

Resettlement's top is $20,250 a family, reached in a prairie paradise for thirteen families at Sioux Falls, S. D. The final bill was $276,000.

This project was described by Dr. Tugwell as financially "unsuccessful."

The outside per family cost for a successful project appears to be $11,940, since that much is to be allowed in a project which the Tugwell organization is contemplating at Osage Farms, Mo.

Among the other projects being "planned, just being started, or under construction," there were listed three more whose per family cost was above $10,000, and five for which the treasury will pay out anywhere from $7,270 a family to $9,500. Tugwell said the average cost per family was only $5,000.

DEMAND QUICK TRIAL FOR U. S. AGENT'S KILLER

Crouch Is Arraigned in Night Hearing.

Agents of the federal alcohol tax unit yesterday came to the end of the manhunt they launched two weeks ago when one of their number was shot to death as he pursued liquor runners in a wild automobile chase. They had the alleged slayer in their hands and last night they were demanding for him a quick trial and the penalty of death. Their speed of action in this case rivaled the activity of the famed G-men of the federal department of justice.

The slayer is Harlan Crouch, 43 years old, an Indianapolis bootlegger. He was captured early yesterday as he slept in an Indianapolis rooming house a few doors from that city's police station. He confessed killing the alcohol tax agent, John R. Foster, who was shot to death before dawn on May 14 fifteen miles south of Hammond.

Crouch Held Without Bail.

Last evening Crouch was bundled into an automobile and, with a heavily armed escort, was hurried to Hammond. There, in a dramatic night hearing before United States Commissioner Schuyler C. Dwyer, he was held without bail to the federal grand jury of the northern district of Indiana for the murder of Foster. The hearing lasted less than five minutes.

But the agents did not rest there. E. C. Yellowley of Chicago, alcohol tax supervisor for Illinois, Wisconsin, and Indiana, who directed the hunt for Crouch, declared that this morning he would ask Federal Judge Thomas Slick and United States Attorney James R. Flemming of northern Indiana, to summon a special grand jury for consideration of the case of Crouch and James Jacobs.

Crouch Named as Slayer.

Jacobs was Crouch's companion on the fatal ride. The two were transporting 200 gallons of untaxed alcohol from Chicago to Indianapolis when they encountered Agent Foster who with a comrade was watching the highways for liquor runners. Jacobs was captured in Chicago Heights a few hours after the killing of Foster. He named Crouch as the one who fired a rifle into the automobile of the pursuing agents.

If the two men are convicted, Crouch, at least, faces the possible punishment of death by hanging. Although Indiana's extreme penalty for murder is death in the electric chair, this case will be tried in the federal courts under the statute which gives these courts jurisdiction when a federal officer is slain. The federal penalty for murder is the noose, the execution to be on federal property.

Story of Crouch's Capture.

The arrest of Crouch as he slept with a pistol under his pillow came on information supplied by a WPA worker. This witness stopped at the federal building in Indianapolis on his way to work yesterday morning and told Fred Miller, a night watchman, that he had "the straight dope on Crouch."

Miller summoned George L. Winkler, a special investigator for the alcohol tax unit. Not waiting for the arrival of other agents, Winkler gathered 26 city policemen and raided the rooming house at 427 East Louisiana street, a short distance from the police station.

With the house surrounded, Winkler and a squad of policemen with machine guns kicked open the door of Crouch's room, snatched his pistol, and jerked him upright.

"Did you kill Foster?" demanded Winkler.

"Sure I did," replied Crouch sleepily. "We thought he was a hijacker. Jacobs handed me the rifle and I stood on the running board and fired three shots."

U. OF C. GROUP CENSURED FOR PELTING STAGE

The Blackfriars, men's musical comedy organization at the University of Chicago was censured yesterday by William E. Scott, assistant dean of students, and the Daily Maroon, student newspaper, for pelting the stage of the Selwyn theater with oranges and grapefruit after a performance of the play "Awake and Sing" Tuesday night. The board of superiors of the Blackfriars apologized yesterday to the theater management and the cast.

Dean Scott said the university officials "regret the thoughtless conduct on the part of a few students serving to discredit the university and university organizations." The Daily Maroon carried an editorial urging that the Blackfriars board remove the guilty members from the organization.

ACCUSED IN RANCE ASSAULT

MISS BEATRICE JORGENSON.

JANE EMERY OFF TO RUSSIA WITH COLORED MATE

Departure Revealed by Fraud Charge.

Mrs. Jane Emery Newton, daughter of Col. John G. Emery, a past national commander of the American Legion, and the colored communist she married after embracing the "new freedom" offered by radicalism, have gone to Russia to live, it was revealed yesterday by Attorney G. B. Foley of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission.

The former University of Michigan co-ed was being sought on a warant charging her with defrauding the IERC after it had supported the family for more than two years. The couple have two children.

Traced to Last Home Here.

An IERC investigator traced the Newtons to their last home here, a shabby fourth floor rear flat at 4431 South State street. From friends and neighbors he learned that the husband, Herbert, who has been arrested frequently for communistic activities, quit this country in February and that Mrs. Newton followed with the children in mid-April.

"Mrs. Newton told neighbors that she expected to stay in Russia because there her marriage with a colored man would be approved," Foley said.

"She told her radical friends that she would 'be able to enter into the real communistic spirit in its cradle' and that with her husband she would make reports at Moscow on communistic activities in the United States, especially in Chicago. Money for the journey came from Moscow, she said."

Her father, who is in the real estate business in Grand Rapids, Mich., said that he had heard indirectly of Mrs. Newton's departure for Moscow when he was reached by telephone yesterday.

"We are estranged and she didn't let me know she was going," Col. Emery said.

"She was a brilliant student at Ann Arbor, and at a court hearing in Chicago they found that she was sane, but I believe that communism and other 'isms' have unbalanced her mind. Perhaps when she lives in the soviet she will finally wake up to her delusion."

Posts $400 Bond

Miss Beatrice Jorgenson, 25 years old, of the Surf apartment hotel, 501 Surf street, former Evanston teacher, surrendered at the Sheffield police station yesterday on a warant charging her with assaulting Mrs. Frances Rance, estranged wife of Arthur Rance, north shore real estate dealer. Miss Jorgenson will be arraigned in the Woman's court today.

Mrs. Rance told authorities the assault occurred 10 days ago as she was about to enter the apartment house at which she lives at 2650 Albion avenue. Mrs. Rance said that Miss Jorgenson, who had been seated in an automobile with Rance, followed her into the lobby of the building and pommeled her with her fists. Rance then followed Miss Jorgenson into the building and intervened, his wife asserted.

Miss Jorgenson refused to comment on the charge when she appeared at the police station with an attorney, who posted a $400 real estate bond. Rance was cited in court recently for being $3,040 in arrears in temporary alimony. The Rances have two children.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Frederick Bell, 62 years old, 59 West Ontario street, a laborer, was found dead in his bed, apparently of heart disease, yesterday afternoon by his landlady, Mrs. Rosa Manley.

ORDER STRIKE OF 3,000 TRUCK LINE WORKERS

Expect Walkout to Affect 60 Freight Depots.

Dock laborers at five motor truck terminals in Chicago were called out on strike last night as officials of a recently organized union announced a walkout which they said would affect 3,000 members at sixty freight forwarding depots.

Thomas B. Brennan, president of the Warehouse, Storage, and Terminal Handlers, Checkers and Clerks' union No. 1415 of the International Longshoremen's association, declared his men demand a wage rate of 60 cents an hour, an eight hour day, and recognition of their union.

Post Pickets at Depots.

Pickets were posted last night at the Keeshin Motor Express service, 300 North Canal street; the Decatur Cartage company, 2340 South La Salle street; the Hayes Freight line, 2450 South Canal street; Interstate Dispatch, 2256 South Lumber street, and the Michigan Interstate, 3000 South Halsted street.

Today, Brennan said, the walkout will be extended to fifty-five other terminals which handle about 100,000 tons of freight daily. The strike call was issued after representatives of the employers failed to appear at a meeting called last night in the Palmer house to discuss a working contract. Brennan said dock laborers are now paid 25 to 28 cents an hour.

Terminals Are "Prepared."

Several employers whose terminals were affected by the walkout last night said they were "prepared," and that they did not expect any difficulty in handling their freight.

The first disturbance of the strike occurred early today at another Keeshin terminal at Harrison street and the river, where police from the Maxwell and Des Plaines street stations seized two pickets and twenty-one members of the strike committee on complaint of James Mason, superintendent of operations for the Keeshin company. All were released after questioning.

Brennan said he would complain to Commissioner Allman today against efforts to "turn the police department into a strike breaking crew."

The strike does not involve members of the two unions whose members drive the trucks. These are the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs and the Chicago Truck Drivers and Helpers' union.

CROWD SUDDENLY LOSES INTEREST IN FARM MACHINE

The unexpected visitor broke up a demonstration of a new tilling machine yesterday in a field on Black road, just west of Joliet. The machine, designed to dig up Canadian thistles, was brought from Champaign by L. A. Moore, chief of the division of plant industry of the agricultural department at the University of Illinois. After some thistles had been dug up the machine suddenly uncovered a skunk and hurled it in the air. A police dog leaped on the skunk and killed it, but by that time Moore and fifty people who were watching the demonstration had hurriedly left the vicinity. They returned an hour later, and the digging proceeded without further mishap.

Landlady Waves Brawny Arm in Court Fight with Union

Miss Cecilia Rayman, who became janitor of the 47 room apartment and rooming house she owns at 4717-19 Lake Park avenue to defy the Chicago Flat Janitors' union, which demanded that she employ a union janitor, described the vissicitudes of janitor work yesterday before Joseph J. Jaros, master in chancery of the Circuit court.

Miss Rayman was testifying in her suit to restrain the janitors' union from picketing her rooming house. On April 29, Judge John Prystalski in the Circuit court, granted a temporary injunction restraining pickets assigned to the house on April 20 from interfering with deliveries or with tenants. He then assigned the case to Master Jaros for a hearing on its merits.

Does All the Heavy Work.

Yesterday Miss Rayman testified that she not only stokes the boilers in the house but that she delivers ice and milk to her tenants, supervises garbage collection, the removal of trunks, and the delivery of merchandise. These latter activities are necessary, she said, because the pickets have effected a virtual embargo on the house, and all deliveries by union drivers are stopped.

"But I like being a janitor," Miss Rayman proclaimed, waving her hands. "See, my hands aren't even dirty! The union told me that if I was going to be a janitor I would have to scrub my own halls, but I don't. I told them this is a free country, and that I won't scrub halls if I don't want to."

Miss Rayman testified that she has operated the rooming house for 15 years and that she employed Jerome Lawajie, a union janitor, for 14 years. She discharged him in April, 1935, because she could not meet his wage demands, she said. In her testimony she contended that she was not involved in a labor dispute, and that the union has no right to picket.

Cross examination by Joseph A. Ricker, attorney for the janitors' union, was directed toward showing that Miss Rayman did not actually act as janitor, but employed a houseman in that capacity.

Shakes a Good Right Arm.

"So I'm not a janitor, huh?" Miss Rayman demanded belligerently, brandishing a good right arm. "Well, Mr. Attorney, you come up and watch me. I can shovel coal with the best of them."

Attorney Ricker and Attorney David I. Lipman, representing Miss Rayman, clashed bitterly when the complainant refused to reveal the name of the single laundry which she said continued to deliver despite the pickets.

"If she tells that name it will mean violence, the laundry will be threatened," Lipman protested. Ricker assailed Lipman for slandering the union.

Master Jaros reserved ruling on the question until the next hearing, set for June 5.

CAR LEAPS OVER SIDEWALK INTO TAVERN; 2 HURT

Driver Swerves to Avoid Crash with Truck.

Two pedestrians were injured when an automobile bearing three members of a family of circus performers leaped across a sidewalk and crashed into the front window of a tavern at 2801 Fifth avenue late yesterday. The driver, Merritt Davenport, 31 years old, 2324 Madison street, was charged with reckless driving and was released on bond.

The injured pedestrians are Thomas Caplis, 23 years old, of 218 South California avenue, who was taken to the County hospital, and Willis Miller, 64 years old, 2809 Fifth avenue, who was taken to the Washington Boulevard hospital.

Swerves to Avoid Collision.

According to police of the Warren avenue station, Davenport was driving west on Madison street with his mother, Mrs. Norma Davenport, and his sister, Ella, when a truck pulled out from behind a street car. To avoid colliding with the truck, Davenport swerved out of control across the sidewalk and did $500 damage to the tavern in addition to injuring the two men. His sister, mother, and aunt are well known as circus bareback riders.

Hugh King, 33 years old, 7150 Cyril avenue, who has a wooden right leg, was held by the Burnside police last night as the driver of an automobile which fatally injured a city employé earlier in the day at 90th street and South Park avenue. The victim was David Daner, 27 years old, 1722 East 70th street.

Child Killed by Motorcycle.

Loraine Slowinski, 10 years old, 2994 Archer avenue, was fatally injured last night when struck by a motorcycle in Lock street near Archer avenue. John Plecko, 18 years old, 2921 Archer avenue, the driver, told police the child suddenly darted across the street.

Catherine Stein, 3 years old, 5642 Princeton avenue, died yesterday in St. Bernard's hospital of a skull fracture incurred Tuesday when struck by a truck while running after a ball in the street in front of her home. John Sheehy, 30 years old, 2007 Canalport avenue, the driver, said he was unable to avoid striking the child.

Pedestrian Hit by Car Dies.

Samuel Spotora, 28 years old, 1641 Wallace street, Chicago Heights, died last night in St. James' hospital in the suburb from injuries suffered Saturday when struck by an automobile on Chicago road at 27th street in south Chicago Heights. Vernon Heusman, 19 years old, of Richton Park, Ill., driver of the car, was not held.

Frederick Hoelzer, 53 years old, 3924 North Nordica avenue, died in the County hospital last night of burns suffered May 17 when the automobile he was driving overturned and caught fire after striking a safety island at 102d street and Vincennes avenue.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 393 persons had been killed in automobile accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1. In the same period 314 were killed and 6,489 injured in Chicago.

4 MORE JAILED TO MAKE SAFETY DRIVE TOTAL 95

Two Autoists Get 10 Days for Tipsy Driving.

Judge Gibson E. Gorman of the Safety court yesterday continued his daily object lesson against reckless and drunken automobile driving, handing down four jail sentences. This made a total of 95 persons who have been sentenced since Judge Gorman was assigned to this court on May 1.

Victor Fancil, 59 years old, 2641 North 72d court, Elmwood Park, a machinist, was ordered to serve 10 days in the Bridewell on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested on May 16 after his car collided at North Lincoln and Ohio streets with the automobile of Sam Janik, 3537 Belmont avenue.

Accused by Policeman.

Policeman Ray Davis testified that Fancil drove into two parked cars within a block of the accident while leaving the scene because of a threatening crowd of witnesses.

John Reckauskas, 25 years old, 704 East 112th street, a laborer, was sentenced to three days in jail on a reckless driving charge. He drove into two parked cars at East 98th street and South Park avenue. Stanley Potulney, 19 years old, 10010 Edgbrooke avenue, testified for the defense that he had just purchased the car and that Reckauskas was testing it.

Joseph F. Jensen, 23 years old, 655 North Central avenue, a tavern watchman, received a three day sentence for reckless driving. His car struck a fireplug and overturned on May 9 at Diversey and Kilpatrick avenues. Policeman William Twomey testified that Jensen's breath smelled of liquor. There was no allegation of intoxication.

10 Days for Tipsy Driving.

Guy O. Bergum, 43 years old, 2743 North New England avenue, was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail on a drunken driving charge. He told the court he was a postoffice employé with a record of 14 years' government service. He was arrested driving west in Warren boulevard, which is for east bound trafic only.

Complaints of reckless driving against Mrs. Mae Peterson, 35 years old, 8105 Muskegon avenue, and Parke Groat, 7159 South Chicago avenue, an automobile salesman, were dismissed by Judge Gorman after he was informed they were exonerated by a coroner's jury in connection with the death of Bruno Miller Jr., 5 years old, 8337 Philips avenue. Testimony showed that Mrs. Peterson was taking her first driving lesson from Groat when the car got out of control at 83d street and Yates avenue and killed the Miller boy and injured a companion.

Asks Use of Empty Streets.

"For heaven's sake when you are giving a driving lesson go out on the highways where there are no children," exclaimed Judge Gorman.

A charge of drunken driving against Dr. Abraham Hirsch, 43 years old, 5605 Madison street, was continued until today. The doctor told the court he had taken a dose of sleeping tablets preparatory to retiring and had then received a telephone call to attend a sick child. He was arrested in Garfield park, where he had stopped his car because he felt the effects of the drugs.

U. S. TRAFIC DEATHS CUT 5 PCT. IN APRIL UNDER 1935 FIGURE

Automobile deaths throughout the United States totaled 2,460 during April, a decrease of 5 per cent under the trafic toll for April of 1935 when 2,590 were killed, according to statistics announced yesterday by the National Safety council. This brought the total deaths for the first four months of the year to 9,530 or 6 per cent less than the total of 10,230 for the same period last year.

Fall River, Mass., with a population of 115,000 was the largest city in the country to report no automobile deaths from Jan. 1 to May 1, according to the report. Illinois showed a decrease of 3 per cent in trafic fatalities for the four month period as compared with last year.

The monthly death toll for the country compiled by the council follows:

	1936.	1935.	Percentage.
January	2,750	2,550	Increase 8%
February	1,960	2,280	Decrease 14%
March	2,360	2,810	Decrease 16%
April	2,460	2,590	Decrease 5%

LIFT SANCTIONS TO BRING PEACE, IL DUCE WARNS

Needed to Make Italy "Satisfied Nation."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, May 27.—Vital questions confronting Europe following Italy's military success in Ethiopia were discussed by Premier Mussolini today in an interview with the Rome correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph.

Il Duce reiterated Italy's desire for peace.

"The end of sanctions will mark the entry of Italy into the ranks of the satisfied states," Mussolini replied when asked if the new Roman empire now is complete with the annexation of Ethiopia.

Italy's domination over Albania recently created anxiety in Greece and Jugo-Slavia, but Il Duce insisted the object of Italian policy "is to preserve and respect the independent status of this small country which for centuries has lived in friendship with us."

No Mediterranean Pact.

Mussolini skated around the question of restoring confidence in the Mediterranean, declaring:

"Under the present circumstances and as long as sanctions are continued Italy cannot and will not take any political initiative with regard to a Mediterranean agreement. Once sanctions are ended we will examine these problems with a desire to reach an understanding and with a spirit of collaboration and peace."

Asked what will happen to the large garrison now maintained in Libya, Il Duce answered:

"The garrison in Libya is not as large as believed. It will not be withdrawn until the situation in the Mediterranean is eased. The whole of this force will be brought home as soon as British ships are withdrawn."

League Must Be Reformed.

He denied plans existed to mobilize a native army in Africa, but, pointing out that Italy can mobilize 8 million soldiers, he said:

"We have no need of a black army either in Africa or in Europe."

Mussolini thought it desirable that conversations be initiated with Great Britain and France to harmonize their economic interests in Africa, and stressed the need for an Anglo-Italian rapprochement. On the future of the league of nations, he said tersely: "The league can go on if it reforms itself."

If sanctions continue, he added, the problem of whether Italy will remain in the league or not "will present itself in urgent form."

Lord Cranborne, British undersecretary, for foreign affairs, announced today that the British ambassador in Rome has been instructed to ask the Italian government why Italian military authorities expelled Matthew L. Steer, correspondent of the London Times.

Italy to Control U. S. Hospitals.

ROME, May 27.—(AP)—A decree by Gen. Rodolfo Graziani, acting viceroy of Ethiopia, granted permission today for American hospitals in Ethiopia to continue operation under the control of the Italian sanitary commission. The decree gave recognition to the "work of charity of North American hospitals, carried on in the interests of native populations."

Proclaims Himself King.

KHARTOUM, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, May 27.—(AP)—Reuter's [British] News Agency reports from Gambela, on the western border of Ethiopia, today said the local Galla chief had proclaimed himself king of Wallega province and was marching on Saio with 3,000 warriors. There is an American mission at Saio. Italian troops were reported three days distant. Greek traders hoped they would reach Saio in time to prevent looting.

EX-STATE SENATOR MACMURRAY GIVES COLLEGE $250,000

Jacksonville, Ill., May 27.—[Special.]—Former State Senator James E. MacMurray of Evanston, now a resident of Pasadena, Cal., has made a gift of $250,000 to MacMurray College for Women here, it was announced today. The money will be used to erect a dormitory on the site of the present athletic field.

Mr. MacMurray, who formerly headed the Acme Steel company of Chicago, has made previous gifts to the college totaling $1,000,000. In 1930 the school's name was changed from Illinois Woman's college to MacMurray college in recognition of his donations.

The new building is expected to be ready for occupancy in September, 1937.

HUNGARY, NAZIS IN NEW PACT FOR CULTURAL UNITY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, May 27.—Hungary's kinship with Germany, which diplomatic circles interpret as a separation of Hungary from Italy, was marked today by a new agreement for more extensive cultural coöperation. Such coöperation was initiated in the autumn of 1934 when Bernhard Rust, the German national minister of education, visited Budapest.

The new agreement follows talks which Dr. Vanentin Homan, Hungarian minister of education, had in Berlin recently with Rust and Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, German minister of propaganda.

The agreement embraces nearly every phase of cultural activity, especially regarding the exchange of professors and students and more intensive mutual teaching of the respective languages. A German military delegation now is in Hungary and it is expected that Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Nazi air minister, will visit Budapest soon.

PUSH SELECTION OF DAY'S JURY IN LOEB SLAYING

Selection of jurors to try James Day, Stateville penitentiary convict, for the prison murder of Richard Loeb, proceeded at a snail's pace yesterday in the Will county courthouse at Joliet.

Circuit Judge Edwin L. Wilson, presiding at the trial, threatened a night session to complete the second panel of jurors. It was finally completed at 6 p. m. and court was adjourned until today.

It was expected the jury would be completed this morning and that opening statements would be made in the afternoon. The first panel of four jurors was completed Tuesday. Yesterday several veniremen were excused by the state when they said they were opposed to the death penalty, for which the jurors are being qualified.

Day slashed Loeb to death with a razor during a struggle in a prison bathroom last Jan. 28. He asserted he acted in self defense after being annoyed by Loeb. The state will contend the 58 cuts on Loeb's body invalidate a self defense plea.

Long Winter; He Finds Snow in 90 Degree Heat

Dumont, Ia., May 27.—(AP)—"It's been a long winter," Milton Stafford observed today with the mercury hovering around 90. He said he found a layer of snow a foot and a half thick under a gravel cave-in in a pit west of here.

Boy Points an 'Unloaded' Pistol; It Kills Relative

Joseph Kosowski, 15 years old, a freshman at Tilden High school, was toying with a pistol last night in his home at 3403 South Hermitage avenue. "Stick' em up," he called playfully to his brother-in-law, Louis Dudek, 28 years old, who lives at the same address. The weapon was discharged and Dudek fell to the floor dead, a bullet through his head. Young Kosowski told the Brighton Park police he thought the pistol was unloaded. He was held for the inquest.

SECRET, SHADY CATFISH HOLE LURES LANDON

Tasty Meal with Fireman Starts Him Off.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Topeka, Kas., May 27.—[Special.]—Gov. Alf M. Landon has kicked over the traces of his official and political harness. Last night he went to a fish fry over at Fireman's hall in Wamego and today he is sitting on the banks of a stream watching for a cork to bob under and hoping to snag a few catfish. He has straddled the issue of worm fishing against fly fishing, however, for he said:

"Well, I like to catch croppies with a fly, but I get a big kick out of watching that cork go under."

When it comes to eating catfish there is no argument. That is what the party was about last night. That and roast coon and biscuits that melted in your mouth and tender turkey and cake and home made ice cream. Mayor Floyd Funnell passed the biscuits which his wife made but refused to wash dishes. Chief of Police B. A. Larson cooked the catfish, a matter which deserves a separate paragraph.

Fireman Makes a Call.

It all started this way. Kenny D. Doyle, one of the firemen over at Wamego, secretary of the state firemen's association and editor of the Wamego Reporter, stuck his head in at the governor's office the other day. The governor was wearily recalling political fights and when he saw the roguish eyes and the unruly hair he said:

"Come on in, Kenny."

"Say, what are you sitting around here for getting gray headed," said Kenny. "Why don't you come out fishing? They're bitin' good. We got a big one yesterday in the south branch."

"Newspaper man, fisherman, liar," said the governor. "You know there aren't any cat in the south branch."

"Well, my boy said he got it there. We got it on ice."

"Kenny, I'm surprised at you. Not satisfied with being a liar yourself you are making your boy out a liar."

"Come on out and I'll prove it," said Kenny.

Shows Up for Supper.

So the governor looked up his engagement book and that is how he happened to show up at Wamego at supper time last night. The boys were all ready for him. They have a nice kitchen and club room fixed up at the fire house [sometimes they are called out six or eight times a year on fires]. There were about 20 men there. Not a woman in sight. The club is rather exclusive, 10 coon hunters and fishermen, but they spread themselves this time. The governor shed his coat and vest and took a seat at the head table.

"Come on and get it, boys," he called, and Doyle, Ed Boyd, the blacksmith, and other volunteers were soon passing great platters. The catfish had been kept alive until this day. They were skinned, rolled in batter, cut into chunks and dropped into deep fat. The chief soon had to shed his uniform and go to work on a fresh platter. The mayor passed the biscuits in a pan right from the oven. Harry Stone provided the coon and turkey, but they had to call on the women for the cake. "Aunt Ella" Haas' chocolate and Mrs. H. H. Ruehman's white cake melted before the onslaught.

Tell Fish Stories.

After the dishes were swept aside the "boys" sat around and told fish and hunting stories. They have an island in the Kaw river where they usually hold these sessions, but the water was too high for a trip there. The governor and his partner, "Elder" Mansfield, were the star performers.

Down in the front yard, under the stars and dark trees in the cool evening air another group discussed politics, state and national, with a keen knowledge of issues and personalities. But the governor was not in on this.

"This is his last night out before the convention—let him alone," said Doyle. "Everybody around here is for him anyway. Even the dogs are barking all night for Landon."

"Us boys from the sticks have got it all over you fellows from the city," said the mayor. "Now he [referring to the governor] will come back here and be happy no matter what happens. And we'll be just as glad to see him. Look at what we got to eat out here."

The party broke up early. There was nothing to drink but ice water and coffee, for Kansas is dry. It was voted a good party and the only trouble was about the dish washing. The governor told Kenny he was coming out to see where they caught those fish.

CONVENTION FLOOR MANAGER IS CHOSEN BY LANDON BACKERS

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—Representative J. W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts has been selected to manage the interests of Gov. Landon of Kansas on the floor of the Republican convention in Cleveland.

John D. M. Hamilton of the Landon-for-President committee, acknowledged today that the selection had been made, but would not discuss it.

The six Erie and Niagara county, N. Y., delegates to the Republican national convention announced today they would "favor" Gov. Landon for the nomination.

The delegates are those from the Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second congressional districts.

This is the second break in the uninstructed New York delegation of ninety in favor of Landon. A short time ago former Representative John C. Clark of Binghamton announced he would support him.

BUSINESS PICKS OWEN D. YOUNG FOR GOVERNOR

Asks Roosevelt Back Him for Lehman's Post.

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt has been told by a group of men prominent in business and finance in New York state, it was learned today, that they believe it is essential to have a business man for governor and that it "would be wise" for him to urge Owen D. Young to be the Democratic candidate this fall.

Members of the group indicated today that the President showed some interest in their proposal, but gave no hint of a decision. Mr. Young would not comment today.

The business men urging Young's availability say, it is understood, that it is essential that a man of his type take up the job which Gov. Herbert Lehman has insisted he will not seek again.

Heavy Tax Burden Cited.

The group cited specifically Gov. Lehman's record of heavy taxation legislation. Attorney General John J. Bennett Jr., active seeker of the nomination, does not measure up to their standard, they say.

They declare that he would be a political governor rather than a business governor and point out that his experience as a state officer has been in connection with its legal problems rather than of a general administrative character.

The business men's group is quoted as saying there is general agreement that the state Democratic convention will nominate Mr. Roosevelt's choice for governor. Senator Robert F. Wagner is an obvious possibility on this basis, they say, but they do not believe that the President would consent to have Mr. Wagner, one of his strongest allies in the senate, leave Washington.

Fear Al Smith Candidacy.

Another argument against Mr. Wagner as a candidate was offered by administration supporters. This was that if he were elected governor it would leave a vacancy in the senate which Alfred E. Smith, ardent foe of the New Deal, might try for.

Mr. Smith has said repeatedly, however, that he would not accept a nomination for the senate.

Since refusing to be a presidential candidate four years ago, Mr. Young has made some speeches against phases of the New Deal, but his criticism has not been bitter and he is not regarded as an outspoken opponent of Roosevelt.

3,000,000 DEMOCRATS MUST HELP TO DEFEAT NEW DEAL, SAYS KNOX

Three million patriotic Democrats must vote the Republican ticket in November to assure the defeat of the New Deal and preserve the American philosophy of individual enterprise, Frank Knox, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said last night in addressing the Founders' day dinner of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, in the Palmer house. His speech was broadcast over a nation-wide network.

"To win, we must deserve to win," said Mr. Knox. "And we will not deserve to win unless we demonstrate that the Republican party is a worthy and effective instrument to meet the national crisis, to defeat the subversive Washington faction that violated its own party platform, and to grapple with the country's problems by the skilful application of American principles and American methods."

Mr. Knox assailed New Deal officials for having forgotten that this nation is still a democracy, "although the people have not forgotten it."

BAR GOVERNORS MAP NEW STATE CRIMINAL CODE

Peoria, Ill., May 27.—[Special.]—Steps toward improving administration of criminal justice in Illinois and clearing the state tax muddle were taken by leaders of Illinois State Bar association here today.

Opening its session as attorneys from all parts of the state were arriving for the association's sixtieth annual meeting, the board of governors moved, subject to association approval, to place before the state legislature a code of criminal law and procedure, legislation providing a budget system for the state and a uniform system of accounting for all public taxing bodies together with a bill centering authority over inheritance tax in the attorney general.

In an address before the association Dr. John H. Wigmore of Chicago, dean emeritus of the Northwestern university law school, declared that "America needs a general readjustment of its national and state legislation as it affects air trafic."

SLUR DEVELOPS INTO BOOMERANG FOR MR. FARLEY

Builds Up G.O.P. Strength in "Prairie States."

Postmaster General Farley's crack about a "typical prairie state," as a slur showing the "Tammany farmer" viewpoint of the middle west, is already building up Republican strength, declared Harrison Spangler, G. O. P. western director, yesterday, in a statement from headquarters. The Farley remark was made during a Michigan speech in which the New Deal job dispenser and fence builder sought to belittle Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas by referring to him as a nonentity from a "typical prairie state."

"Since the contemptuous remarks made by Mr. Farley a few days ago concerning the people of the midwest," said the Spangler release, "over 400 prairie state Republican clubs have been formed, and the movement is rapidly swelling into a real crusade. This widespread movement is not only of Republicans, but of Democrats who have been betrayed.

Indicative of An Attitude.

"The slurring remarks of the haughty Mr. Farley concerning this section of the country, extending from the Alleghenies to the Rockies, have clearly indicated to these people how little the Roosevelt administration is interested in their welfare. The contempt expressed by Mr. Roosevelt's closest adviser and manager has brought home to them how little, after all, some of the people reared in Hyde Park and the Bronx really know or care about this great farming section.

"The belittling remarks of Mr. Farley clearly indicated how little this Tammany administration knows of the country west of the Hudson river. That river is the western boundary of the country and beyond it is an area peopled by rubes who don't know enough to govern us. That is the Farley-Tammany view.

Resents 'Bronx Leadership."

"The people out here are descendants of rugged stock. They are products of the public schools. They love this old United States. They resent a leadership which comes from the Bronx and whose widest vision cannot go west of the Hudson.

"They remember Mr. Roosevelt never attended the public schools, that his education was by private tutors and foreign masters—a 'Little Lord Fauntleroy' training—where geography and history were evidently not taught. They realize that with this background he could not have been given an understanding of the hearts and souls of the people of the west."

$123,000,000 BONDS ARE REGISTERED WITH SEC IN DAY

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Applications for federal registration of $123,000,000 of bonds and debentures were filed with the Securities and Exchange commission today. The largest filing, that by the Texas corporation, covered $60,000,000 of 3½ per cent debentures, due June 15, 1951. The Texas corporation will use the proceeds of the issue for redemption on Oct. 1, at 101 per cent, a like amount of outstanding convertible sinking fund 5 per cent debentures, due Oct. 1, 1944.

An Otis Steel application was for registration of $13,000,000 of first mortgage sinking fund 4½ per cent bonds, series A, due June 15, 1956.

The Crane company is expected to file an application shortly for the sale of $12,000,000 of debentures for refunding purposes, it was reported yesterday in La Salle street.

Serritella Faces Contest on G. O. P. Convention Seat

A contest of the election of State Senator Daniel A. Serritella as delegate to the national Republican convention from the first district may be carried before the credentials committee at Cleveland, it was announced yesterday by Attorney John F. Tyrrell. Tyrrell represents Horace M. Sharpe who was beaten by Serritella by 181 votes. Loss of 500 votes by fraud is charged in a contest brought before County Judge Jarecki. The case was continued yesterday until next Monday, deputy sherifs reporting they have been unable to find Serritella for summons.

COURTNEY WILL EXPAND DRIVE ON ELECTION FRAUD

State's Attorney Courtney announced yesterday that he is expanding a special bureau established in his office two weeks ago to investigate election irregularities and that today he will begin to round up added evidence expected to bring the prosecution of a number of election officials.

The announcement came as Albert E. Jenner Jr., chairman of the vote fraud committee of the Chicago Bar association, presented to Mr. Courtney evidence involving 200 election judges and clerks in thirty-five precincts in violations allegedly committed in the April 14 primary. The evidence was collected by 118 attorneys who acted as special investigators for the association.

Report Broker Indicted.

Earlier in the day the grand jury was reported to have voted two true bills charging Leon M. Novak, 52 years old, 4941 Pensacola avenue, an insurance broker, with making fraudulent attestations on the petitions of two men represented to be candidates for Republican committeemen in the Thirty-eighth ward in the last primary election.

The evidence against Novak was presented by Assistant State's Attorney Frank Christenson, who heads the vote fraud division expanded yesterday. Christenson charged that Novak fraudulently notarized petitions of opponents of Frank Kalteaux, the successful candidate, whom Novak was supporting.

Preceded by Conference.

Courtney's announcement of a vote fraud campaign followed a conference with Assistants Wilbert F. Crowley, Marshall Kearney, John Boyle, Christenson, Jewell V. Burke, and Eugene O'Connor in the county building.

Lawrence Jansen, 38 years old, a farm hand of Gordon, Wis., who had been picked up apparently in an alcoholic stupor, died in a cell in the Central police station last night.

MAPS NEW PLAN TO RID AIRPORT OF RAIL TRACKS

A new drastic proposal to force the removal of the Chicago and Western Indiana tracks from the municipal airport was placed before the city council yesterday by Ald. Bryan Hartnett [12th]. He presented an ordinance to compel the road to vacate more than 1,000,000 square feet of other city property which he alleges the road is occupying illegally. Ald. Hartnett, who is chairman of the council committee on recreation and aviation, said a study of city plats showed the railroad has fenced city property on its right of way and has illegally occupied streets and alleys.

BLOCK ATTEMPT TO SIFT HORNER'S FIGHT ON STONE

Charge State Aids Active in Judiciary Campaign.

BY STANLEY ARMSTRONG.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., May 27.—[Special.]—Gov. Henry Horner was saved today by the Democratic majority in the Illinois senate from an immediate investigation into what use he is making of state funds and patronage in attempting to defeat Clyde E. Stone, dean and chief justice of the Illinois Supreme court.

Justice Stone, the only Republican among the seven members of the high court, is a candidate for reëlection next Monday. Charges that state employés—with the governor's tacit consent, at least—are working in behalf of Mr. Stone's Democratic opponent, Josef T. Skinner of Princeton, state's attorney of Bureau county, and a request for an inquiry were made in a resolution introduced today by Senator Thomas P. Gunning [Rep., Princeton].

By a vote of 24 to 14 the Democrats gained a delay in consideration of the resolution until next Tuesday, a day after the election.

Pay Roll Padding Charged.

The governor was the beneficiary, too, of a postponement until the same day of a resolution introduced by a Democrat, Senator James O. Monroe of Collinsville, asking for an investigation of charges that Horner had added more than 25,000 persons to the state pay rolls before the April primary in order to effect his renomination.

"I have information that is well founded," Gunning charged in his resolution, "that virtually every Democratic state employé who lives in the Fifth Supreme court district, but who works in Springfield, is back in the district working in the judicial campaign. I know one person in that classification who left Springfield this morning to campaign."

The Gunning resolution went further into charges that the governor is trying to sway the electorate in a judicial election. It states that "reputable" citizens have stated on authority that Democratic employés have been excused from their state duties without any loss of compensation for the purpose of promoting the Skinner campaign.

Searcy Backs Resolution.

"The integrity of the judiciary and the public respect which it always has commanded is fundamentally opposed in spirit to the suggestion of partisanship contained in the charges," the resolution continued.

"Substantiation of such charges would indicate that such employés are not actually required to perform essential duties but are retained on the state pay roll for purely political purposes."

Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield, Republican minority leader, also made an appeal for adoption of the resolution.

"When the chief executive tries to control the judiciary," said Searcy, "it shows that government has broken down so far as the rights of the people are concerned. It places the bench on the lowest political level.

"Much can be said, too, of the promise that money collected by the state from taxpayers should be used to pay for services to the people."

Horner Denies Charges.

"I have given no orders for state employés to work in the judicial campaign," said the governor, "and no state employés are going up there of my knowledge except on Saturdays and Sundays.

"I would like to see Skinner elected, as he is a well qualified man. I pay no attention to resolutions introduced solely for the purpose of stirring up political controversy. If Monroe would pay as much attention to the business which he was elected to discharge, it would be a happy thing for Illinois. I welcome any investigation of state departments controled by the governor and other institutional officers."

Answers Under Own Terms.

When further questions were asked, the governor said he would answer them if THE TRIBUNE would print, as a precede to the later questions, the following:

"THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, in its personal desire to reëlect Justice Stone, has been trying to embarrass the governor, and so aid Stone's chances, by asking the following questions."

The question under consideration at the time was whether his various answers could be summed up in a sentence that he would not condone political activity by state employés in the Supreme court judicial campaign.

No Objection to Aids' Acts.

After he had been assured that the precede would be printed, the question again was put to him and he answered:

"If I was in the district, I would vote for Mr. Skinner and would have faith in him, but I don't live in the district. I hope that he will be elected.

"I have no objection to any state employé participating in the election as long as it does not interfere with his duties to the state."

Offers Bill to Bar Abuse.

Senator Monroe followed up the refusal of the Democrats to consider his resolution today by the introduction of a bill, which went to second reading, making it unlawful for the governor or any other state official or department head to increase the pay rolls during the month of any election or in any of the three months prior to an election.

Monroe's resolution estimated the number of employés added by Horner in the months of January to April, inclusive, at between 25,000 and 50,000, at a cost estimated at one million dollars. He asked for a committee of seven senators to examine pay rolls and determine whether there was a "wrongful and wasteful" expenditure of state funds.

Opposed to Buying Votes.

"This special session was called," said Monroe off the floor in explanation of his resolution and bill, "to pass laws to insure honest elections. The governor is interested only in seeing that nobody steals any votes, while I am interested also in seeing that nobody buys any votes.

"We are used to big campaign funds, but it has remained for Horner, posing as the greatest puritan of our time, to initiate a system of state pay roll padding during a primary and to practice it on a staggering scale.

"The ironical aspect of it is that many honest and decent persons were voting for Horner in protest against the Democratic machine in Cook county, not knowing that at that very moment Horner was indulging in a more corrupt practice than any of which that machine ever had been guilty."

Monroe suspended the roll call on his motion for immediate consideration of his resolution when only 13 of the 51 senators responded. The vote showed several Democrats in favor of the motion, among them being Harold G. Ward and Peter P. Kielminski, both Chicago Democrats.

"I'm inclined to believe the charges," said Ward in explaining his vote.

STATE G.O.P. CHAIRMAN URGES PARTY SUPPORT FOR JUSTICE STONE

Perry B. McCullough, chairman of the Republican state central committee, yesterday sent letters to the Republican county chairmen of the Fifth district urging them to reëlect Justice Clyde E. Stone to the Illinois Supreme court bench by a large vote to give further evidence of the Illinois swing back to Republicanism. The Fifth district, comprising ten counties, will go to the polls Monday. Attorney Josef T. Skinner of Bureau county is the Democratic nominee opposing Justice Stone.

Mr. McCullough's letter said in part:

"The splendid record of Justice Stone as a member of the court for the last 18 years should be forcibly brought to the attention of your voters. The interests of the people of Illinois will be best served by his reëlection.

"Your Republican state candidates and your state central committee are at your service to help you make the results of this election so outstanding that the nation will know that Illinois again is in the Republican fold."

The letters were dispatched to the following Republican chairmen of the ten counties in the district: Dr. W. C. Steele, De Pue, Bureau county; Ralph Harper, Morris, Grundy county; E. H. Blaich, Galesburg, Knox county; James E. Hill, Streator, La Salle county; J. Paul Grieves, Lacon, Marshall county; Harry Scranton, Peoria, Peoria county; Charles T. Hawthorne, Granville, Putnam county; Lynn Nevitt, Bradford, Stark county; James E. Anderson, Eureka, Woodford county, and O. D. Peterson, Kewanee, Henry county.

CONVICT JAMES IN MORALS CASE INVOLVING NIECE

Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—(AP)—Robert S. James, master barber awaiting trial on a charge he drowned his fifth wife after submitting her to the bites of poisonous snakes, was convicted today on a morals charge involving his 21 year old niece, Lois Wright.

A jury reached a verdict in 25 minutes after listening to bedroom conversations between the barber and his niece which were recorded by investigators seeking a clew to the death of his wife.

Pronouncement of sentence was set for next Monday. On June 22 James is scheduled to be tried for murder. Colorado and California authorities meanwhile are investigating circumstances of the death of his third wife, who drowned in the bathtub of a Colorado tourist cabin.

Only a portion of the notes taken by investigators as they listened to James and Miss Wright were read in court.

James' lawyer, Sam Silverman, leaped to his feet and said he was ready to "spare the ladies of the jury the embarrassment of this evidence" and stipulated it be entered in the record.

Silverman said the defense will be insanity when James goes to trial on the wife slaying charge.

Wife of James W. Bellah, Novelist, Seeks Divorce

Bridgeport, Conn., May 27.—[Special.]—Mrs. Gruzilla Taylor Deshom Bellah of Fairfield filed suit for divorce in Superior court here late today against James Warner Bellah, novelist, author and fiction writer.

PROF. SARGENT TAKES RAP AT BOSTON'S BEST

He Spares Neither Cod Nor Cabot.

Boston, Mass., May 27.—[Special.]—A published declaration that "the aristocrats of Boston all left with Lord Howe," together with such salty charges as the "Cabots are queer people," the "Lowells know not God," and that Gov. Curley established "a dictatorship" and "brought Fascism to Massachusetts," were flung in the face of Boston tonight. The blast came in a few hundred words from Prof. Porter Sargent, former Harvard chair holder, now editor of the Sargent handbooks. It was contained in three or four paragraphs in the 1936 handbook of private schools, published today under the heading, "Boston."

Even Bean and Cod Unspared.

Prof. Sargent did not even spare the sacred bean and the cod.

"Only to outside vulgarians," he said, "is Boston the home of the bean and the cod. Bostonians don't know beans. All they know is the California pea bean—cooked in one particular way."

He called the city "one of the world's choicest places to live," but added that "its climate is harsh, its people aloof.

"The old Boston families of today are, for the most part, derived from the rabble of smugglers and privateersmen who poured in as the Tories left with the British fleet."

Originated Some Good.

The score is not quite all discredited, according to the editor-professor. He admits that "a surprising number" of good things originated here and names "etherizing, Christian Science and shoemaking."

"The Boston Puritans of today," he said, "came from Ireland within the century. The cloak of Cotton Mather is worn by Cardinal O'Connell."

ANNOYS CHILDREN; FINED $1,200.

Robert Black, 67 years old, 48 West Erie street, was fined $1,200 yesterday by Judge Justin F. McCarthy in the Chicago avenue court after he pleaded guilty to possession of obscene pictures and annoying children in the neighborhood. He will work out the fine.

CAFE MAN GETS SIX MONTHS IN SALES TAX CASE

Peter G. De Met, 43 years old, 536 North State street, was sentenced to six months in the Bridewell and fined $5,000 by Judge Thomas A. Green in the South State street court yesterday for failure to pay the state sales tax on the Publix Profit Sharing cafeteria, 22 East Lake street, of which De Met was formerly head. According to M. T. Smith, investigator for the state department of finance, the restaurant was in arrears $6,600 between July, 1933, and December, 1935. De Met was released on $6,000 bond pending an appeal.

NEWSPRINT TOPIC AT MECHANICAL MEETING OF ANPA

A large gathering of newspaper plant executives from all parts of the United States attended the concluding session of the tenth mechanical conference of the American Newspaper Publishers' association in the Palmer house yesterday. The conference, which started last Monday, was given over largely yesterday to a discussion of the manufacture and handling of news print.

Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of THE TRIBUNE, explained to the conference the steps in processing news print in THE TRIBUNE's paper manufacturing mills. Meticulous care, he said, is necessary in all stages of production to insure a paper of high quality. Even in handling the finished product at the newspaper plant care must be exercised, as paper is a sensitive commodity and easily damaged, he said.

G. O. P. CHARGES IT IS VICTIM OF A FUND RACKET

Brekke Denies Organizing Donation Campaign.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Republican county headquarters made public yesterday the fact that the G. O. P. and its contributing friends are being victimized by a political fund raising racket of the "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" variety.

High pressure spielers, over batteries of telephones, County Chairman Edward Moore disclosed, have been importuning sucker lists of "prospects" to come across to raise a mythical fund of $250,000 for the campaign. Mr. Moore held the racket was the apparent outgrowth of the picnic which Eden T. Brekke, Thirty-sixth ward committeeman, is arranging for his organization for Aug. 30.

Brekke Calls It a Racket.

Mr. Brekke, who is county vice chairman and is head of doorkeepers for the Republican national convention at Cleveland next month as the selection of Frank L. Smith, national committeeman, put on an explosion in the lobby of the Hotel La Salle when he heard the tidings on his return from a trip to Cleveland.

"This is strictly a racket," Brekke said. "I'm being victimized by a bunch of sharpers and sandbaggers. Our ward organization had a contract with a man named Mertz, of a firm of theatrical producers, to promote our ward picnic. They took advantage. Two weeks ago I sent a registered letter stopping them from doing work on the picnic, and when I get back I hear they are at it again.

"These sandbaggers used my name. They've been hitting Republicans and Democrats alike. It was stopped when Capt. Dan Gilbert of the state's attorney's office had them in some two weeks ago. We're being racketed."

Version of Chairman Moore.

Chairman Moore's version is that complaints began to come in a few week ago that Republicans were getting telephone calls from persons who said they were speaking for Mr. Brekke, and would they give a contribution for the party?

"We learned," said Mr. Moore, "that the Brekke organization had turned its picnic over to Raymond Mertz, at 100 North La Salle street, to gather funds for the picnic on a contract. Brekke admitted the contract and said he was going to cancel it. Capt. Gilbert had Mertz in, and he promised to stop. Capt. Gilbert found a room in a loop hotel, with thirty telephones in it, where spielers were putting on high pressure talks for subscriptions.

"People have been ringing up for weeks with complaints that persons on the telephone have said they were speaking for Brekke, or for myself, or for George F. Getz, treasurer of the national committee, or for others.

Attorney Gets Suspicious.

"Attorney W. J. Corrigan was suspicious when he was called on for a donation. He tipped me off and I went to his office with Dr. William H. Reid. When the collector came in, Corrigan asked him who sent him and he said, 'Why, Chairman Moore, I just left him at headquarters.' So we took him over to Capt. Gilbert and he said he was working for Mertz.

"This morning a friend called me to his office. When the collector came in he said his name was Feldman and that he was a precinct captain in the Thirty-sixth ward. I told him he was collecting money under false pretenses and he ran out."

Mr. Brekke said there is no precinct captain by the name of Feldman in his ward.

Roy C. Woods, former state senator, said he was called by a man who asked for $1,000 for the national convention.

Given Brekke Phone Number.

"This fellow said he was Brekke, but I knew he wasn't," said Woods, "for I know Brekke well. I stalled him along and said I might give $500. When I insisted on being given a telephone number, I was given one which is that of Brekke ward headquarters.

"I was told to make out the check to Eden Brekke, county chairman, and when I said Moore is chairman I was told to make it out to Brekke, vice chairman. When the collector came up today I told him to come back again and asked him how collections were going. He said, 'Swell, there are six of us, the city is divided into six zones.'"

Mertz, at his office, declared yesterday that his operations have been confined to furnishing bands and shows for picnics.

A warning to the public to beware of "persons seeking funds by false pretenses" was reiterated yesterday by the Republican county and state committees and the Illinois citizens' campaign committee.

Actress to Seek Annulment

Married Last Year

Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—(AP)—Lyda Roberti, film comedienne, intends to ask for an annulment of her marriage to Hugh [Bud] Ernst, radio announcer, her attorney, George Chasin, announced today. Chasin said he intends to file the suit within 10 days, but he declined to say on what grounds.

They were married at Yuma, Ariz., June 25, 1935.

BAPTIST LEADER RAPS MINISTERS WHO AID REDS

A protest against abetment of communism by churches was made last night by the Rev. R. T. Ketcham of Gary, president of the General Association of Regular Baptist churches, meeting in convention at the Belden Avenue Baptist church, 2309 North Halsted street.

"I wouldn't say the preachers were communists," Dr. Ketcham told his audience, "but I am able to prove that a lot of them aid communism by their actions. A bunch of pussy-footing, double-crossing pink tea drinking preachers have no better sense than to join hands with the 'Red front' organizations."

COUGHLIN READY TO BACK G. O. P. IF TICKET SUITS

Priest Declares Roosevelt on Inflation Road.

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest and head of the National Union for Social Justice, made known today in a telegram sent to the New York Sun that he is prepared to support the Republican nominee for President if a renovated Republican party presents to the nation an honest standard bearer in whom confidence can be reposed.

The crusading priest of Royal Oak, in his statement, declares that he has not contemplated the launching of a third party.

Ruinous inflation and the exploitation of our traditional liberties lie ahead if President Roosevelt is reelected, Father Coughlin stated. He bitterly assails Rooseveltism as heading for "a heinous species of uncontroled inflation" for the entire nation unless Roosevelt and his wild spending are checked.

Statement by Coughlin.

Father Coughlin stated his position in the following telegram from Royal Oak, Mich.:

"I have not been in favor of the policies of the New Deal, which to my mind tends towards burocracy, dictatorship and extreme socialism.

"I have constantly advocated the cleansing of capitalism by restoring to congress the entire issuance and regulation of all money and credit, the payment to labor of a living annual wage together with guaranteeing to the farmer production at a profit.

"These three principles have not been considered favorably by the New Deal, which prefers the policy of destructionism and the establishment of doles at the expense of inordinate taxation through the issuance of bonds.

"Bonds Are Unpayable."

"These bonds, together with their interest, have reached the point under our present financial system where they are unpayable, with the result that the most heinous species of uncontrollable inflation is facing the entire nation.

"Further than having given expression to these opinions I have not contemplated the launching of a so-called third party. A renovated Republican party possessing a contrite heart for its former misdeeds and an honest standard bearer in whom I could repose complete confidence are all that are necessary to convert this nation from ruinous Rooseveltism. Otherwise the reëlection of Roosevelt is inevitable, with the result that our liberties will be likewise exploited. CHARLES E. COUGHLIN."

Qualifies It Later.

In a later telephone interview with the New York Times tonight Father Coughlin said that he would not support Gov. Alf. Landon should the Kansan be the Republican nominee for President.

The "radio priest" indicated in this interview that if Roosevelt and Landon emerge as the respective nominees of their parties, he will concentrate his activities on the congressional elections and will wait until 1940 before endeavoring to influence the election of a president.

5 CONVICTED FLORIDA FLOGGERS ASK A NEW TRIAL; ASSAIL JURORS

Bartow, Fla., May 27.—(AP)—Five former Tampa policemen convicted of kidnaping in the Tampa flogging case asked for a new trial today on grounds the jurors fought in the courthouse and drank liquor at their hotel.

In another action earlier today at Tallahassee the five failed to get a writ of habeas corpus from the Florida Supreme court.

They were convicted Saturday of kidnaping Eugene F. Poulnot who, with Sam Rogers and Joseph Shoemaker, was flogged, tarred, and feathered by a mob Nov. 30.

CLERGY RESENTS NEW DEAL PLOT TO DICTATE VOTE

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Syracuse, N. Y., May 27.—[Special.]—Delegates to the annual general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States experienced something of a sensation here tonight when it became known that an attempt had been made to unite all Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish spiritual leadership of the country into a New Deal scheme to commit organized religion in America to partisan political and economic policies.

Fights Any Political Ties.

This scheme, embedded in what was called a "letterhead organization" by the name of "The Good Neighbor League," under the leadership of Dr. Charles Stelzle and Dr. Stanley High of New York, was first exposed by Dr. John McDowell of New York, secretary of the church's committee on social and industrial relations and a former moderator of the general assembly.

Dr. McDowell's statement, made public as delegates arrived for tomorrow's opening session of the general assembly, tartly asserted that organized religion in America must not be put at the disposal of any political party or economic system.

"The attempt to identify the church with any theory of individualism or collectivism is wrong," the McDowell answer to the "Good Neighbor" circulars declared. "The church is not bound to any economic theory or political system. We cannot afford to place our churches at the disposal of any political system."

Commenting on his statement Dr. McDowell remarked:

"Curtailment of religious freedom may be all right for Russia, Germany, and Italy, but it is all wrong in America. I do not believe the general assembly will take official cognizance of the league, but I think all Presbyterians, as individuals, will when its purposes are understood."

The Rev. Dr. Hugh T. Kerr of Pittsburgh, former moderator of the church and president of the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, also attacked the "Good Neighbor League" as being underhanded in its political objectives. He said he had prepared a letter of protest to the league, but that he had referred it to another church leader for consultation before making it public.

"This much I can say at present," remarked Dr. Kerr. "The church never could harness or identify itself with a political party."

Dr. Stelzle formerly was associated with publicity activities of the Federal Council of Churches, but severed all connections with the council some time ago.

The "Good Neighbor League" has circularized the American clergy and rabbis with excerpts from papal encyclicals, social creeds of Protestantism, and rabbinates which fall in line with New Deal policies.

LIBRARY HEADS ASSAIL OUSTER OF MISS PRICE

Hughes Says He Acted for Harmony.

As library executives rallied yesterday in protest against the ouster of Miss Anna May Price, veteran state library official, Secretary of State Hughes issued a statement declaring that Miss Price's resignation, effective next Tuesday, was demanded in the interests of "harmony and coöperation." The news that Miss Price had been forced to resign was first made public on Tuesday.

The secretary of state is ex-officio state librarian, but the duties of this office have been performed by Miss Price for the last 22 years. Her official title is superintendent of the library extension division of the state library.

Reports of Politics Ignored.

Mr. Hughes made no reference in his statement to reports that Miss Price's removal was partly due to the fact that she ignored political lines in making appointments to library jobs. One of these appointments was that of Miss Doris Foley, daughter of a Republican precinct committeeman at Macomb in McDonough county. On Miss Price's recommendation Miss Foley was named librarian at Collinsville, Madison county, a job provided for under a $1,500,000 Works Progress administration grant.

Miss Foley said yesterday she had heard that James F. McElwee, district director of WPA at Peoria, was "displeased" about her being given the job, but that he had been unable to prevent her appointment because it was outside his territory.

Helps Direct WPA Fund.

Miss Price helped direct the distribution of the WPA fund for buying books and furnishing libraries. In addition to this fund the state legislature appropriated $600,000 to aid tax-supported libraries, and the state's money was distributed by an advisory committee.

Secretary Hughes, in his statement, referred to this advisory committee, and said it had been his desire to have the administration of this fund under professional guidance.

"I am not in accord with the idea of any state official or state employé assuming the authority to dictate the solutions to problems confronting the individual libraries," his statement said.

Library Officials Protest.

Mrs. Sue Osmotherly, president of the Illinois Library association, declared it was strange that the implied charge of "assuming the authority to dictate" should be placed against Miss Price at this late date.

C. M. Cartwright, president of the Evanston library board, said that Miss Price had done more for libraries in this state than any other individual, and had never "dictated" to libraries.

BAR GROUP WILL ASK CHANGES IN NAMING JUDGES

The Chicago Bar association, it was stated yesterday, has made an extensive survey of the mode of electing and appointing judges in other states and will soon publish a complete report, advocating a change in the manner of selecting judges in Illinois. A committee of seventeen, headed by Attorney Henry A. Gardner, has had charge of the work.

Officials of the bar association refused to comment upon the survey report yesterday, but it was learned that the ultimate plan will require an amendment to the state constitution. The bar group for some time has urged that judges in the higher courts be appointed for a term of years or for life.

The bar officials stated that the survey was started several months ago and has no connection with the recent controversy between the association and the judges who withdrew from the association when efforts were made to question the political activities of several of them.

REDS EXECUTE 2 FOR TERROR RULE ON ARCTIC ISLE

'Tyrant' Put to Death with Bullet.

MOSCOW, May 27.—(AP)—K. B. Semenchuk, "tyrant" of Wrangel Island convicted of leading a reign of terror, was shot to death tonight.

His chief lieutenant, S. P. Startsev, also paid with his life for the killing of Dr. W. R. Wulfson, member of a soviet scientific expedition which visited the polar station.

An official announcement tersely said: "The sentence of the Supreme court has been carried out." Pleas for clemency by the convicted men had been rejected earlier by the central executive committee.

Shot by One Official.

No mention was made as to the time and place of the execution. It was generally understood, however, the men were shot by one official who discharged a pistol into each prisoner's head. The sentences probably were carried out in Butisky prison, the largest in Moscow, where the prisoners were confined.

The Wrangel Island case attracted the widest attention of any criminal case since the assassination of Serge Kirov, one of Joseph Stalin's chief assistants, in December, 1934.

The former island "dictator" and his assistants were sentenced to death after conviction on a charge of political banditry, an outgrowth of their alleged cruel treatment of Eskimos and a secondary charge of murder.

Wife Still Held.

Sentenced Saturday night, they had 72 hours in which to seek clemency. The central committee denied their request and their period of grace expired last night. No official reason was disclosed for holding the execution over until today.

The wife of the former "tyrant" faces a charge of perjury as a result of her testimony during her husband's trial.

Semenchuk wept bitterly when his sentence was pronounced, sobbing into a handkerchief "I don't deserve to die." Startsev nonchalantly lighted a cigaret in the courtroom.

ARMY HAS 17 VACANCIES.

Col. William W. Edwards, army recruiting officer, announced yesterday that there are 17 vacancies for recruits in the Chicago district. There is also a vacancy for which previous service men only are eligible. The recruiting station is in Room 1101, United States courthouse.

Winner of Contest

The Lincoln Park Kiwanis club was presented with a treasure chest containing 10,000 pennies yesterday at a luncheon in the Parkway hotel. The club is winner of the recent fellowship campaign conducted among the north side Kiwanis clubs. Dr. Waldo Poehner, president of the Lincoln Park club, said the pennies would be used to purchase eye glasses and braces for crippled children of needy families.

Chicago Governmental Cost Lowest for Class in U. S.

Government figures which show Chicago to be the most economically governed city in the population class of 500,000 or over in the United States were read to the city council yesterday by Ald. J. M. Arvey [24th], chairman of the finance committee. Reading from a report of the United States department of commerce for the year 1935, Ald. Arvey said Chicago's per capita cost of government was $36.02. The figure for New York was $71.34, for Cincinnati, $52.23, and for Philadelphia, $39.51.

ROPER PREDICTS EARLY PASSAGE OF SHIP SUBSIDY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—A flat prediction that congress would pass a direct ship subsidy bill before adjournment was made today by Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper.

Roper declared that differences between the Copeland and Guffey ship subsidy proposals had been ironed out into a compromise. He was asked why he was so confident.

"O, the President's for it," he replied. "I get the news that it's going to pass from both the White House and congress."

The compromise bill, it was disclosed, would provide for the cancelation of existing ocean mail contracts with their indirect subsidies sixty days after enactment of the law.

A federal maritime commission of five members appointed by the President, would be given 300 million dollars to pay out direct subsidies and advance funds to enable American shipping interests to compete successfully with foreign shippers on both operation and construction of vessels.

The Guffey bill provided for a 33 1-3 per cent rate differential between construction of vessels in America over and above the construction costs abroad, with the alternative of government construction should shipbuilders not agree. The provisions, it was pointed out, would result in government construction and ownership because the differential was not sufficient to meet foreign competition.

CELEBRATE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF NRA'S KNOCKOUT

Occasion Called Second Independence Day.

The first anniversary of the death of the NRA was hailed yesterday as America's second Independence day in speeches at two noon meetings, one at the Palmer house and the other at the Hotel La Salle. In the evening automobiles decked with banners paraded through the loop in celebration of the United States Supreme court's decision on May 27, 1935, outlawing the New Deal act that created NRA.

The meeting at the Palmer house was sponsored by the Chicago Association of Commerce. Among the 800 business men in attendance were many railroad executives, for the luncheon was a celebration of the development of the streamlined train.

One of the speakers was Frederick H. Wood, the New York attorney who led the successful legal battle against the NRA. Mr. Wood was applauded when at the opening of his talk he remarked that he was speaking on the first anniversary of the death of NRA.

A Declaration of Freedom.

"We are all familiar with the benefits in industry and business that followed the Supreme court's decision, but there is much more than that involved," he said.

"It proved that even the humblest citizen armed with the constitution can defend himself against the most potent enemy, even what that opponent is the United States government. It was a declaration that Americans are free men whose independence cannot be encroached upon by a domineering administration.

"Removal of the deadening hand of government interference increased recovery in industry and employment. This recovery, however, is not as rapid as it should be because the government has not been willing to keep its hands off business, notwithstanding the precise injunction of the Supreme court.

"Fear and uncertainty of business concerning activities at Washington have retarded economic improvement. What business needs is not merely 'a breathing spell' but assurance from the government that industry can go ahead as the NRA decision said it could, free from governmental meddling."

Paul Reveres Celebrate Day.

The meeting at the Hotel La Salle was conducted by the Paul Reveres, a patriotic organization. Three speakers asserted that the anniversary of NRA's death was a day which every one should celebrate as an occasion of deliverance from the threat of tyranny. They predicted that it would take its place beside Independence day and Constitution day.

Maj. John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics for the Western conference, who is national vice president of the Paul Reveres, declared that it was not the function of President Roosevelt to constitute himself a "male Carrie Nation to evangelize us and protect us from ourselves."

"In essence," said Maj. Griffith, "the Supreme court by its ruling sounded a call to arms against the tyrant and said: 'We will not approve such usurpation of the people's prerogatives.'

Blue Eagle's Wings Clipped.

"The Supreme court in effect told the Blue Eagle it could not fly wherever it wished, but must stay out of matters that concern only the states, if they concern any one.

"As an aftermath of that great decision there was a clamor, principally by disgruntled brain trusters who weren't good enough sports to take a drubbing like men, for a drastic curtailment of the powers of the Supreme court. I understand there are fifteen such laws pending in congress at this moment.

"But the New Dealers know well just how much all true Americans appreciate and venerate their Supreme court. Americans know that but for the court it would have been possible for Mr. Roosevelt and his braggadocio brain trusters, swollen with an exaggerated opinion of themselves and of what they expected to do, to ignore the limitations and guarantees of the constitution, to steal away American liberty."

Two Pictures of America.

Stanley F. Morse, executive vice president of the Farmers' Independence Council of America, contrasted American freedom, comfortable living, and opportunity with the state of tyranny which he said would have existed if the New Deal had been successful in carrying out its plans.

"When the Supreme court threw out the NRA a year ago," Morse said, "the country breathed a great sigh of relief. Business was freed from the shackles of planned economy and started on a wave of recovery which is still rolling on, awaiting only the removal of all government restrictions and interference to bring the greatest prosperity we've ever known."

Col. Edwin Hadley, national president of the Paul Reveres, denounced "sociacrats who lie themselves into office after lulling the country to sleep with an ether ballot." Col. Hadley led the evening parade in the loop which was sponsored by the Paul Reveres.

SCHECHTER BROTHERS OF NRA FAME FACING LOSS OF THEIR HOME

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—The first anniversary of the Supreme court's invalidation of the NRA found the Schechter brothers of Brooklyn, whose case led to the court's decision, in financial straits today, facing foreclosure of their home in Brooklyn.

The brothers admitted that their fight against the NRA had cost them $60,000. Two of the brothers, Alex and Aaron, operate a small retail poultry store on Beach avenue. Martin works in another store. Joseph has no job. A year ago the brothers owned two slaughter houses.

REVIEWS DEFEATS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—On the first anniversary of the outlawing of the NRA by the United States Supreme court the American Liberty league tonight warned that the New Deal is still bent on subverting constitutional government.

In a review of the New Deal before the bar of justice the league recounted the march of nine administration measures before the court into oblivion.

The league concludes that far from respecting the judgment of the highest court of the land, the New Deal is still seeking to undermine the American guarantee of liberty.

In bolstering its contention the league pointed out that the New Deal at each reversal has placed undue emphasis on dissenting opinions. In this connection it was recalled that President Roosevelt invariably meets each New Deal defeat with "I must read all of the opinions."

This phrase was not employed by Mr. Roosevelt after the Schechter case because the NRA was killed by a unanimous vote of the court. He did, however, declare that the constitution belonged to the "horse and buggy" days of the country after the decision was handed down.

Mrs. Oscar Straus Named Patron of Field Museum

Mrs. Oscar Straus of New York, widow of the former ambassador to Turkey and secretary of commerce in the administration of President Theodore Roosevelt, has been named a patron of the Field Museum of Natural History, it was announced yesterday by Stephen C. Simms, director of the museum.

NIRA DOZES ON UNMINDFUL OF WAKE FOR NRA

Nira, Ia., May 27.—(AP)—Nira dozed in the sun today, just as it has for more than a half century of summers, unmindful of the wake industrialists, politicians, and labor leaders held over the year long dead NRA.

"Why bring that up?" shrugged Eli Yoder, lone storekeeper for Nira's 20 residents and the farmers who trade at the cross roads.

Nira was here 50 years before anybody ever thought of a national recovery act. I guess it will be here quite awhile after the NRA's forgotten—even though the government discontinued the postoffice and the railroad sold its station to a farmer for a hoghouse."

The NRA didn't mean much to Nira, Yoder explained, "except that it gave us a lot of publicity and made more work for me canceling thousands of Nira stamps." Storekeeper Yoder used to be Nira's postmaster. "After that," he said, "you'd never have known the difference."

John Whetstine, 86, Nira's patriarch, basked in front of the store.

"Things are pretty quiet," he said. "Some people might think NRA was buried here in Nira," he added with a chuckle.

POLICEMAN'S WIFE DROPS CHARGE.

A charge of nonsupport filed against Policeman Joseph Nickel, by his estranged wife, Augusta, of 950 North Leclaire avenue, for their three children was continued generally yesterday by Judge Leon Edelman in the Domestic Relations court. The court was told the couple had reached a settlement.

"Up-to-the-Minute Culbertson"

By
EDWARD C. WOLFE
Former National Champion
PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF ELY CULBERTSON

Today—Thursday 2:30 p. m.

Supreme Court of Bridge
Seventh Floor

Mr. Wolfe will explain and illustrate the revolutionary changes in the Culbertson System: The NEW ASKING BIDS which have taken slam bidding out of the realm of guesswork; the TWO-WAY THREE-BID that has solved the bugaboo of the pre-emptive bid; the perfected theory of NO-TRUMP bidding; the REVERSE BIDDING now being utilized by all experts and other improvements in 1936. Be among the first to know the latest bids and plays that your partners soon will be using.

Beginners, players of average ability, and experts in other cities have been delighted with Mr. Wolfe's talk, which is as entertaining as it is instructive.

Mr. Wolfe's talk is particularly timely in view of the publication of CONTRACT BRIDGE COMPLETE, The Gold Book of Bidding and Play, by Ely Culbertson. Mr. Wolfe will also touch upon some of the trials and tribulations of Mr. Culbertson in the preparation of his most important book.

HOUSE ASKED TO CITE TOWNSEND AND 2 OF AIDS

Committee Decides Its Dignity Affronted.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—After a week of profound meditation, a house investigating committee finally decided today that its dignity had been offended when Dr. Francis E. Townsend refused to testify further last Thursday about his plan to pay all persons over 60 $200 a month.

By a vote of six to two, the eight members of the committee decided to recommend a resolution calling on the house to cite for contempt Dr. Townsend and two officials of his organization who, under instructions from the physician, refused to answer committee subpenas. They are Clinton L. Wunder and John B. Keifer, both members of the board of directors of the Old Age Revolving Pensions corporation.

The house will consider the contempt resolution as its first business tomorrow. Speaker Joseph W. Byrns said he expected the citation of the physician and his two aids to be approved with a minimum of debate.

Californians Oppose Move.

Opposing the citation were two California representatives, who are supporters of the Townsend plan, Samuel L. Collins [Republican] and John Tolan [Democrat].

The committee also voted to recommend that, after the citation has been approved by the house, the speaker refer prosecution of the contempt charge to the United States district attorney. Townsend and his aids would thus be tried in a federal court instead of before the house. Under a finding of guilty, the judge may impose a fine of from $100 to $1,000, send the defendants to prison for a term up to one year, or assess both a fine and prison penalty.

Trial would probably not be held until the fall, it was said.

Counsel Defies House.

Sheridan E. Downey, counsel for Dr. Townsend, assailed the committee today in stinging terms, challenging them to include him in the contempt action. Downey, a candidate for congress in California on the Townsend ticket, expressed bitter disappointment that he was not named in the contempt resolution.

"Things have come to a pretty pass when a man who wants to go to jail can't get there," Downey remarked.

The action of the committee practically completed its two months' investigation which has been marked by many a comic opera episode. Chairman C. Jasper Bell [Dem., Mo.] summoned a last witness today in the person of Alfred Hart, a young instructor in economics on the faculty of the University of Chicago. Hart said the Townsend plan, with its 2 per cent transactions tax, was impractical from an economist's viewpoint.

Huge "Takes" Disclosed.

During most of the two months the committee centered its fire on the methods used by the promoters of the program, disclosing that many of the "regional directors" were receiving commissions ranging up to $2,500 a month as their share of the nickels, dimes, and quarters contributed to the organization's treasury by aged members of the Townsend clubs.

R. E. Clements and Dr. Townsend, co-founders of the movement, became owners of a prosperous weekly circulated among the members and took salaries and expenses totaling about $16,000 each over a period of two years, according to testimony. Clements withdrew a month ago with a cash profit of $78,000. Dr. Townsend now owns a majority part of the weekly which has an appraised value of $650,000.

The investigation came to a climax last week when Dr. Townsend accepted the advice of the Rev. Gerald Smith, formerly a Huey Long "share the wealth" promoter, and walked out on the committee, daring the congressmen to bring him back under arrest.

Wesley Murder Trial Jury Deadlocked After 5 Hours

Having failed after five hours' deliberation to reach a verdict, the jury which heard the trial of Gustaf Wesley, 25 years old, for the murder of Russell De Franco, 24, was ordered locked up for the night by Judge Robert C. O'Connell last night.

3 WAY PROBE OF HOODED LEGION TERROR LOOMS

U. S. Agents, Congress and State Alert.

ment of a congressional committee, two Michigan congressmen revealed they had received threats, believed to have come from the legion.

In his last campaign, Representative Dondero said he had been warned to join the "Bullet club," alleged legion affiliate, if he wanted to be elected. Representative Hoffman said an unsigned letter said he ought to be under a plot of ground "two by six feet."

Michigan representatives in congress were asked by the city council of Hamtramck, near Detroit, to request a federal investigation of the legion as a "murderous Fascist outfit."

Forced to Join, He Says.

John Leibundgut, an engineer, told a New York newspaper, according to despatches, that three years ago in Detroit he was forced to join the Black Knights on threat of death.

"They presented me with a .45 calibre bullet," related the engineer, "and told me: 'This is half your badge. If you ever desert, you'll get the other half.'"

Investigation of the legion terror in Ohio, centered at Toledo, Columbus, and Lima, the home of V. H. [Bert] Effinger, regional commander of the society and former officer of the Ku Klux Klan.

Officials revealed the testimony of George Armstrong, Lima relief worker, at a legislative inquiry last summer.

"Time after time at the legion meetings," said Armstrong, "I heard Effinger say he would control the relief office, as far as employment went. Almost every foreman was a member, and most of the laborers were, too."

Admits Oath to Kill.

Armstrong admitted that the members swore they would kill their enemies "if necessary," and would willingly lie if the interests of the order could be helped. He also admitted that the group was opposed to Catholics, colored people, and Jews.

Lucas county officials at Toledo reopened an inquiry into the slaying June 1, 1935, of Mrs. Alta Miller, 43, widowed mother of ten children, who, authorities said, may have been killed because she learned too much about the legion. He body was found near the scene of meetings of the organization.

From Colorado came reports that the Denver district attorney sought to learn if the "Colorado vigilantes," who distributed handbills during a recent blockade against alien labor, also were "knights" of the Black Legion.

Reopen Mutilation Mystery.

Cleveland, O., May 27.—(AP)—Detective Inspector C. O. Nevel ordered the homicide squad today to reopen the investigation of two unsolved slayings when an anonymous telephone message said to "look into the murders of those two men and you'll find the Black Legion was responsible."

The nude bodies of the men, both decapitated and otherwise mutilated, were found together in an isolated ravine last September.

One of the victims was Edward Andrassy, 28, who had been missing from his home four days. The other body, that of a man about 40 years old, was not identified.

Mrs. Helen Andrassy, the slain man's mother, said a stranger called at her home the morning he disappeared and said: "Tell Eddy I'm going to get him for playing around with my wife."

TOWNSEND PLAN DIRECTOR DEFIES HOUSE INQUIRY

John B. Kiefer, one of the three directors of the Townsend old age pension organization against whom a congressional committee has recommended contempt action for failure to appear before the committee on a subpena, said here yesterday that he would not go before the committee and "if they want me let them come and get me." Kiefer has his office in the new national headquarters of the Townsend organization at 720 North Michigan avenue. The national office, previously maintained in Washington, was opened here Monday.

Kiefer charged that the house committee, which is headed by Jasper C. Bell [Dem., Mo.], has used "vicious bulldozing methods" in conducting its investigation of the Townsend plan and that the directors of the organization "flatly refuse to submit further to the nefarious tactics of the committee."

COLORED GIRL IN SLAYING CASE IS SAVED FROM MOB

Altus, Okla., May 27.—[Special.]—A 19 year old colored girl, who allegedly confessed the fatal shooting of a white man, was held in a neighboring town today after a crowd of 200 persons, led by the victim's widow, had twice been repulsed by officers as they advanced on the jail in an effort to seize the prisoner.

The girl, booked as Olivia Garvin, was held on a murder charge after Deputy Sherif E. O. Rollins said she admitted shooting S. E. Harlan, 32 year old WPA truck driver, in self-defense after a fight. Harlan died in a hospital early yesterday.

Called to Station, Says Victim.

The truck driver told officers after the shooting Monday night that he had "gone down to get some medicine" and was returning home when he heard some one call him from a railroad station. He said he went over to see who it was and "the next thing I knew she shot me."

Five officers were on duty outside the jail when the menacing crowd, with Mrs. Harlan in the lead, started gathering near the courthouse. Officers produced sawed off shotguns and "talked" the crowd into withdrawing. The mob retreated, but a few minutes later made a second move toward the jail.

Swarm Around Car.

While the crowd milled about, officers hurried inside the jail, placed the girl in their midst and ran for a waiting motor car. The crowd swarmed around the officers but made no serious effort to take the girl from them.

When she was placed in the car, the frightened girl lay prostrate on the back seat while it sped away from the crowd.

Robber Coaches Young Assistant During Holdup

Two robbers, one of whom coached his younger companion to "keep cool" held up two pedestrians in the North avenue district early yesterday and obtained $14 and a wrist watch. The robbery victims were George Morris, 2028 LeMoyne avenue, who surrendered $4 and the watch, and Albert Richter, 2921 West Division street.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

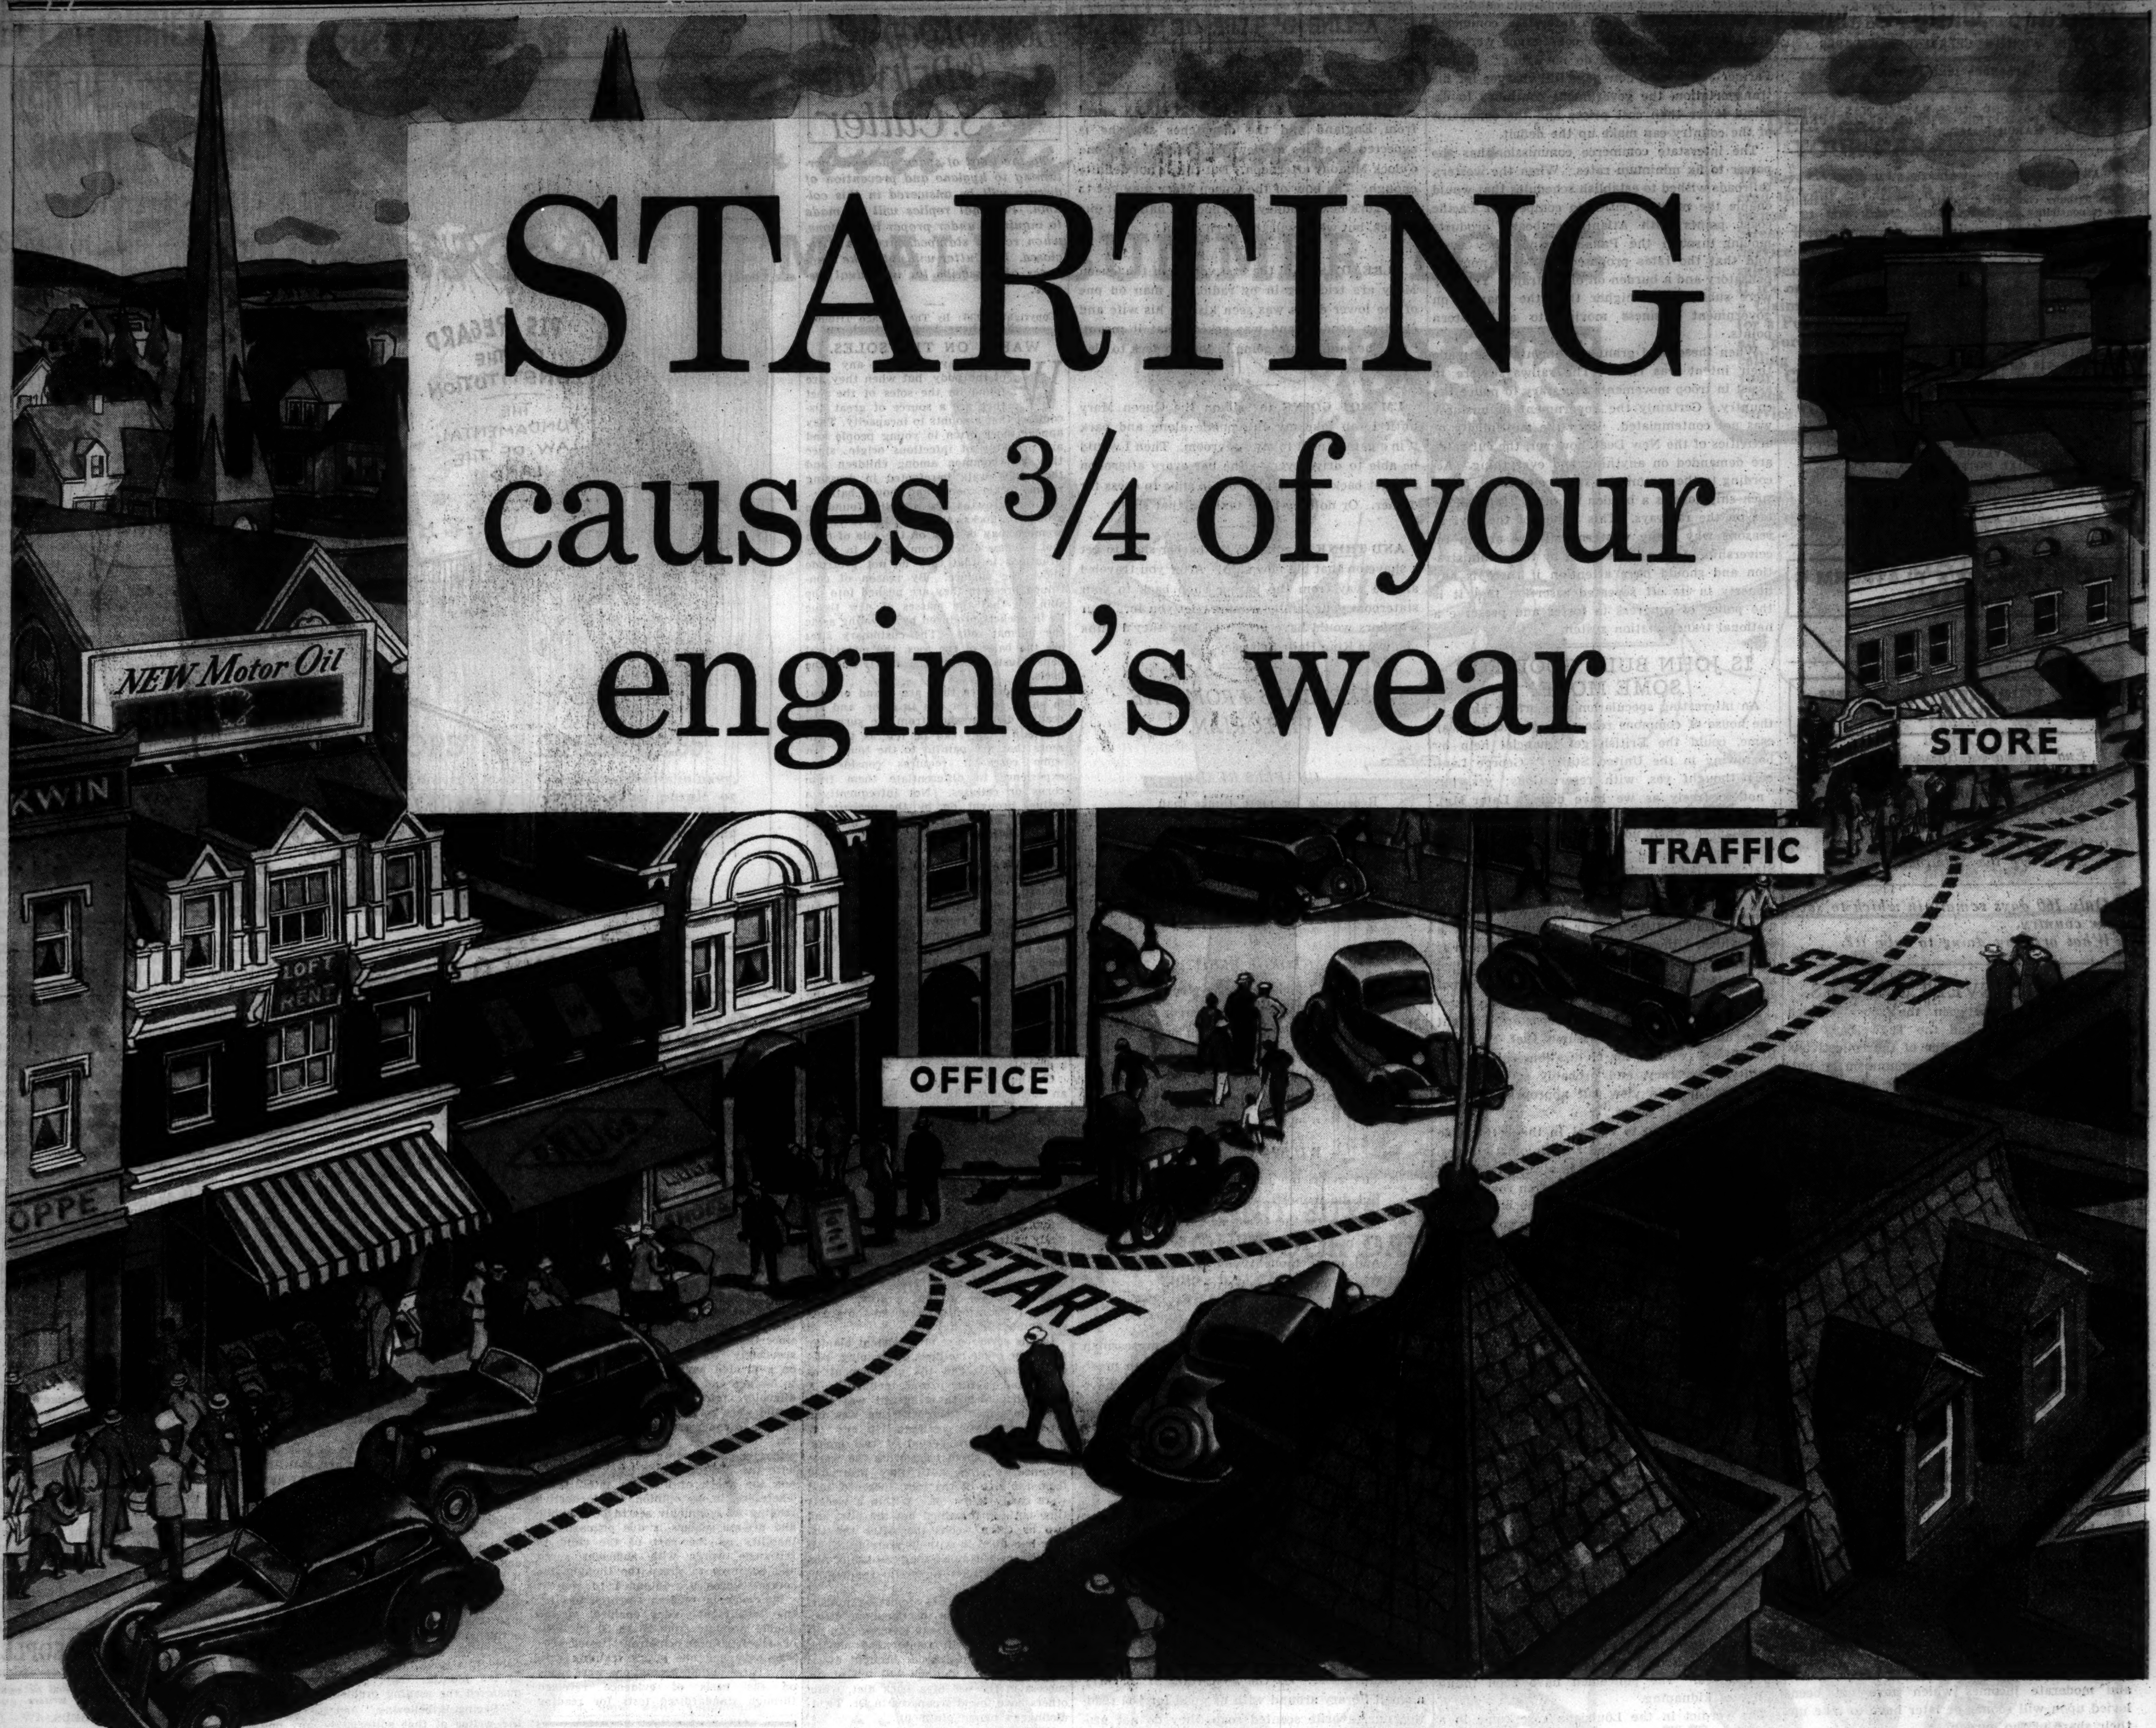
STARTING causes 3/4 of your engine's wear



This New OIL reduces wear of today's "Stop-and-Go" driving

An Oil that is FAST-FLOWING for starting —yet TOUGH

30 SECONDS after your engine is started, your pistons travel up and down from 200 to 1500 times!

If your oil flows too slowly (like molasses) —serious wear results!

The starting period, automotive engineers say, can cause approximately three-fourths of engine wear.

Is it any wonder that motors lose their quiet, new-car "purr"... that hundreds of thousands of cars each year need new piston rings? Re-bored cylinders? New bearings? And other repairs costing from $10 to $100?

To combat this wear, auto makers have sought a "FASTER-FLOWING oil"—provided this oil could be TOUGH enough. At a cost of $3,000,000, Shell has now developed such an oil.

The new Golden Shell Motor Oil is FAST-FLOWING ... yet TOUGH!

In starting, it flows quickly. Under high heat, it holds its body—and resists breaking down into sludge.

Detroit automotive engineers ... leading oil technicians ... and professors in large American universities, assert that the process behind the new Golden Shell Motor Oil is the most important advance in oil refining during the last 25 years.

And so, the recommended grade of Golden Shell can:

ADD a year to the life of your engine! SAVE you up to 50% on your engine repair bills. (Many repairs can cost from $10 to $100.) SAVE you a gallon of gasoline in every tankful. (The "drag" of an oil that is too heavy can waste over 5% of your power.)

Stop at any of the 30,000 neighborly Shell stations. Start protecting your engine with the new Golden Shell today.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S TAXES.

In the contest between the sober minded Democratic senators and the Tugwellians, Mr. Roosevelt has taken the side of the collectivists who want to get a start at communism by putting Karl Marx in the tax bill. The sober minded senators were persuaded on their own account and by the arguments and show of facts presented by level headed business men that the proposed tax on undistributed surpluses would not only work great injustice as between different industries but would be more than business as a whole throughout the country could stand.

The senate finance committee, to its credit, would have thrown the scheme entirely out except for the desire of the Democratic members, even those opposed to the Tugwellians, to save the face of Mr. Roosevelt and not let it appear that he had proposed something too preposterous for the leading senators of his own party. Mr. Roosevelt in a discussion of the tax bill with these senators has made it plain that face saving is not what he wants. He wants a great deal more of Mr. Tugwell's idea than the senators were willing to grant. And he must have more money.

It has already become a difficult job to invent methods of taxation which will satisfy the treasury. The outgo is so much greater than the intake that sources of supply cannot be found. The income tax paying class as limited under existing laws is being exhausted and it is quite apparent that this class cannot sustain the government expenditures. Warning has been given repeatedly that it will be impossible to restrict income taxes within the present field and get anything like the amount of money the government requires. Citizens who have been exempt will find the tax collector reaching out for them and moderate incomes which have not been levied upon will sooner or later have to take up their share of the burden.

Congress, always reluctant to spread the tax base over a large element of the electorate, is of course even more reluctant to do it in the year of a general election. Soaking the rich, whatever its economic folly may be, isn't distasteful to the politicians, but they know that it will not produce the necessary revenue and somehow or other they will have to find the money. The Roosevelt administration has been cheerful in its assumption that it could spend without stint and not alarm the majority of the voters. The assumption has been that the country would be glad to know that great corporations and accumulations of wealth were being sluiced off for the general welfare and the use of millions of citizens. The sources are drying up. As private enterprise begins to crack the collectivists can widen the cracks into wide gaps and present a ruin as the proof of their argument. That is the apparent intent of Marx in the tax bill, whatever may be the reason for Mr. Roosevelt's persistence in demanding it.

LEGAL REBATES.

Mark Twain once carried a railway pass; probably several of them. Railway presidents treasured his acquaintance—and there was always the possibility of his writing something about his trip over so-and-so's line that would be worth many miles of passenger travel in advertising. But there came a day in the spring of 1887 when all passes were recalled under mandate of the interstate commerce act. To retain his scrap of paper would have been illegal, so the illustrious humorist turned it in. "Poor little innocent pasteboard," he wrote to the president of the New York Central, "cut down before half its course is run." Then, more wistfully, "When you ride comfortably across the country enjoying the elegance of your private car, occasionally glance through the window to see your old friend struggling through the mire of your ditches, stumbling over cattle guards . . ."

John Jones, a New England farmer, had a railway pass. He also carried a half freight order. Their ownership was part of the conditions of sale of a railway right-of-way across his lands. Without them he would have demanded a higher price, but he was sufficiently farsighted to appreciate the future value of these concessions in return for his land grant. These circumstances did not alter the situation. Farmer Jones lost both pass and half freight order under railway regulation.

The United States government also offered land grants to the railways to encourage the construction of transportation lines that it could not build itself. Like Farmer Jones, it made reduced rates for troop and supply movements conditions of transfer, but when the interstate commerce act became effective these concessions were not canceled—"The king can do no wrong." Unlike Farmer Jones, who now pays full charges for his transportation, the government continues to demand lower than cost prices and the commerce of the country can make up the deficit.

The interstate commerce commission has the power to fix minimum rates. When the western railroads wished to establish schedules that would enable the midwest cities to compete at Pacific coast points with Atlantic seaboard products moving through the Panama canal they were told that the rates proposed would be noncompensatory and a burden on other trafic. Yet they were substantially higher than the charges on government business moving to all western points.

When these land grant agreements were made their intent was clear. The railways were to assist in troop movements necessary to police the country. Certainly the government in business was not contemplated. With the multiplicity of activities of the New Deal, however, the cut rates are demanded on anything and everything. According to the commission's own statement, every such shipment is a burden on other trafic and a tax on the railways. This is one of the several reasons why many western railways are in receivership. It can be rectified by the administration and should have attention if there is any honesty in its oft repeated assertion that it is the policy of congress to foster and preserve a national transportation system.

IS JOHN BULL GOOD FOR SOME MORE?

An interesting speculation was briefly aired in the house of commons recently: If another war came, could the British get financial help by borrowing in the United States? George Lambert thought yes, with reservations; yes, but "not so freely as we have done." Later Maj. Owen asked how the budget could be regarded as balanced when no provision had been made "for paying off our indebtedness to the United States." That's a point on which the major likes to make trouble.

Is John Bull good for more? It would not require a conservative banker to suggest that a debt which, although by some pleasant fiction is neither repudiated nor defaulted, is not satisfied as to interest or instalments on principal, is not credit basis for a new loan. However, one never can be certain. What seems preposterous might come about. We must assume that the next British war will be for civilization, culture, humanity, democracy, and probably several other ideals not now in view but appropriate to the occasion when it arises.

It will be a war to appeal to the better side of the money changers and the diplomatic corps. It may prove that the mule is always right and start him plowing between the cotton rows again if the share cropper can unlearn the critter and keep him off the plants. Wheat may go to three dollars. The munition makers, not being allowed to export implements of war, will go into the oil business. After the orders have flooded in and prices are soaring the request for some credits and loans will have the argument that the war brides must be supported.

After our own troops are in the matter will be quite simple, and the loans, war and postwar, will go to Egypt, Irak, Patagonia, and the Isle of Pines. About the only thing any one could predict about the next war is that if there is one there will be one. And J. Bull may be good for some more money.

PUNISHMENT OF LYNCHING.

Two southern juries—one in Bartow, Fla., the other in New Orleans—have recently returned verdicts to punish lynching. The victims in Florida were white men. They were labor organizers who were dragged by five policemen from a Socialist political meeting in a private home in Tampa, to be flogged, tarred and feathered. One man died as a result of the beating he received. The policemen have been found guilty of kidnaping.

The verdict in the Louisiana case came in a civil suit against the sherif of Assumption parish. The evidence showed that three years ago a Negro was lynched in Labadieville, La. His parents lived in Arkansas. They brought suit in the federal District court in New Orleans, charging that the sherif had been negligent in his duty to protect the victim. A jury composed of whites fixed the damages at $2,500.

The two verdicts provide welcome evidence, though by no means the first evidence, to show that the decent majority of white men and women in the south loathe lynching and do not hesitate to punish those responsible for it. Lynching is not a southern monopoly, but it is in the rural south that most of the lynchings occur and it is only there that mob action is widely accepted as a proper substitute for trial at law. It was no accident that the perpetrators of the Black legion murder in Detroit were recent arrivals from the rural south.

All decent Americans are ashamed of the nation's lynching record; these recent verdicts show that southerners are no exception to the rule. If a means can be found of bringing the mob leaders to trial before an unprejudiced jury the guilty will be punished. In that fact lies much of the justification for the proposals to transfer the punishment of lynchers to the federal courts.

BETTER AND CHEAPER WINES.

[N. Y. Herald-Tribune.]

Even those who are distrustful of Mr. Roosevelt's reciprocal tarif arrangements are likely to be lenient with him—if they are wine bibbers—should the rumors prove true that the tarifs on French wines are to be lowered. This, fortunately, is not a party issue. It is not even a drinker's issue. Strictly business considerations have dictated it. If concessions to the French wine exporters are made as generous as those made to the Canadian whisky dealers, we shall have henceforth not only the best French wines but—thanks to the working of the most favored nation principle—the best of other wines, too, and have them at reasonable prices.

The California wine growers will make a mistake if they oppose the reduction of tarifs on French wines. Until they have had time to produce more seasoned wines on the Pacific coast they cannot fear competition from France.

What is needed is to make the country wine conscious. This is difficult so long as California wines are unripe and of indifferent perfection and so long as foreign wines are too costly. Much better to develop a taste for wine by facilitating the sale of good, cheap foreign wines. California can compete with these as soon as it can offer material that is as good—or better. In the meantime let us by all means have lower tarifs on French wines.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. Reg. U. S. Pat. Office

THE GIGANTIC LINER QUEEN MARY sailed from England and the dispatches say she is expected to arrive in New York at half past one o'clock Monday afternoon. But this is not definite enough. The bow of the Queen Mary may get to New York next Monday afternoon at half past one o'clock, but when will the stern get in?

ALREADY tales of the first voyage of the Queen Mary are trickling in by radio. A man on one of the lower decks was seen kissing his wife and children good-by and was asked what it meant. "Oh," he said, "I am going to the top deck to play shuffleboard."

I'M NOT GOING to sail on the Queen Mary until I can take my automobile along and park it in a garage next to my stateroom. Then I would be able to drive over to the bar every afternoon and get back to my stateroom in time to dress for dinner. Or do they have taxis on that ship?

AND THINK of going to the barber shop to get a shave on that big new ship! After you traveled all the way from the barber shop back to your stateroom your family wouldn't let you in. Your whiskers would have grown so long they'd think you were King Haile Selassie.

SKETCHES FROM THE VICTORIAN.

And helped dispel that wise old hex
Men placed on writers of your sex.

You made the bookish murder fashion,
But did it mostly without passion,
Relying on the Oriental
To make your plotting chiefly mental;
And never thought your reader's gulps
Would propagate detective pulps.

DON FARRAN.

AL SMITH has been named by Congressman Tinkham as second man on the Republican presidential ticket. The silly season seems to have begun early.

JUNE AND ITS GRADUATES get closer and closer. No! right now, once and for all, understand me; I do not wish to buy any bonds. Gosh! I hope that'll keep 'em off me. But it won't.

WITH SO MANY of us going to jail for being careless in driving, I think we ought to take steps in the matter. Now, some silly people will say we ought not to drive recklessly or weave in and out or indulge in speeding on park boulevards. This is all hokum, because as a free people with Liberty our watchword we are going to drive as we damn please. So the next thing is to carry a small library around with us good for jail reading, our favorite scented soap (they do not provide one with scented soap in the county jail), and an engraved circular letter to be sent to our friends when the great doors of the prison clang behind us that: "Owing to my incarceration in the city prison for the next ten days I must regretfully decline all golf, dinner, and tennis invitations during that time."

"GARNER RENAMED National Committeeman by Texas."—Headline. That should be a lesson to one and all. Even though Vice President of the United States you can't keep a good man down.

THE CAMPAIGN is getting quite spicy. An Alabama congressman beans his primary rival with a catsup bottle.

FROM ATTAR OF YEARS.

FOG.

Inhale you deeply, friend, of this,
Direct your closed eyes to the vales
And hollows, the ravines and dips
In softest fallen clouds impaled.
Direct your eyes above the mist
To tree tops peaked and dark and high,
To the white moon ringed in a sky
Of ebony. Now feel the kiss
Of fog, its weird elusive veils
Of arms dividing human lips.
Inhale you deeply, friend, inhale,
No other scent is kin to this.

CHINATOWN.

Ah, sniff you very cautiously
And cling you tighter to my hand,
This half offensive potpourri
Of odors to our nostrils fanned
From quickly pattering, passing feet,
From doors swift slammed upon the street,
This tantalizing caravan
Of strange new scents flings mystery
About us in a tightening band.
We take us swifter by, we flee
To safer streets we understand.
Ah, sniff you, friend, tentatively.

WARTS ON THE SOLES.

Warts may occur on any part of the body, but when they are found on the soles of the feet they are a source of great discomfort that amounts to incapacity. They appear more often in young people and are probably of infectious origin, since they are common among children and those who walk barefooted in dressing rooms, locker rooms, and shower baths.

These growths are usually found in groups or flocks, and from ten to twelve or more may be seen on the sole of each foot. They differ from warts in other situations in that they do not protrude above the surface. By reason of continued pressure they are pushed into the skin, so that the masses of new tissue lie in pockets produced by crowding aside the normal cells. The customary sites are the balls of the toes, the metatarsal pads [just back of the toes], and the heels.

In appearance they are round or oval in shape, gray or tan in color, and are readily distinguished from the surrounding skin. They can be felt as tiny tumors that are painful to the touch. In some cases it requires considerable experience to differentiate them from corns or calluses. Not infrequently a callus, brought on by the pressure of walking, may overlie one or more of these warts.

Because of their pain producing character many plans of treatment have been devised, varying from surgery to the application of radium or X-ray. Small warts may be removed effectively by a paste which contains salicylic acid or some other tissue destroying agent. With deeper and more extensive areas the X-ray has been used after dislodging the outer layers of skin, thus exposing the enlargements directly to this powerful force. Surgical diathermy has also been suggested, as has carbon dioxide snow, and scraping out the entire region with a sharp instrument.

On the theory that the growths follow an infection with some unknown virus, the injection of bismuth salicylate into the muscles was tried. The treatments were given a week apart and the dose adjusted to the age of the patient. In most cases atrophy [shrinking] was observed after the first injection and, in a few instances, but one was required. Additional doses were not given as long as reduction in size was progressing. In many patients the warts appeared to melt away; in others they seemed to rise out of the deeper tissues much like a kernel is extruded from a pocket, leaving a smooth surface without a scar. From one to three injections relieved the greatest number of sufferers.

In one severe case of persistent plantar warts the older methods of scraping, surgical removal, and the employment of X-ray and radium proved ineffective. A hot whirlpool bath treatment was then tried, in which the entire leg was immersed in water between 110 and 115 degrees F. for a period of two hours. After two or three treatments the warts softened, swelled until they protruded from the sole of the foot, loosened, and were easily taken off. Within a week's time nothing remained but the pits, and two or three weeks thereafter the tissues had filled in without scarring. This method, even simpler than the use of bismuth salicylate, is successful frequently.

Plans of treatment—almost as numerous as the names in the telephone directory—include magic and charms. An afflicted patient will relate that moving from one city to another brought about complete cure. Another will tell of his success in the use of a trick diet, while others have found a panacea in Dr. Twiddlefinger's patent ointment.

While in some circumstances these affairs may disappear well nigh miraculously, the certain results with the bismuth injection treatment or the hot whirlpool bath cannot be gainsaid.

PERSISTENT HOARSENESS.

I. K. writes: I have a persistent cold, mostly in my chest, and it makes me hoarse. A physical examination disclosed that I am anemic. I know I can correct this condition with proper diet.

1. Can you give me a list of vegetables for this purpose?
2. I have been told onions give rich, red blood. Is this true?

REPLY.

Are you certain that the only difficulty is with the blood? You may have some irritation of the vocal cords or a deep seated bronchitis. I am always suspicious of hoarseness that persists for more than a week or ten days. Be sure to have the vocal cords examined.

1. Foods rich in iron are apples, apricots, kidney [beef], liver, peaches, prunes, raisins, raspberries, beans [kidney and lima], beef juice, fresh cherries, lentils, green olives, parsley, pineapple, spinach, watercress.
2. No.

BLUE BABIES.

Mrs. H. D. writes: Recently my daughter gave birth to her first child, a premature baby weighing 2 pounds. She was a blue baby and was placed in an incubator, but lived only two days. The doctor said even if it had been a full term baby it would have died. What causes women to have blue babies? Do such babies ever live to be well? If my daughter has another child will it be another blue baby?

REPLY.

The subject of blue babies was discussed in this column recently. The mother has nothing to do with it. It means that some slight openings between the right and the left sides of the heart have not closed. Sometimes blue babies survive and, as adults, live to a ripe old age. You need not fear the condition in subsequent pregnancies.

MASTITIS.

Mrs. E. D. writes: My 19 year old son has a swelling around one nipple about as big as a walnut. There is a hard, movable lump inside. This has appeared on and off since he was a small boy. Sometimes the condition occurs in both breasts at the same time. Some years ago I took him to a physician who said the tumor came from milk glands. He also complains of a swelling in his throat and I am wondering if this could be goiter.

REPLY.

The condition is known as mastitis or inflammation of the mammary gland. A tiny gland secretes, swelling results, and the contents may be discharged spontaneously or require opening. In many of these cases surgical treatment is advisable. Inasmuch as the condition has continued for some time, I would recommend removal of the offending tissue. A careful search for enlarged lymph glands in all parts of the body should be made.

CHALLENGE.

Chicago, May 18.—The editorial in THE TRIBUNE of May 10 relative to public school reading attracted my attention because I teach reading in the first grade of a Chicago public school.

For the last several years I have had educational qualifications that would open the door for me to the highest position in Chicago's educational system, but the reading problem has always so profoundly interested me that I have preferred to remain in the elementary department; incidentally, for this service I receive the lowest group salary that Chicago pays its teachers.

Educators recognize two major problems in teaching reading—namely, word recognition and interpretation—but experience has taught me that word recognition is the only important problem since the average child who readily and accurately recognizes the words he sees on a printed page of literature suitable to his age and grade has but little more difficulty interpreting them than he would were he to hear these same words spoken in conversation round about him, the fullness of his interpretation in either case depending on his experience with the subject matter being presented and the depth of his own intelligence. Therefore, in my opinion, the ineffective reading we commonly see in both public and private schools is due primarily to inability on the part of the child to recognize words with sufficient speed and accuracy to grasp the thought the several words are intended to convey.

My work in reading research has for the last eight years enabled me to double promote from 35 to 50 per cent of all beginning children [unselected] who have had one year's training with me. These double promotions were made on the basis of evidence revealed through standardized tests for reading achievement—the Detroit, Gates, and Haggerty tests being used at various times for this purpose—and no child was double promoted who did not make a score at least one year in advance of the grade. But although each year these facts have been recorded in the report required annually by the board of education in the costly administration of its affairs no recognition has yet been given them.

These unusual results obtained now for the last several years—and with great possibilities for economy in education—have been obtained by using a relatively simple, clearly defined and well integrated phonetic method originated by this correspondent over fifteen years ago and tested now so many times for its results that I say without fear of contradiction that it is the quickest, most reliable and most economic method for teaching reading in use today and that any teacher educationally qualified to teach can learn to use it and any English speaking child with normal [not average] mentality, hearing, and sight can learn to read by it.

This June again I intend to test the reading ability of my class and notwithstanding the nine month school year and membership ranging from 45 to 48 I confidently expect to find many of these children able to make a better score at the end of first grade in Chicago than Detroit expects of its children at the end of second and for these children it may be reasonably said that the reading problem is definitly and permanently settled since it is a psychological principle that early habits tend to become permanent. For the remainder of the class I venture to say that, could they apply this same method for another five or ten months, they, too, would have mastered the reading problem.

"Seeing is believing," and so I invite the writer of that editorial or any one else seriously interested in the reading problem or in true economy in education to visit my room during the administration of this test and when the results are tabulated perhaps he can decide why we Chicago teachers have not yet succeeded in improving, on a broad basis, methods of teaching reading.

I have visited the outstanding schools of Chicago and its vicinity, including Chicago university, Francis Parker, and nationally known Winnetka schools, and I would welcome a comparison made on a scientific basis between results obtained in these schools and those of my own class, although you will admit, I think, that the conditions under which we work are all in favor of these recognized schools.

As far as I am to be considered, visitors to my room are always welcome at all times and without prearrangement.

This is a challenge which I sincerely hope you will accept before manuscript writing—which would seriously retard the teaching of reading—or other possible innovations of the new school administration are inaugurated. By so doing you will be rendering an important public service, for you will be collecting evidence upon which to base a valid opinion as to the relative value of the method I now use and any other which I may later be required to substitute for it.

FIRST GRADE TEACHER.

FROM THE SAGE OF CŒUR D'ALENE.

Cœur d'Alene, Idaho, May 18.—One day while I was taking a vacation at a beautiful lake in north Idaho, a porter, who, in porter's language, did not know what a big guy I am, rapped on the door of a bathroom where I was taking my bath, and said that there were people sleeping.

I love to sing. Singing makes me happy. If all the people in the world were to begin to sing, the devils of depression who now sit enthroned over the world would flee to their own infernal regions and leave the world at peace.

Try it, folks! Sing! Turn off the infernal radio, and use your own voices! Sing, and let your song arise sweet, unfeigned, and free! This is my advice to the world and, believe me, "I'll tell the world"—literally.

DAY BY DAY IN THE MAKING OF THE CONSTITUTION

BY JAMES MADISON.
[Father of the Constitution and Fourth President of the United States.]

Philadelphia, May 28, 1787.—Mr. Wythe of Virginia from the committee for preparing rules made a report which employed the deliberations of this day. Mr. King of Massachusetts objected to one of the rules in the report authorizing any member to call for the yeas and nays and have them entered on the report. He urged that it was unnecessary to exhibit this evidence of the votes and improper, as changes of opinion would be frequent in the course of the business and would fill the minutes with contradictions.

Secrecy Imposed

Mr. Mason of Virginia seconded the objection, adding that such a record of the opinions of members would be an obstacle to a change of conviction and in case of its being hereafter promulgated must furnish handles to the adversaries of the results of the meeting. The proposed rule was rejected, nem. contradicente. The standing rules were agreed to:

A house to do business shall consist of the deputies of not less than seven states. Every member rising to speak shall address the President [Gen. Washington] and whilst he be speaking none other shall pass between them or hold discourse with another or read a book, pamphlet or paper, printed or manuscript. The determination of a question, although fully debated, shall be postponed, if the deputies of any state desire it, until the next day.

Mr. Butler of South Carolina moved that the house provide against the interruption of business by the absence of members and against licentious publications of their proceedings. Adjourned till tomorrow, 10 o'clock.

WARRANTY DEEDS.

Chicago, May 23.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I have two deeds to property, one in Florida and the other Wisconsin. The Wisconsin waranty deed reads: "This indenture made this 23d day of June between F. J. M. and C. M., his wife, to A. C. S. and G. S., his wife." The Florida waranty deed reads: "This indenture made this 27th day of June, 1934, between the N. G. Inc., a corporation, existing under the laws of the state of Florida, having the principal place of business in the county of Volusia, state of Florida, party of the first part, and A. C. S. and G. S., his wife, whose permanent address is Chicago." What I would like to ask is this: Not saying anything about joint tenancy in these deeds, in case either my husband or myself should die, would there be any trouble? When the property was purchased we intended it to be in joint tenancy. I would like to ask about some stocks which were purchased by my husband before we were married. What status would that come under in case of my husband's death?

A. C. S.

While a Florida statute provides that "the doctrin of . . . survivorship . . . in cases of . . . joint tenants shall not prevail," the court held in 66 Fla. 427 that a conveyance to husband and wife created "an estate by entirety" with survivorship.

In Wisconsin a deed to husband and wife creates a joint tenancy even in the absence of express wording to that effect in the deed.

BETTY SHRIEKS HER DEFENSE IN SLAYING TRIAL

Sobs Out Story of Killing Husband in Saloon.

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

Mrs. Betty Fobert Martin, former hat check girl, who is on trial for shooting her husband to death in a tavern last April 9 when she found him there with another woman, took the witness stand yesterday in her own defense. Before a jury in the Criminal court of Judge Cornelius J. Harrington she wept, raged, and shrieked as she told her story. The defense rested late in the afternoon and the case is expected to go to the jury today.

Several women in the crowded courtroom sniffled and wiped their eyes and the jurors, ten of whom are married, listened intently as Betty recited numerous incidents that took place in her life before she killed Andrew Martin, a former handbook operator.

Courtroom Women Stare.

Wearing a well tailored black dress with a single ornament at the throat—a large white medallion—a small black hat trimmed with white flowers, and carrying white gloves, she appeared as smartly dressed as the women who stared at her from special seats along the wall and within the railing.

The state previously had brought out that Martin was Betty's fourth husband. On the stand she gave her name as Elvira Elizabeth Martin of 2738 Pine Grove avenue and said she was born in Lancaster, Ky. She was first married at the age of 17 to a Charlie Parker. Her other husbands were Floyd Fobert, Detroit policeman; Jack Kelly of Chicago, who died, and Martin, whom she married here last December.

Questioned by Attorney George Crane, who with Attorney James Burke is defending her, she said Martin took her $400 savings shortly after they were married and before they left for the Philippine Islands, where he said he was going to work for the government. In Seattle, he sold her car, she said. Arrived in the Philippines, he admitted he was broke and jobless, she testified.

Tells of Beatings.

She declared that he told her he had brought her there to become a prostitute, as "Filipino men liked white blondes," and that when she refused he beat her. She wired two men in this country and obtained $200, with which they took passage to San Francisco. There she escaped from him and returned here. He followed and repeated his demands, she said, again beating her.

Some of Mr. Crane's questions and her answers follow:

Q.—Why did you go to the tavern [at 938 East 43d street]? A.—I wanted to tell his friends in front of him what a fourflusher he was, and how he lied to me, and then blow my brains out.

Q.—Did you see him walk in with a girl? A.—Yes.

Q.—What did you do? A. [wailing]—I don't know.

Q.—Did you intend to shoot him? A.—[sobbing] No.

Assistant State's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty, who is being aided in the prosecution by Assistant State's Attorney David Leeds, wrung an admission from her on cross-examination that she might have been angry. Some of his questions and her answers:

Q.—When you went out to 948 East 43d you didn't shoot yourself, did you? A.—[Loud weeping].

Q.—Did you or didn't you? A.—No.

Shrieks Answers to Prosecutor.

Q.—And a lot of people were lined up at the bar and you didn't shoot them, did you? A.—[Writhing and weeping] No.

Q.—[Quietly]. How many shots did you fire? A.—[Shrieking furiously] I don't know.

Q.—When you took your gun out of your purse it wasn't to commit suicide, was it? A.—I don't know.

Q.—You never intended to, did you? A.—I don't know, I don't know.

In closing its case, the defense called Dr. Alex S. Hershfield, former state alienist, in an attempt to show that at the time of the shooting Betty was incapable of distinguishing right from wrong.

After the defense had rested the state introduced rebuttal testimony by Dr. Harry Hoffman, head of the county behavior clinic, to combat Betty's plea of temporary insanity.

STRIKES LEAVE 46,000 WORKERS IDLE IN 19 STATES

Picketing in Some Cases, but Little Trouble.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Labor leaders estimated more than 46,000 industrial and agricultural workers were participating in strikes which affected 19 states last night.

There were few instances of trouble.

The situation was intensified at Syracuse, N. Y., by the announcement that Remington-Rand, Inc., manufacturers of typewriters and office equipment, would reopen their plant today.

The Syracuse announcement came after 400 of the 1,700 employés voted to return to work. Strike leaders immediately announced they would organize picket lines. Mayor Rolland B. Marvin promised police protection to those who went back to work.

Other Plants Affected.

Employés of five other Remington-Rand plants in New York, Ohio and Connecticut — estimated by union leaders at 4,300—also were on strike.

While dozens of other strikes continued with little or no progress toward settlement, 500 taxicab drivers went on strike at Dallas, Tex., 10 days before the opening of the Texas Centennial exposition.

At Lewiston, Me., a street railway strike tied up city transportation.

At Cambridge, Mass., Miss Vera du Pont, first cousin of Pierre du Pont, the manufacturer, and Mrs. George Burroughs, first cousin of the late President Calvin Coolidge, picketed with striking truck drivers.

Mechanics Call Strike.

Business representatives of a newly organized auto mechanics union in Seattle announced a strike for a closed shop.

In Chicago, efforts to settle the dispute between the International Seamen's union and 7,000 striking members failed.

Flying squadrons were organized in New York by the barbers union in an effort to get members to join a strike, which union leaders said already involved 7,500 barbers.

New York police drove away six striking seamen who attempted to picket the home of Mayor F. H. La Guardia. They also dispersed a picket line on the Panama Pacific line pier.

Union estimates of the number on strike in other states:

Arkansas—3,000 tenant farmers.

California—1,000 celery field workers and 200 ship builders.

Oregon—6,000 loggers.

Washington Loggers Out.

Ohio—5,500 employés at the Portsmouth plant of the Wheeling Steel corporation.

Washington—900 loggers and mill workers.

Pennsylvania—2,500 in various industries.

Massachusetts—2,500 involving various trades.

Minnesota—About 500 millwrights, fur and cereal workers.

Indiana—About 175 in various industries.

Iowa—100 employés of the Burch Biscuit company at Des Moines.

Wisconsin—2,500 workers in various industries.

Nebraska—100 highway workers.

Vermont—200 marble workers near Rutland.

Dog Owners Told to Buy Licenses or Face Court

Police were directed yesterday to notify all dog owners who have not obtained 1936 city licenses for their animals that failure to do so will result in court summonses. Police Commissioner Allman said the dog owners will be given a few more days of grace.

Strikes Spread in France; Reds, Fascists Clash; 12 Hurt

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, May 28.—[Thursday.]—Indication that France's epidemic of strikes has spread to the provinces was seen in a report early today from Toulouse that a strike had been declared in an aviation plant at Dewoitine. The company manager was hastily sent from Paris to deal with the strikers.

At Rouen a meeting of Francistes—who, with their Sam Brown belts, blue shirts, and raised hands most resemble the Fascists—was raided by a group of radical Popular Front partisans. In the resulting battle twelve Francistes were injured, two gravely.

The strike situation in the Paris district remained unchanged after midnight, notably at the Nieuport and Lavalette plants, and quiet reigned after the last rendition of the "Internationale" was sounded off in thee late evening.

Demonstrations Barred.

The calm of the entire proceeding was a notable feature. It was apparent that all demonstrations had been barred. When May Piginnier of Issy-les-Moulineaux, a communist, and Deputy Cresson arrived for a visit one striker raised his voice to cheer them. He was swiftly silenced and they were welcomed silently with raised fists, to which they responded equally as silently as they entered the opened gates of the factory. Not one policeman was in sight and there was no sign of authority besides that of the strikers.

Food and wine was brought up by trucks sent by the Red municipalities of Issy-les-Moulineaux, Malakoff, and Clamart. A total of 1,500 strikers in the Farman factory were provisioned by the municipality of the Paris suburb Boulogne.

The revolutionary spirit of the strike was most evident at the Lavalette plant, where the strikers' delegates accepted a compromise from the factory management. Returning to the strikers to report the results they were repudiated.

Realization that the epidemic of strikes in the aviation industry and the new technique of peaceful occupation of factories by workers is the beginning of a carefully prepared revolutionary offensive caused a big selling wave on the bourse yesterday.

Compared to Advent of Fascism.

Naturally, the right press and some of the conservative business circles were buzzing with alarmist rumors and the bloodless siege, or rather the "lockin," as the new strike technique might be called, of the workers at Nieuport and Lavalette frequently is compared to the seizure of factories by workers and soviets in Italy just before the advent of Fascism.

The present movement, however, is nothing of the sort and the dangers lie in another direction, as the more acute employers see.

First, it is noted that since the elections there has been a steadily increasing crop of strikes all over the country. The sensational strike of the metallurgical workers in the Paris district was only the most outstanding. The strike movement threatens particularly the mine district of the north and the building trades in the Paris region.

Arms Firms on Spot.

Second, the outstanding victims of the new strike technique have all been concerns directly or indirectly profiting by the boom in armaments, and their owners are worried by talk of nationalizing the war industries. With the advent of the Socialist government in a few days they do not like to attract attention to themselves by having any trouble with their workers.

Third, the new "lockin" technique is extremely hard to fight when the government and public opinion are prejudiced in favor of the workers. By remaining at their posts the workers make it impossibl. for the employers to starve them into submission by a lockout or by hiring strikebreakers.

LEWIS PREDICTS THIRD OF A. F. L. WILL DEFY HEAD

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Open defiance of the American Federation of Labor by one third of its membership was forecast tonight by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers and leader of the industrial unionism movement.

Mr. Lewis intimated that the committee for industrial organization, of which he is chairman, would refuse to heed an ultimatum by the executive council of the A. F. of L. to disband by June 3. The ultimatum was served yesterday on the heads of the eight unions allied with the Lewis industrial unionism drive.

"Mr. Green's threats," said Mr. Lewis, referring to William Green, president of the A. F. of L., "are as potent as his promises. Mr. Green delivered what was construed as an ultimatum when he addressed the United Mine Workers' convention here last February. You can see for yourself that that ultimatum had no effect. The present so-called ultimatum will be just as effective."

STRIKING SPANISH WAITERS ORDERED BACK TO WORK

MADRID, May 27.—(AP)—The government ordered striking syndicalist waiters back to their jobs tonight. Proprietors were told to reopen establishments closed by the walkout after waiters sought discharges of Fascist employés.

Socialists, who refused to support the strike, supported the government. Many bars reopened.

Gasoline truck drivers in Seville province halted deliveries of motor fuel, tying up hundreds of automobiles. A general strike at Vitoria brought a meat and fish shortage.

AGREE TO LET Y. W. C. A. KILLER ESCAPE CHAIR

Trend Away from Death Penalty Noted.

Arraigned yesterday on a murder indictment before Chief Justice Normoyle of the Criminal court, Thomas Starr, the colored ragpicker who confessed that he killed Mrs. Lillian Guild, 59 years old, in her room at the Y. W. C. A. hotel on May 9, entered a plea of guilty. Justice Normoyle set for this morning a hearing on the evidence to fix Starr's punishment.

At the same time, Assistant State's Attorneys Gordon Nash and Frank McCurrie told the court that the state would waive the death penalty and agree to a sentence of 199 years in the penitentiary for the slayer. This, they said, was according to an agreement they had made with Benjamin Bachrach, public defender, who will represent Starr at the hearing today.

No Executions in 14 Months.

As word of the state's acquiescence to a prison term spread through the Criminal courts buildings, court attachés commented that not one murderer has been placed in the electric chair since March 21, 1935, when Chester Novak was executed for slaying a robbery victim, and that capital punishment has been exacted but eleven times in the last four years.

Of the dozen or so killers who have been allowed to escape the chair here in recent months, the names of Robert Goethe and Durland Nash, were mentioned yesterday in nearly all the discussions of the numerous guilty pleas. Goethe and Nash, each 19 years old, were members of the gang that lured Dr. Silber C. Peacock from his home last Jan. 2 and killed him when he resisted their efforts to rob him. The fact that these two were allowed to plead guilty and take 199 year sentences was believed to have influenced a jury which later convicted their two companions but withheld the death penalty.

Guild Slaying More Wanton.

Police who investigated the murder of Mrs. Guild, found this killing even more wanton than that of Dr. Peacock. Starr confessed that he entered his victim's room by way of a fire escape, then crushed her head with a piece of building stone. Investigators believe he also raped her.

In addition to the Guild slaying Starr has confessed and been indicted for entering the nurses' home at St. Luke's hospital and attacking Miss Lois Rickert, a nurse. The grand jurors who indicted him in the Rickert case were in court and heard him plead guilty yesterday to the slaying.

Among others who commented on the state's agreement to spare Starr's life was Col. Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director of the crime commission. He said:

"I am not familiar with the facts in the Starr case, but I firmly believe that every convicted murderer should be placed on the electric chair. Capital punishment is the greatest deterrent to crime."

EX-SEN. BROOKHART'S GRANDSON IS KILLED BY CAR OF FAMILY FRIEND

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—The 3 year old grandson of former United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa was killed here today by an automobile driven by Mrs. Dorothy Ralph, a close friend of the Brookhart family.

The child, William Walker Brookhart, pulled away from its mother and stepped into the path of the automobile. Mrs. Ralph is the wife of Henry D. Ralph, Washington correspondent for the Chicago Journal of Commerce and other publications.

The accident occurred as the mother, Mrs. Smith W. Brookhart Jr., was taking the child and his sister, Betty Ann, 5, home from a nursery school. The child's father is an attorney, employed by the Securities and Exchange commission.

The Brookhart family requested the police not to take any action against Mrs. Ralph.

CIRCUIT JUDGES ADOPT PLAN TO SIMPLIFY WORK

In a meeting yesterday judges of the Circuit court unanimously adopted Chief Justice Walter J. LaBuy's plan, which revises procedure to simplify and expedite handling of litigation. The new plan goes into effect next September. Assignment of judges in accordance with the changes will take place on June 12, in anticipation of the fall term.

Judge LaBuy evolved the revisions after studying judicial systems in various cities. Among the innovations, found working successfully elsewhere, will be a new calendar call system, the setting up of a pretrial judge who will classify suits, assign them to judges when they are ready for trial, and endeavor to reduce actual trial work by effecting settlements where possible.

In addition all preliminary motions will be heard by one judge in order to permit all other judges to engage exclusively in trial work.

NAZIS SENTENCE 4 TO JAIL IN MASS TRIAL OF MONKS

Catholic Leaders in U. S. Brand Charges 'Faked.'

COBLENZ, Germany, May 27.—(AP)—More than half the 500 Franciscan friars in twenty monasteries in Germany were under indictment tonight for immoral acts, government officials announced.

The disclosures came on the heels of the first convictions which sent Friar Peter Steinhoff, 46, to the penitentiary for eight years and deprived him of citizenship rights for ten years.

Wilhelm Schroeder, 28, a neophyte, was sentenced to five months in jail and two youths, 18 and 19 years old, to two and four months, respectively.

The monks are charged with committing immoral acts with male minors intrusted to their care.

Nazi Judge Explains Trial.

"What we are particularly concerned about in judging the present first of the series of cases affecting members of the Franciscan order," said Presiding Judge von Koolwyk, "is the fact Leovigill [Steinhoff's brotherhood name] committed the most serious crimes against German youth whose interest it is our business to safeguard. A special feature of this trial is it involves an ordained priest who is under the protection and garb of his order.

The majority of the Franciscan institutions are in the Rhineland and Westphalia.

Charges Called "Faked."

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—Catholic leaders here today branded the Nazi charges of immorality by German monks as "faked," citing an article in the Catholic periodical America in the March 21 issue, as evidence that the accusations had been foreseen.

The article quoted Prince Loewenstein of the Bavarian royal house as warning that the Nazis were "planning to launch a new assault upon the church."

Fake Photographs Prepared.

It continued:

"He maintains that 'hundreds of faked photographs are already prepared; false witnesses are being rehersed for their parts; horrible charges will be launched against many priests.'

"The purpose of it all is naturally to create a state of mind in Germany hostile to the Catholic church in order that Hitler's aims might be accomplished."

At the same time the Tablet, a London Catholic weekly, was quoted as having cited a specimen case of faking in which a young German priest was compromised after being summoned on a fake sick call.

Protestant Paper Suspended.

BERLIN, May 27.—(AP)—The government suspended the Protestant weekly newspaper Reichsbote today for an article held detrimental to the efforts of Hans Kerrl, head of the department of church affairs, to cement church peace. The editorial discussed an "emergency situation" in the Protestant church. It ended: "The hour calls for a decisive act." The Reichsbote once was the mouthpiece of the Empress Auguste Viktoria, first wife of former Kaiser Wilhelm.

Nine Seized in Holland.

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, May 27.—(AP)—Nine men, including two high in government office, were arrested today on charges of sexual irregularity. Among those taken into custody were Dr. L. A. Ries, treasurer general of the finance department, and Dr. W. F. Fruin, legal adviser of the department of justice.

The others arrested are well known in minor artistic circles at The Hague.

Police said they expected to make more arrests on the same charge in provincial cities.

They said they had carried on secret investigations into the matter for some time but that lack of sufficient evidence and the high positions of the men involved had delayed their action until today.

ZION MINISTER FAILS TO POST MANN ACT BAIL

Will Go Willingly to Face Milwaukee Trial.

Dejected in appearance, his eyes bloodshot after a night in the county jail, the Rev. Finis Jennings Dake, pastor and Bible teacher at Zion, waived examination when he was arraigned yesterday before United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker on proceedings for his removal to Milwaukee, where he faces trial on a charge of violating the Mann act.

The Rev. Mr. Dake, who is 33 years old, married, and the father of a daughter 8 years old, is accused by the government of taking Emma Barelli, 16 years old, from her home town of Kenosha, Wis., on April 23, 1935, to East St. Louis, Ill., for immoral purposes. An indictment charging him with the offense was returned last February in Milwaukee.

Will Go to Milwaukee Willingly.

Dake, who is pastor of the Christian Assembly church and school supervisor of the Shiloh Bible institute at Zion, remained silent while his attorneys told the commissioner he would agree to be taken to Milwaukee for trial. Dake was ordered held in bonds of $2,000.

The minister sat with his head bowed as Assistant District Attorney Raymond Drymalski read the portion of the indictment which charges that he "willfully and feloniously did transport and cause to be transported in interstate commerce from Kenosha, Wis., to East St. Louis, a certain girl, Emma Barelli, for the purpose of debauchery and other immoral practices." At times the Rev. Mr. Dake wept.

Denies Immorality Charge.

"I did take her there," he admitted to interviewers after the hearing. "But there was no immorality involved. I wanted to get her a job."

While his attorneys were attempting to arrange for his bond, the minister was locked up with other prisoners in the United States marshal's office. At the end of the day he was taken back to the county jail.

At Zion parishioners of the Rev. Mr. Dake asserted they had the "utmost confidence" in their pastor. "It's a frameup," John Erickson, a director in the church and bible school, said. "Mr. Dake is a fine man and we are all going to stand behind him."

Dake's wife, Dorothy, who assists him in the services, has already declared her loyalty.

The minister, it is charged, registered at hotels in Waukegan, Bloomington, and East St. Louis with the girl under the name of Christian Anderson and wife. Dake, according to government investigators, said he picked the girl up as she was hitchhiking and she insisted he drive her to East St. Louis, where he was to deliver Bible lectures in nearby communities.

One-Fifth of Germany on Dole, Nazi Report Shows

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, May 27.—Thirteen million persons—one-fifth of the entire German population—were relieved by the "winter help fund" during the past winter, a report issued today by Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, reichsminister of propaganda, revealed. A total of $150,000,000 was raised by the fund, of which $95,000,000 was cash and the remainder in merchandise.

MY CLOTHES BECAME FADED AND WASHWORN

BEFORE I REALIZED HARSH SOAP WAS TO BLAME

says MRS. LEONARD E. WHITE

"I certainly have learned my lesson! In an effort to save some money, I tried out some of these bargain soaps. My linens couldn't last long the way I had to rub and rub to get them clean. The children's clothes began to fade. Well—I went right back to American Family's rich, mild suds—they never harm anything. The children's new suits and my new linens look ever so much better now—and they last far longer, too!"

It's Cheaper to buy Good Soap than New Clothes

YES, American Family Soap makes washing easier, safer, quicker . . . because the formula is created especially for the water of this region. You get more real suds-making material . . . purer, creamier DOUBLE-SUDS. That's economy for you! And these double-suds, you know, work double-fast yet gently. Out floats even the grimiest dirt—rinses completely—without hard rubbing. Colors stay true. All washables keep life, newness, months longer. Next washday, just try American Family Soap. See what a "find" it is in cutting washing time and labor, in saving money on clothes needs. Here's added proof—Chicago women buy more American Family brand than any other.

His Hair Roots are NOT Dead

Hair roots are a part of the human body and do not "die" as long as the body itself lives. They become inactive when (1) they are attacked by some local scalp disorder (such as dandruff) or (2) when they have not received sufficient nourishment. Hair roots are alive, even in a bald scalp and are ready to respond to proper stimulative treatment.

Seventeen years ago Paul A. Thomas discovered the proper method of stimulating the dormant sources of hair growth. His method has been improved each year and today is as near perfect as any scalp treatment can be. First, Thomas treatment overcomes all local scalp infections, stops scalp itch and abnormal hair fall. It then stimulates the tiny glands in the scalp which nourish the hair. Thus, "sleeping hair" obtains sufficient strength to grow again and become visible on the scalp.

Come in today and learn how Thomas can help you to have a good, healthy head of hair. Thomas never makes a charge for consultation or complete scalp examination. All service is rendered in private.

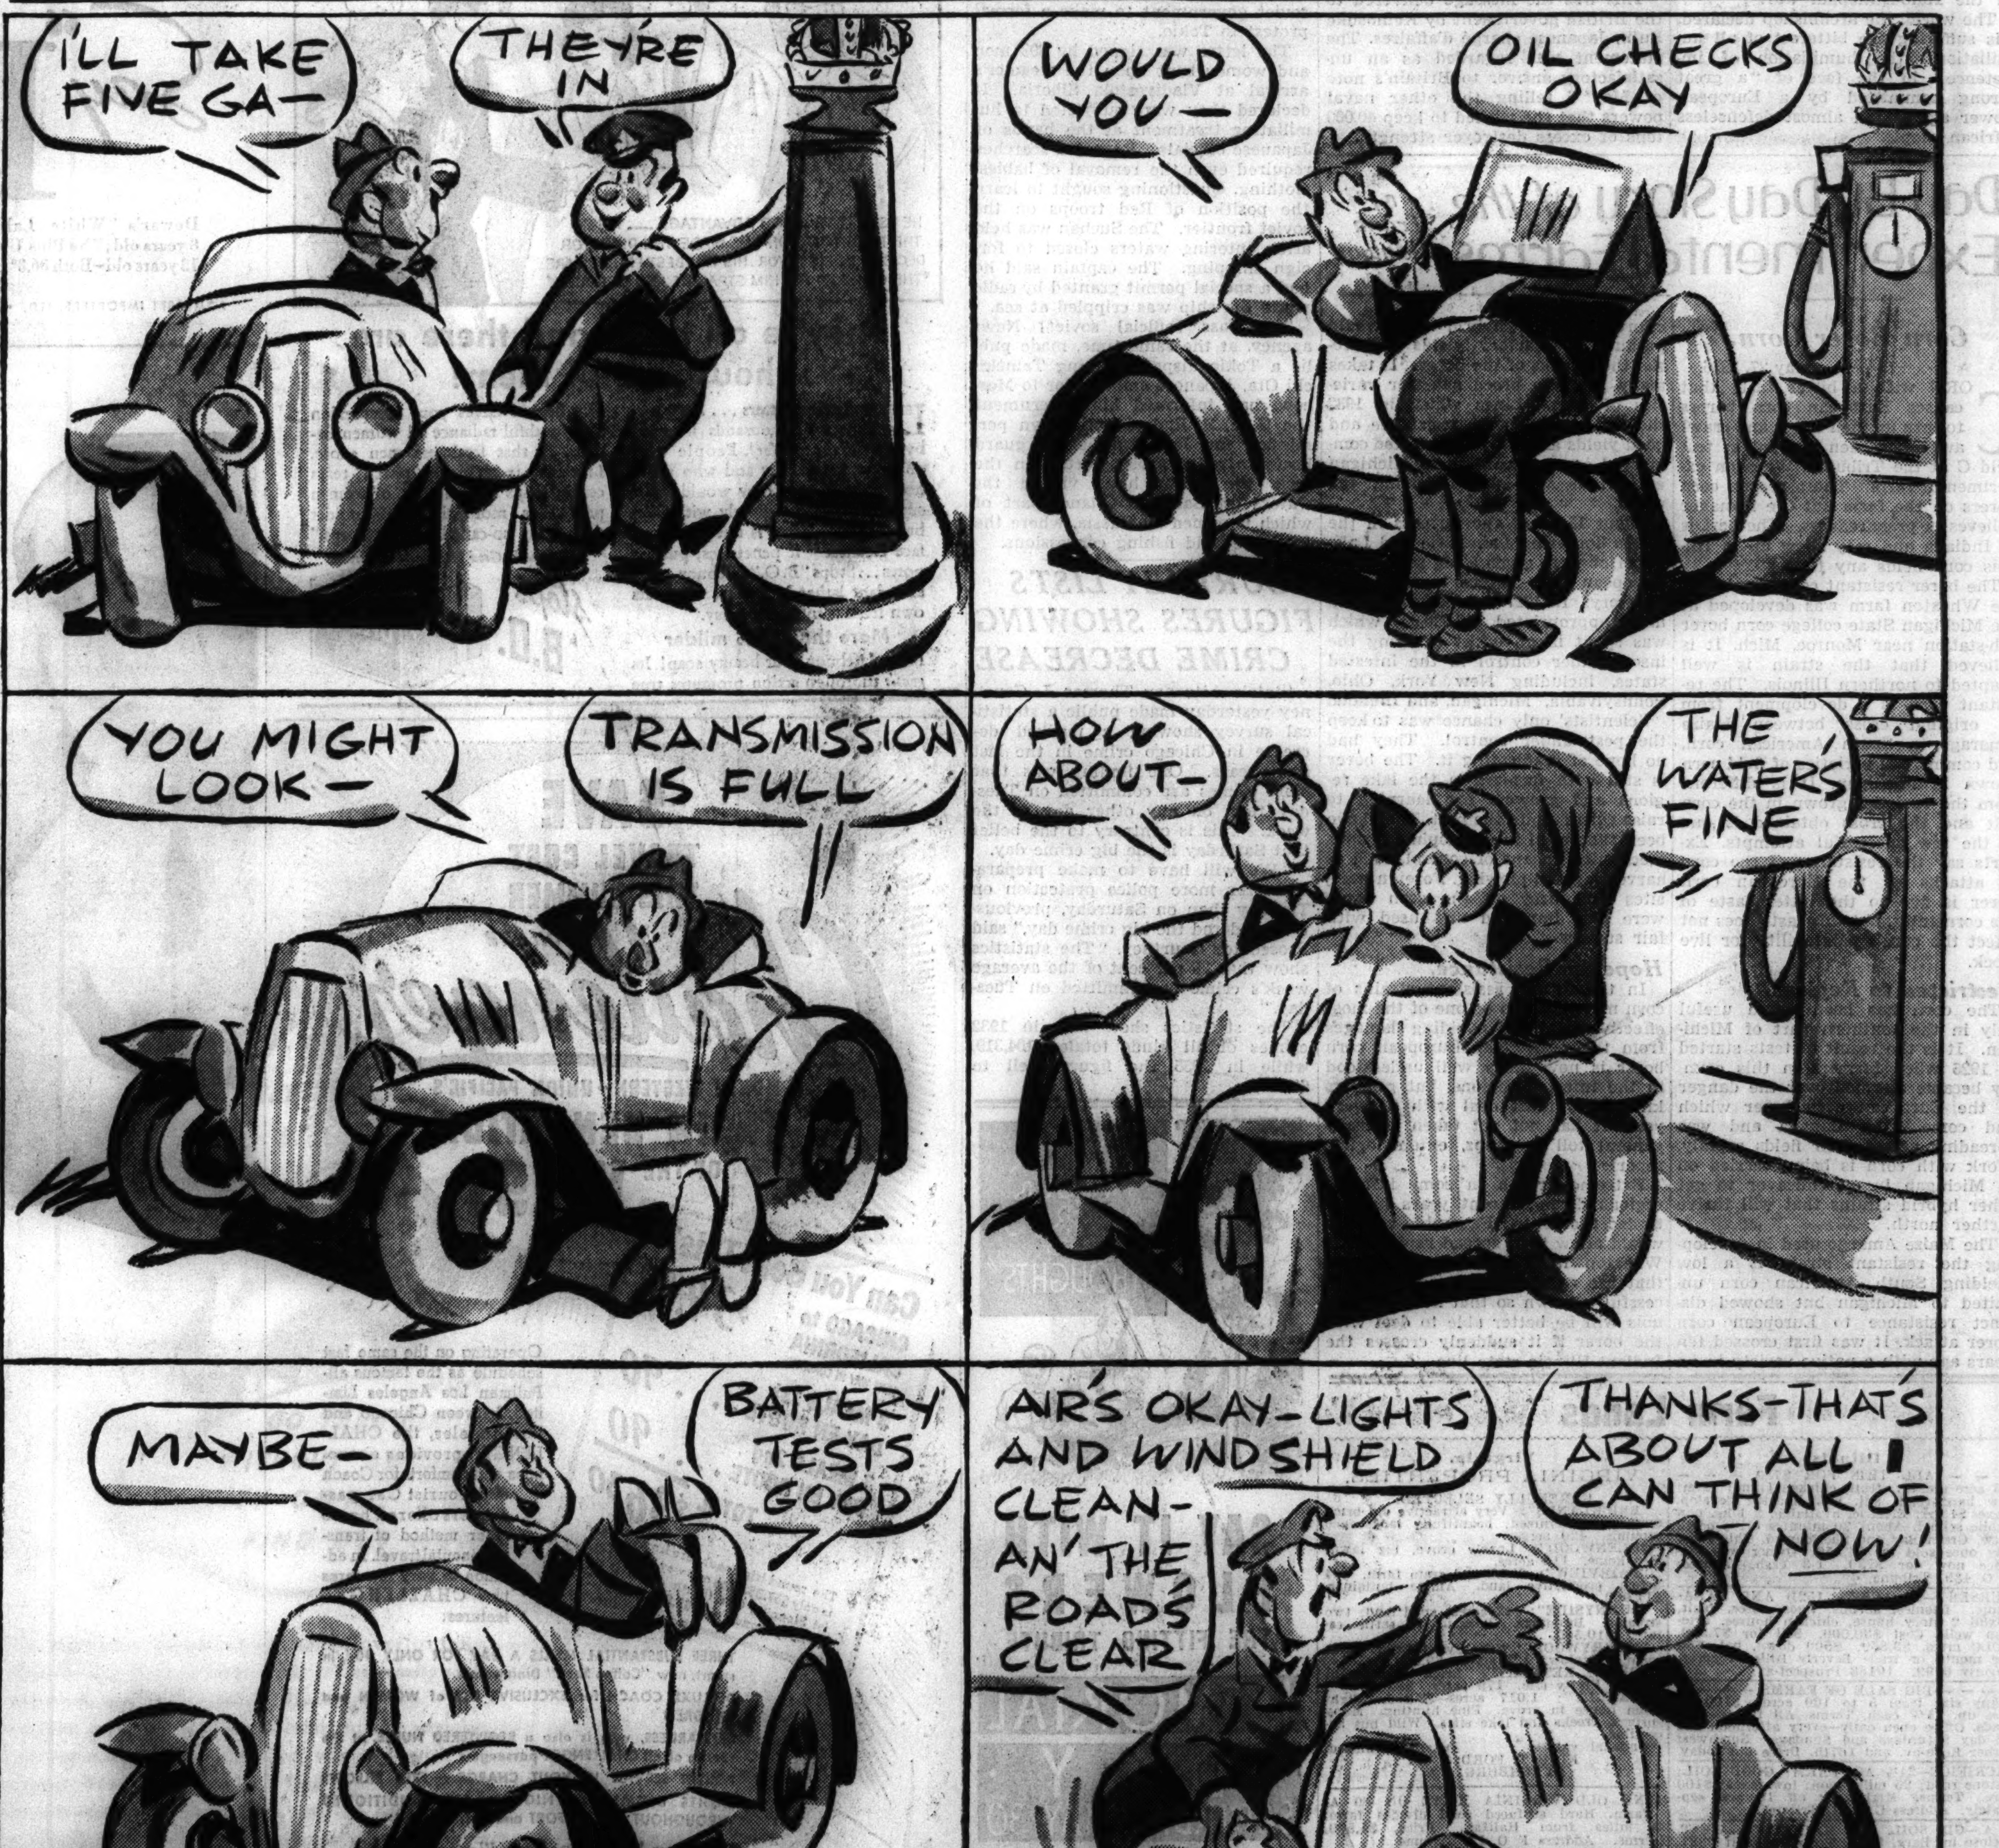
STANDARD OIL SERVICE

AS SEEN BY Lichty



Copr. 1936, Standard Oil Co.

Thousands of newspaper and magazine readers have chuckled over the gay goings-on pictured by the humorous pencil of George Lichty. Here you have his impression of that deft and alert benefactor of motorists, the Standard Dealer. To be sure, Mr. Lichty has let himself go a little in illustrating what happens to a car when it drives up to a Standard Dealer. But if you've experienced it yourself you'll admit that the men who sell Standard's gasoline and motor oil are almost uncanny in spotting what needs to be done to make motoring pleasanter and safer for you. They are helpful without being bothersome—where you see the sign of Standard Service.

WE WILL PAY CASH . . . We'd like to have your impression of Standard Service, either in writing or in a drawing, or both. This is not a contest—we are simply making this offer: For any original drawing or letter about STANDARD OIL SERVICE which we find acceptable for use in our advertising, we will pay ten dollars. Your nearest Standard Dealer has a card which will give you further details. REDS REPLY TO ATTACK BY POPE ON COMMUNISM

Accuse Church of Alliance with Militarism.

MOSCOW, May 27.—(AP)—Pope Pius' recent attack on communism and soviet Russia received an official reply today.

The government newspaper Izvestia stated there was no law discriminating against the Roman Catholic church in Russia, declaring: "Any differentiation between religions is quite strange to soviet policy."

Izvestia accused the Roman Catholic church of joining forces with "the contemporary barbarism of Fascism and militarism."

The paper criticized the pontiff severely for reference to the "triumphal gladness" of the Italian people in commenting on the end of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

Pope Pius, said Izvestia, "is openly interfering with the domestic and foreign policies of nations."

More Changes Made.

"While teaching love of human beings," said the government organ, "he blesses the cruel suppression of one people by another."

In reply to the pope's reference to communism as "a force of evil," the newspaper said:

"When the head of a church announces that triumphal gladness has been won with bombs and poison gas and finds that danger for human dignity and safety lies in the forces which guarantee freedom from material and moral slavery we have adequate proof that the specters of the past still lurk behind the statues of Venus in the Vatican museum."

British Primate Disappointed.

LONDON, May 27.—(AP)—The archbishop of Canterbury today voiced "grievous disappointment that no Christian voice was heard in Italy to remonstrate" against the use of poison gas against women and children in the Italo-Ethiopian war.

The world, the archbishop declared, "is suffering the bitterest of all humiliations, the humiliation of impotence" in the face of "a great wrong committed by a European power against an almost defenseless African people."

China Protests Jap Troop Increases to World Powers

NANKING, China, May 27.—(AP)—China refused tonight to accept Japan's explanation of why she poured thousands of additional troops into North China and made a new protest to Tokio, pointing out that strong reinforcements are not permitted under the Boxer protocol.

In answer to a protest from the Nationalist government, Tokio explained that the increasing numbers of Japanese subjects in North China made necessary a heavy reinforcement of her Tientsin garrison.

The foreign office here issued a statement disclosing it has instructed its ambassador to Washington and other Chinese diplomats in world capitals to inform the governments to which they are accredited that China is unable to accept the reasons Japan has given for augmenting the troops.

The government statement denied that unstable political conditions exist in North China, as Japanese officials have asserted, and reiterated the view that the increase of Japanese troops in North China "cannot fail to arouse Chinese suspicions of Japan's motives."

Smugglers Seize Train.

The recently formed "East Hopei Province Autonomous district," dispatches from Peiping quoted Chinese newspapers as saying, would soon be reorganized into a special district of the Japanese controlled North China demilitarized zone. The district already is strongly under Japanese influence.

A group of 150 Coreans, said a Tientsin dispatch, in an attack on the Pukow express train drove out Chinese passengers to make room for 552 bales of smuggled rayon consigned to the tiny port of Chowstun, Shantung province.

[China has protested and other nations have made representations to Japan against wide-scale smuggling into North China, allegedly fostered by the Japanese.]

Bandits Kill Thirteen.

HARBIN, Manchukuo, May 27.—(AP)—Domei [Japanese] News agency correspondents reported today the killing of at least thirteen persons in a fierce battle between bandits and train guards near Mulin, close to the eastern frontier of Manchukuo. Many were wounded. The dead included two Japanese officers, one soldier, one passenger, 3 Coreans, and 6 Manchurians.

The bandits halted the train yesterday afternoon and fought a forty minute battle with the train guards. At length they fled to the west, leaving their dead on the ground.

Dodges Japan's Envoy.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, May 27.—Shigeru Kawagoe, former Japanese consul general in Tientsin, who was appointed ambassador to Nanking, is unable to present his credentials due to the sudden decision of China's 72 years old president, Lin Sen, to leave Nanking June 19 for a summer vacation.

Kawagoe, who now is in Tokio conferring with Premier Koki Hirota and Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita, had announced he would go to Nanking June 20 to present his credentials. But a Tokio dispatch tonight said it was necessary to postpone his trip until fall.

Although Nanking approved the appointment of Kawagoe, the Cantonese government has determinedly rejected him. Other parts of China also strongly oppose him with allegations that he is a "creature of the Kwantung [continental] army and his appointment is an insult to China."

JAPS TO FOLLOW BRITISH LEAD IN NAVY PACT BREAK

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, May 27.—If Great Britain is allowed to keep her excess destroyer tonnage that is due to be scrapped under the expiring 1930 London treaty, then Japan will feel entitled to do the same.

This was the message delivered to the British government by Keinosuke Fujii, Japanese chargé d'affaires. The statement was regarded as an unsatisfactory answer to Britain's note of May 6 telling the other naval powers that she wished to keep 40,000 tons of excess destroyer strength.

REDS HELD 26 DAYS IN JAPANESE PORT TELL OF ROUGH HANDLING

MOSCOW, May 27.—(AP)—Passengers aboard the the soviet steamer Suchan, in a letter to Josef Stalin, dictator of the U. S. S. R., made public today, reported the vessel had been interned 26 days in the Japanese port of Aomori and asked the soviet government to make a formal protest to Tokio.

The letter was signed by 393 men and women sent upon the steamer's arrival at Vladivostok, Siberia. It declared they were subjected to humiliating treatment at the hands of Japanese officials. Repeated searches required even the removal of babies' clothing. Questioning sought to learn the position of Red troops on the soviet frontier. The Suchan was held after entering waters closed to foreign shipping. The captain said he had a special permit granted by radio while the ship was crippled at sea.

The Tass [official soviet] News agency, at the same time, made public a Tokio dispatch saying Tamekichi Ota, Japanese ambassador to Moscow, had informed his government the U. S. S. R. had withdrawn permission for Japanese fishery guard boats to enter soviet ports. In the past the boats have visited the waters off Sakhalin Island, part of which is owned by Russia, where the Japanese hold fishing concessions.

COURTNEY LISTS FIGURES SHOWING CRIME DECREASE

State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney yesterday made public a statistical survey showing a marked decrease in Chicago crime in the last four years. One finding was that more crimes are committed on Tuesday than on any other day of the week. This is contrary to the belief that Saturday is the big crime day.

"We will have to make preparations for more police protection on Tuesday than on Saturday, previously considered the big crime day," said Prosecutor Courtney. "The statistics show that 28 per cent of the average week's crime is committed on Tuesday."

The statistics show that in 1932 crimes of all kinds totaled 104,319, while in 1935 the figures fell to 60,185.

PA AND MA DIONNE TO MISS QUINTS' BIRTHDAY PARTY

CALLANDER, Ont., May 27.—(AP)—The Dionnes, the world's only quintuplets and among its best money makers, will have their second birthday observed for them tomorrow—but apparently their parents won't be among those present.

Report Parents Snubbed.

The quints will stage—that is if they take their cue when it's given—a singing and dancing act before the radio—and there will be lots of speeches.

But it seemed doubtful tonight that Mr. and Mrs. Oliva Dionne, who live only 100 yards from the hospital, would attend the celebration.

The parents visit the children five times a week but never when there are other visitors. They failed to accept an invitation to the birthday party last year and the report was current they had not been invited this year.

David Croll, Ontario minister of welfare and one of the quints' guardians, was not available for confirmation. He arranged the birthday party.

Children Uninterested.

The children, who have earned $250,000 since their birth in a humble farm home, were about the only ones around Callander uninterested in the fact they will be two years old tomorrow. They will be broadcast a network program between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. [Chicago time].

The quints have received messages of good will and presents from many parts of the United States and Canada. They will not be allowed to eat any of the five birthday cakes to be placed in the nursery.

Mrs. Charles Deering in Hospital for Rest

Mrs. Marion Whipple Deering, widow of Charles Deering, former chairman of the board of the International Harvester company, is a patient at the Passavant hospital, it was learned yesterday. At her home at 2645 Sheridan road, Evanston, it was said that Mrs. Deering was not ill but had entered the hospital on Tuesday for several days' rest. Mrs. Deering's son Roger left a 7 million dollar bequest to Northwestern university when he died last February.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Corn Borer Corn.

May 27, 1936.

CORN with a bitter taste that causes European corn borers to turn up their noses and crawl away has been planted in test field C at the Tribune's Wheaton experimental farm. There are no corn borers on the farm but the manager believes in preparedness. The pest is in Indiana and may show up in Illinois corn fields any time.

The borer resistant corn planted at the Wheaton farm was developed at the Michigan State college corn borer sub-station near Monroe, Mich. It is believed that the strain is well adapted to northern Illinois. The resistant corn is a development from an original cross between Maize Amarago, a South American corn, and commercial varieties of field corn grown in Michigan. It is different from the varieties grown in the corn belt and the cross obtained is one of the few successful attempts. Experts say the resistance of the corn to attacks by the European corn borer is due to the bitter taste of the cornstalks, but this taste does not affect the corn's palatability for live stock.

Restricted to Regions.

The corn has been found useful only in the southern part of Michigan. It is the result of tests started in 1926 when farmers in this country became alarmed over the danger of the European corn borer which had come from Canada and was spreading across their fields rapidly. Work with corn is being carried on in Michigan in an endeavor to get other hybrid strains that will thrive farther north.

The Maize Amargo used in developing the resistant strain is a low yielding South American corn unsuited to Michigan but showed distinct resistance to European corn borer attack. It was first crossed ten years ago with a native variety in an effort to get a hybrid that would produce satisfactory yields and resist the attacks of the borer. It takes many years to breed superior varieties of corn. Lines which in 1932 showed marked borer resistance and good yields are not yet perfected commercial corns, according to Michigan authorities who are following the work.

About 15 years ago farmers in the states bordering Lake Erie and Lake Superior were given a big scare when European corn borers invaded that territory. In 1927 the federal government appropriated $10,000,000 which was spent in an effort to bring the insect under control in the infested states, including New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Indiana.

Scientists' only chance was to keep the pest under control. They had no hope of eradicating it. The borer is still with farmers in the lake regions and growers are learning to raise corn despite the pest. They have been successful in developing various mechanical means of control, such as harvesting and plowing. Foreign parasites that prey on the corn borer were also imported and used with fair success.

Hope in Resistance.

In the future, resistant strains of corn may prove to be one of the most effective means of avoiding damages from the pest. The European corn borer is now fairly well understood in the infested regions, but growers know they must deal with it every year. It has not yet taken a heavy general toll in crops, entomologists report.

Extreme drouth in some infested regions during recent years has retarded the borer. Favorable weather would allow it to spread rapidly. The Wheaton farm manager is hopeful that the resistant strain can be successfully grown so that northern Illinois will be better able to deal with the borer if it suddenly crosses the Indiana-Illinois state line.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

ILLINOIS HOUSE ASKS U. S. BLOCK SEAWAY TREATY

Finds St. Lawrence Pact "Injustice to State."

BY PERCY WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., May 27.—[Special.]—By unanimous vote the Illinois house today reaffirmed its opposition to the St. Lawrence seaway treaty and memoralized President Roosevelt and the congress to refuse its ratification because "it constitutes a gross injustice to the state."

Under the sponsorship of Democratic Leader Benjamin S. Adamowski of Chicago and Republican Leader Leroy M. Green of Rockford, the resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote when Speaker John P. Devine asked for an expression from the house.

The document goes now to the senate, where its passage will be urged next week by Republican Leader Earl B. Searcy of Springfield and Senator Harold G. Ward of Chicago, Mayor Kelly's legislative spokesman.

Lewis and Dieterich Foes.

This was the second occasion upon which the house has expressed its opposition to the seaway treaty which President Roosevelt failed once to shove through the senate and which he is expected to attempt again. Illinois' two senators, James Hamilton Lewis and William H. Dieterich, were its opponents on the first Washington roll call.

The Illinois house described the treaty as "internationalizing Lake Michigan, a body of water entirely within the limits of the United States, and placing its control in an international joint commission."

"It [the proposed treaty] embodies the order of the Supreme court reducing the flow of water from Lake Michigan into the Chicago river to 1,500 cubic feet per second and thereby makes this order unchangeable except by international agreement," the resolution continues.

"A flow of 1,500 cubic feet per second, as provided in the treaty, is inadequate for the needs of the waterway from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, and therefore is injurious to the entire Mississippi valley."

"U. S. Pays; Canada Benefits."

"By the terms of this treaty," Adamowski and Green also wrote, "the cost of the undertaking is borne mainly by the United States and the benefits therefrom are received mainly by Canada. Not only are valuable rights of the whole United States surrendered by this treaty for no adequate consideration, but it constitutes a gross injustice to the state of Illinois, against which Illinois should have the joint protection and support of its sister states."

The resolving clauses petitioned the United States senate to "disapprove and refuse to ratify the proposed treaty to the end that a fair and just agreement may be negotiated between the United States and Canada."

It also was resolved that copies of the document be sent to the President, to Secretary of State Hull and to each member of congress.

A similar resolution was passed by both houses of the legislature on May 16, 1933, at the request of Gov. Henry Horner.

Honest Vote Bills Advanced.

Before adjourning until Tuesday morning, the house also advanced to third reading, without serious objections, all of the permanent registration bills on its calendar. Which will be called first for passage on that day was not determined.

The governor, a comparatively recent convert to the cause of honest elections, has a bill in each house which is a duplicate of the measure Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg [Rep., Chicago] has sponsored for several sessions in behalf of the Illinois League of Women Voters. It would apply to Chicago and other election board cities.

Chicago Democrats are represented by a bill for state-wide registration. There also is a measure which would make permanent registration applicable to all towns of more than 5,000 population.

Republicans and Horner Democrats are expected to support Schnackenberg's bill, although the Horner forces are expected to make an attempt to bring Republican support to the governor's bill, instead of crossing the aile themselves to aid Schnackenberg.

Constitution Changes Up Tuesday.

Speaker Devine announced that there will be a hearing before the house membership next Tuesday on the four pending resolutions calling for submission to the voters in November of proposals to amend the state constitution and call a constitutional convention.

One resolution, submitted by Representative F. W. Lewis [Dem., Robinson], proposes to give the general assembly authority to levy an income tax. Eighty per cent of such a tax, according to estimates, would also would hit other industrial cities heavily.

Blow to Wage Earners.

It is estimated also that wage earners would feel it most as consumers onto whom the tax would be passed.

Representative Joseph H. Davis [Dem., Murphysboro] has a resolution providing, if the electorate agrees, that the general assembly be authorized by a two-thirds vote to impose taxes and authorize taxation by political subdivisions without regard to present limitations in the constitution. This would do away with the restriction that all property be taxed equally and would open the way to an income tax.

Back Four-Purpose Plan.

Four members of the house introduced a resolution for a new section to the revenue article of the constitution that would be four things, as follows:

1. Permit the legislature to pass tax legislation by a two-thirds vote as provided in the Davis resolution.
2. Permit the legislature to classify property for taxation.
3. Keep for the legislature the authority to levy an income tax.
4. Limit taxes, except for the payment of existing indebtedness and future indebtedness incurred by referendum, to 1 per cent of the fair cash value of property within cities and to seven-tenths of one per cent in rural areas.

The fourth resolution, submitted by Representative A. B. Lager [Dem., Carlyle], provides that the question of calling a constitutional convention for the state be submitted in November. A similar question was voted down by the people two years ago.

13 Amendments Affect Chicago.

In the senate Louis O. Williams [Dem., Clinton], the governor's spokesman, obtained adoption of thirteen amendments to the governor's bill making minor changes suggested by the Chicago election commission. None of the bills, however, was advanced in the senate, being permitted to remain on second reading until next week.

Opponents of daylight saving time, which Chicago has adopted, failed today to advance their bill in the house. They are seeking to declare central standard the official time of the state and to prohibit any community from adopting eastern standard time, same in the summer months, and then only by referendum.

Before departing for Chicago today, Senator George M. Maypole [Dem., Chicago] announced that next week he would introduce a bill for a 30 million dollar appropriation for relief purposes to supplement sales tax and county tax funds. The bond issue would be retired over a period of twenty years from sales tax collections. Horner Democrats are expected to fight it.

Deadly Weapons Go Into Lake

Police Custodian William Doubek (right rear) and helpers throwing 4,000 guns, confiscated by police and courts in the last 11 months, into the lake from the tug Fred Britten. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Taken by Police

Several thousand firearms and other weapons, confiscated by police since last July, were thrown overboard yesterday from the tugboat Britten in the lake two miles off the Municipal pier. Among the weapons were revolvers, automatic pistols, shotguns, rifles, knives, stilettos razors, daggers, hatchets, brass knuckles blackjacks and clubs. William Doubek, police custodian, supervised the disposal.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL.

Edward J. Artenbach, 60 years old, 853 Glengyle place, died yesterday of a heart attack in a restaurant at 173 West Madison street, where he was employed as a bookkeeper.

MAYOR OPPOSES STATE CONTROL OF CHICAGO TIME

Mayor Kelly, informed yesterday of the bill introduced in the legislature which would permit that body to dictate to communities how they should set their clocks, reiterated his position that such action would be an invasion of home rule rights, and that Chicago should be given an opportunity for a referendum on time in the fall.

"I believe there should be a referendum on the time change offered by the city council," Mayor Kelly said. "As I understand it, the proposed legislative action would bar such action. I believe in home rule, and think we should have a chance to decide our policy in Chicago."

COLORED GIRLS AT WHITE HOUSE; ESCAPE, CAUGHT

Washington, D. C., May 26.—(AP)—Police said today that seven colored girls, who recently were guests of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the White House, had escaped from the National Training School for Girls and been recaptured quickly.

Officers reported the girls were picked up by police a short distance from the school early Tuesday.

One wish of the girls came true. They spent the rest of the night out—at the police house of detention.

They were guests of Mrs. Roosevelt at a lawn party following her visit to the school.

AMAZED BY SENSATIONAL GAS ECONOMY OF AMERICA'S BIG, MONEY-SAVING CAR

THINK of it! Owners say that the way Dodge economizes on gasoline, it is saving them up to six barrels of gasoline a year! Twenty miles . . . 21 miles . . . 22 . . . 23 . . . and even more miles to the gallon! That's what Dodge owners from coast to coast report they are getting right out on the highways—right in city traffic—in average, everyday driving! Here's a typical example—a letter from Martin Brady, Valley Stream, L. I., New York. Read how Mr. Brady figures it out! He says: "I drive my new Dodge on the average of 15,000 miles a year. It is giving me 21 miles to the gallon. On this basis I'll use only about 714 gallons of gas this year. In my old car I used about 1,070 gallons. In other words I'll save about 356 gallons —or more than six large-size barrels of gas—a year!"

No wonder owners report that the big, new Dodge is actually costing them less to own and operate than any car, big or small, they ever owned before! No wonder more people buy Dodge cars than any other make, with the exception of the three lowest-priced cars!

—DODGE—
Division of Chrysler Corporation

"This invention showed me how I can save up to $50 in gas expense this year," says F. I. Peterson, Waukegan, Ill. "It's the gasometer, and it registers the miles per gallon a car will go. My old car was giving me about 12 or 13 miles per gallon. A friend told me about the Dodge gasometer test. I took this test and saw a Dodge go 21½ miles per gallon. That's why I bought a Dodge."

REYNOLDS CASE ATTORNEYS GET FEE OF MILLION

3 of Libby Holman Staf to Share Sum.

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 27.—[Special.]—A fee of more than $1,000,000 was ruled "reasonable" and approved in Forsyth County Superior court today for three attorneys who represented Libby Holman Reynolds' infant son in litigation over the 28 million dollar estate of his late father, Smith Reynolds, the tobacco heir.

The attorneys are Wallace McLennan, William Graves, and Benet Polikoff, all of Winston-Salem.

15 Per Cent Allowed.

In passing on their request for fees, Judge Wilson Warlick ruled they were entitled to a reasonable compensation and set it at 15 per cent of the net inheritance of the child, Christopher Smith Reynolds, who is now 3½ years old.

The child will receive about 7 million dollars by terms of a family agreement recently approved in various courts. Final settlement of the estate is being delayed by a claim of the federal government for death taxes, which the heirs are resisting.

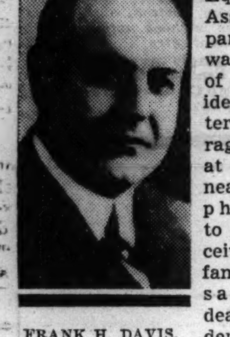
Child Gets One-Fourth.

Under the agreement, Christopher will receive one-fourth of the estate; his half sister, Anne Cannon Reynolds, will get three-eighths; Miss Holman, $750,000, and Reynolds' brother and two sisters the remainder for a memorial in memory of the dead youth.

Reynolds died of an unexplained bullet wound after a gay party at the family home here nearly four years ago, a few months after he and Miss Holman, then a popular Broadway torch singer, were married.

FRANK H. DAVIS, INSURANCE MAN, IS KILLED BY GAS

Frank H. Davis, a vice president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company and former general agent for the Equitable Life Assurance company in Chicago, was found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning yesterday in the garage of his home at Merion, Pa., near Philadelphia, according to dispatches received here. The family physician said that the death was accidental.



FRANK H. DAVIS.

Mr. Davis, who was 56 years old, was a nationally known insurance executive. He was general agent of the Equitable Life here for many years until 1922 when he went to New York to become vice president in charge of sales for the company. A few years later he became associated with the Penn Mutual as a vice president.

DAMMANN TAKES WISCONSIN HELM AS O'MALLEY DIES

Madison, Wis., May 27.—[Special.]—Secretary of State Theodore Dammann became acting governor of Wisconsin today upon the death of Lieut. Gov. Thomas J. O'Malley, who succumbed to a heart attack this morning at Hot Springs, Ark.

Dammann will serve in a dual position until Gov. Philip La Follette returns from a vacation in South America.

Mr. O'Malley became ill with acute indigestion on Saturday, the day after he and his party reached Hot Springs, but recovered. He became seriously ill at 10 o'clock last night and was removed to St. Joseph's infirmary, where he died at 4:10 a. m. Chicago time.

O'Malley worked for the Chicago and North Western railroad for 48 years before he was elected lieutenant governor of Wisconsin in 1932. He was 68. Recently he announced he would not be a candidate for reelection.

Mrs. Minnie Neebe Dies; Well Known as Artist

Mrs. Minnie Harms Neebe, a lifelong resident of Chicago, well known in art circles for her paintings, died in her home at 1320 Clybourn avenue yesterday of heart disease. She was 62 years old. Mrs. Neebe, the widow of the late Louis A. Neebe, former employé of THE TRIBUNE, is survived by two sisters, Mrs. N. E. Hausmann of Kewaskum, Wis, and Mrs. Hulda Forbes of Ithaca, N. Y., and two brothers, Otto F. Harms, 1142 Altgeld street, and Dr. Frank Harms, Orianda, Fla. Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow in the Graceland cemetery chapel.

Mrs. H. T. Gilbert Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Brewster Gilbert, 69 years old, of the Del Prado hotel, 5307 Hyde Park boulevard, who died Tuesday night, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the chapel at 5203 Lake Park avenue. Burial will be in Oak Woods cemetery. Mrs. Gilbert is survived by her husband, Hiram T. Gilbert, 86 years old, who is a special assistant to Chief Justice John J. Sonsteby of the Municipal court. The couple were married last year after the death of Mr. Gilbert's first wife.

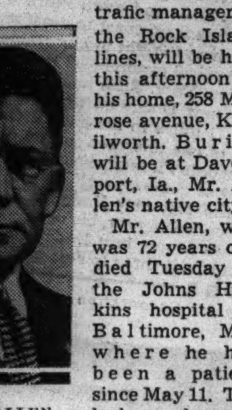
LEON M. ALLEN FUNERAL TODAY IN KENILWORTH

Funeral services for Leon Menard Allen, vice president and passenger trafic manager of the Rock Island lines, will be held this afternoon at his home, 258 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth. Burial will be at Davenport, Ia., Mr. Allen's native city.



LEON M. ALLEN.

Mr. Allen, who was 72 years old, died Tuesday in the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Md., where he had been a patient since May 11. The body was brought here yesterday.

Mr. Allen was news editor of the Davenport Gazette for a year prior to his entering the service of the Rock Island in 1881. He was made general passenger agent in 1903 and passenger trafic manager in 1909. He had been a vice president of the road since 1920.

Mr. Allen is survived by his widow, Katherine, and two sons, Francis and Leon, and a daughter, Mrs. Priscilla Slater. The children live in New York.

R. J. REYNOLDS, FORMER CITY OFFICIAL, DIES

Richard J. Reynolds, 74 years old, who served as city purchasing agent during the last term of former Mayor Carter Harrison in 1911, died yesterday at his home, 2328 Cleveland avenue, after a long illness.

Mr. Reynolds had been actively interested in the Democratic party for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the board of trade, being associated with the firm of Thompson and McKinnon until his retirement several years ago. He was a director of the Catholic Charities and interested in the Big Brother work at the Holy Name cathedral.

Surviving are his widow, Ella, and two children, John P., employed in the county recorder's office, and Richard J. Jr., national advertising manager of the New York Herald Tribune. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. in St. Clement's church, with burial at Calvary cemetery.

RULE PRESIDENT 'OUT' TO INDUCT 2 IN MORTON GROVE

Overriding their president, Herbert Dilg, who refused to call the roll, four of the six members of the Morton Grove village board last night named one of their own number temporary president and inducted into office two new village officials, Raymond Geise, village collector, and William Schiller, superintendent of streets.

At previous meetings President Dilg had blocked the majority of the board in the new appointments by refusing to call the roll and the majority brought a Circuit court mandamus suit to compel Dilg to take a vote. In a hearing on the suit Judge Harry M. Fisher suggested the parliamentary device of naming a temporary chairman to call the roll. The suggestion was accepted and acted on last night. The suit was dismissed by agreement yesterday.

Rev. Gilbert Brink Dies Suddenly in California

Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—[Special.]—The Rev. Gilbert H. Brink, 63, nationally prominent Baptist clergyman, dropped dead in the Baptist convention office today. He was for five years associated with the American Baptist Home Mission society and later was secretary of the American Baptist Publication society of Philadelphia, Pa.

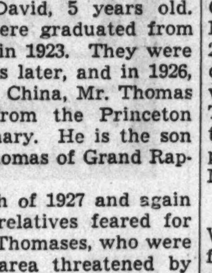
Earl Stimson, 62, B. and O. Maintenance Chief, Dies

Baltimore, Md., May 27.—(AP)—Baltimore and Ohio railroad officials announced here that Earl Stimson, 62, chief engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio maintenance of way department since 1910, died tonight in the Massillon, O., hospital. He was stricken Monday while on an inspection tour and was taken from a train at Massillon.

REV. C. H. THOMAS DIES OF TYPHUS IN CHINESE CITY

Herbert J. Dunton, 215 North Scott street, Wheaton, received word yesterday that his son-in-law, the Rev. Claude H. Thomas, a missionary, died of typhus Tuesday, on his thirty-sixth birthday, at Shunteh, China. The Rev. Mr. Thomas, a member of the China Inland mission, was on the staf of the Shansi Bible institute.



REV. CLAUDE THOMAS.

With the missionary were his wife, the former Ruth Dunton, and their children, Rhoda Jeanne, 7 years old, and David, 5 years old. The Thomases were graduated from Wheaton college in 1923. They were married two years later, and in 1926, before sailing for China, Mr. Thomas was graduated from the Princeton Theological seminary. He is the son of Mrs. Jennie Thomas of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Twice, in March of 1927 and again this year, their relatives feared for the safety of the Thomases, who were stationed in an area threatened by communist troops.

FAULTY GASOLINE LINE BLAMED FOR PLANE'S BURNING

A defective gasoline line leading from the tanks to the left wing engine was responsible for the burning of an American Airlines transport plane at Chicago airport on Tuesday. This was the conclusion yesterday of company engineers who conducted an inquiry into the cause of the fire which came just as the ship was departing for Detroit. The pilot, Edward Coates, made a lightning landing and jumped to safety with two other men aboard just as the airplane touched the ground.

R. C. Altalo of Detroit, the only passenger, suffered only minor burns, but Coates and his courier, William Carnegie, were more severely injured. Coates was still at the Evangelical Deaconess hospital last night.

There was 11 pounds of United States mail aboard the plane. Heavy canvas bags in which it was packed resisted the fire and 90 per cent of the mail was salvaged, according to postal officials.

PAST DUE BILL PERILS WATER SUPPLY OF 700

The water supply of nearly 700 residents of a district just outside the northwest city limits, which was discontinued for five days last week, may be shut off again today unless the Irving-Harlem Utility corporation pays $150 on a $4,000 delinquent water bill to the Chicago water department.

After payment of $350 on the bill Tuesday and a promise to pay $150 more today and $200 a month in addition to current bills, the city agreed to serve water to the corporation, which resells it to residents of the district bounded by Irving Park boulevard and Berteau, Octavia and Olcott avenues. But the corporation was warned that the supply would be shut off again if it fails to pay.

The city's action was upheld by Judge Stanley Klarkowski in Circuit court when the corporation's petition for a mandatory injunction forbidding the city to shut off the water was denied.

CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

Advance plans for the broadcast of the Dionne quintuplets' second birthday party [5:30 p. m. today over WMAQ-NBC] call for plenty of official ceremonies, as is often the case on programs of the Canaidan radio broadcasting commission. Dr. Dafoe will have something to say, Judge J. A. Valin, chairman of the wards' committee, will speak, and David Croll, minister of public welfare, will have his inning.

George Taggart and Aurele Hunt, commentators, will comment, and Frazier Hunt, magazine writer, is to put in a few words. If there is any time left the famous babies will then have their turn. Papa Dionne, however, positively will not speak.

Gale Page, NBC songstress, bobbed up as an actress on Today's Children, dramatic serial, yesterday, and will be heard regularly. . . . Willis Cooper, who writes Flying Time and Lights Out, has been signed by the 20th Century-Fox pictures to write dialog. That's the same studio for which Don Aemche is working. . . . The Republican Grass Roots committee has reserved the 7:45 to 8 p. m. period on Thursdays on WLS. Robert McCormick Adams will speak tonight.

"With Other People's Money," WBBM program dramatizing cases from the files of organizations affiliated with the Chicago Council of Social Agencies, has received the award of distinction from the National Council of Social Work in annual convention at Atlantic City. Phil Bowman produced the series.

WLS is to broadcast the speech of Earl Browder, secretary of the communist party, at 7:30 tomorrow night from Ashland auditorium. Communist Browder sounded off recently over the Columbia network. . . . George Givot, comedian appearing at the College inn, will do a guest turn on the NBC Jamboree at 6:30 p. m. Saturday on WMAQ. . . . Annie Bell Hunniecutt, an amateur who sang a spiritual on Maj. Bowes' hour last Sunday evening, has been summoned by Warner Brothers to sing in their movie version of "The Green Pastures."

Xavier Cugat, playing at the Stevens hotel currently, has been placed under option by Paramount for use in making the picture, "Big Broadcast of 1937," which goes into production in July. . . . Virginia Clark will forget "The Romance of Helen Trent" for the summer and sail June 23 on the Vollendam for France. She plans to visit England, Germany, Switzerland, and Italy, too. . . . Jack Hylton probably will do his June 7 program from Washington, D. C., and two weeks later will be in Toronto prior to returning to Chicago for the final broadcasts of his series. He is in Detroit this week. . . . Nickelodeon, with its mellerdramas, will return to NBC on Thursday, June 4.

The will of the late Col. George Fabyan, noted scientist, disposing of personal property valued at $175,000, was admitted to probate yesterday by Judge Harry C. Daniels in the Kane county Probate court at Geneva. The will creates a trust to yield $150 a month to Miss Belle Cumming, Col. Fabyan's secretary, and bequeathes the residue of the estate to the widow, Nelle Fabyan. Col. Fabyan's estate, Riverbank, near Geneva and other real estate are held in Mrs. Fabyan's name. The colonel, who was credited with organizing the cryptographical branch of the intelligence unit during the world war, died May 17 at Riverbank. He was 69 years old.

Patrick J. Meehan Dies; Resident Here 55 Years

Patrick J. Meehan, 76 years old, a resident of Chicago for the last 55 years, died yesterday at his home, 8949 Huston avenue. He was born in Ireland and came here in 1881. Surviving are his widow, Nellie, and three children. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's church, South Chicago, with burial at Mount Olivet cemetery.

Otis White, 68, a Founder of Electric Concern, Dies

Springfield, Ill., May 27.—(AP)—Otis White, 68, vice president and one of the founders of the Sangamon Electric company, died here today at his home.

Tired.. Nervous Wife Wins Back Pep!

Her raw nerves were soothed. She banished that "dead-tired" feeling. Won new youthful color—restful nights, active days—all because she rid her system of bowel-clogging wastes that were sapping her vitality. NR Tablets (Nature's Remedy)—the mild, safe, all-vegetable laxative—worked the transformation. Try it for constipation, biliousness, headaches, dizzy spells, colds. See how refreshed you feel. Flyers Drop Flowers on Will Rogers' Mausoleum

Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—(AP)—Flowers were dropped today upon the mausoleum of the late Will Rogers from planes piloted by Amelia Earhart, Col. Roscoe Turner, Clyde Pangborn, Moye Stevens, and Paul Mantz. The ceremony was in observance of Will Rogers week, proclaimed by Gov. Frank Merriam in remembrance of the cowboy-humorist, who was killed with Wiley Post in an Alaskan plane crash.

June Brides Reveal Plans for Weddings

Attendants Are Selected; Dates Set.

BY JUDITH CASS.

It is a question whether Thursday, June 25, or Saturday, June 27, is to be the most popular date for fashionable weddings this year. That one or the other day will earn that distinction seems fairly certain, with three weddings already planned for the former date, and with five scheduled for the always popular final Saturday of June.

Miss Martha Lee is the third bride to decide on the 25th for her wedding. She and Roland K. Smith Jr. are to be married at 4 o'clock at St. Chrysostom church, with a reception afterward at the Ambassador East hotel, where Miss Lee lives with her mother, Mrs. T. George Lee, and her sister, Mrs. Lee Graham.

Only the relatives and friends who were at the dinner Mrs. Lee gave last Saturday for her daughter and Mr. Smith are being invited to the wedding and the reception.

Mrs. Graham will be her sister's only attendant, and Robert Wales Jr., who was Mr. Smith's roommate at Princeton, will be his best man. Mr. Smith and his bride will spend a month in Bermuda, and afterward will live on the near north side.

Miss Elizabeth Lloyd to Be Bride June 17.

Wednesday, June 17, is to be the wedding day of Miss Elizabeth Scott Lloyd and Philip A. Starck. Miss Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lloyd, have just bought a house at 53 East Division street, and the wedding is to take place there at 4:30 o'clock with the Rev. Harrison Ray Anderson, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, officiating.

Because of the death last summer of Mr. Starck's father, Philip T. Starck, only relatives are being invited to the wedding and to the reception afterward, and all the parties to be given for the young couple will be small and informal. Miss Mildred Starck, Mr. Starck's sister, will be Miss Lloyd's only attendant, and Harry Schaack will be Mr. Starck's best man.

After an extended wedding trip Mr. Starck and his bride will be at home in an apartment on the near north side on Aug. 1.

Charlotte Fleming Plans Large Wedding.

A large wedding is contemplated by Miss Charlotte Fleming and Norman Lee Cram on June 30 at the Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest. The ceremony will be read at 4:30 o'clock, with a reception afterward in the garden of the Joseph B. Flemings, Miss Fleming's parents, in Lake Forest.

Miss Fleming's elder sister, Miss Josephine Fleming, will be her maid of honor, and Miss Lily Fleming, another sister, and Miss Ruth Abells, a friend of Miss Fleming since childhood, will be bridesmaids. Eight year old Jean Alice Fleming, youngest of the sisters, will be a flower girl.

Ambrose Lanfear Cram, Mr. Cram's twin brother, is coming from New York to be his best man. Prentice Browning, George Keller, who was Mr. Cram's roommate at Yale; William Wieboldt, and Edward Watermulder, another of Mr. Cram's Yale friends, will be ushers. Mr. Cram and his bride will live on the near north side.

O'Brien-Hamilton Nuptials June 27.

Miss Jean O'Brien, who will be among the brides to be married on June 27, is to be here so little of the time between now and her marriage that her friends are finding it difficult to plan the parties that they would like to give for her and her fiancé, Fred P. Hamilton Jr.

Miss O'Brien is leaving next week for Omaha to superintend the decorating and the furnishing of the apartment that she and Mr. Hamilton already have selected. Then she

The Ten Offer Glow of Spring in Art Exhibit

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The Ten, that group of Chicago artists who used to wear modernism like a flower in their buttonhole, has opened an exhibit of water colors in the Marshall Field galleries and it is one of the most delightful shows in town.

The show is clever, whimsical, pretty, sensitive, colorful, and fresh. It is in tune with the riot of dandelions that gild our parks and the tumult of birds that brighten our morning. The exhibit is as significant of early summer as the fresh green of the leaves on the elms shadowing Sheridan road in Evanston.

The exhibition is so excessively good that it daunts a sober pen and demands a bit of ecstatic exaggeration to describe it. Flora Schofield, who in earlier days marched heavily along with terra cotta figures to right and left of her, is now painting intelligibly and beautifully. Her two still lifes, "Fruit on Table," and "Grandmother's Chair," are among the most stunning compositions in this exhibit.

Frances Foy fascinates us with several delicious flower studies in her own particular manner. "Cactus Blossoms" and "White Lilies" are both very lovely. Jean Crawford Adams has a striking still life, "Brown and White Flowers," that is loosely painted and very decorative.

Emil Armin offers several vivid and sparkling landscapes in bright pinks and blues. His pointilliste "Autumn on the Island" is intriguing. Charles Biesel and Fred Biesel show a group of landscapes excellently handled. "Sister Bay," by Charles Biesel, stands out, and the "Gray Day," a dune episode, by Fred Biesel, is well done.

V. M. S. Hannell remains the Peter Pan of the Ten and his humor and fantastic feeling for composition and drawing stamp his water colors. His red cows and white sheep and lambs are story book creatures and would serve capitally as illustrations. The "Fence Row" is another intriguing bit of fantasy.

Emil Grumieaux places the emphasis on pattern and his work is decorative and interesting. The "Early Spring," by Frances Strain, is another picture no one can afford to miss.

The exhibit will continue to June 7 and is well worth while.

Trip to Bermuda

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Walker [Jane McMurray] left yesterday afternoon for New York on the first lap of a belated honeymoon. The Walkers were married on May 9, but instead of having the wedding at St. Chrysostom's and a reception afterward at the Woman's Athletic club, the ceremony took place quietly at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walker, because of his sudden illness.

Yesterday Mr. Walker, his bride, her mother, Mrs. George N. McMurray, and the bridegroom's mother had luncheon together in the "900" restaurant before going to the station, where the couple's wedding attendants gathered to see them off. Among them were Mr. Walker's brother and sister-in-law, the junior William M. Walkers; Mr. Walker Sr., Miss Suzanne Morris, Miss Adelaide Ball, who was to have been maid of honor; John Goodwillie, Mrs. Charles S. Connell, and Ralph Swanson.

Mr. Walker and his bride are sailing Saturday for Bermuda. When they return June 17 they will be at home for the summer in Mr. McMurray's apartment at 900 North Michigan avenue.

Leaving on the same train for New York was Miss Betty Smith, who is sailing for Europe. Her mother, Mrs. Harold C. Smith; her brother, Harold B. Smith; her sister, Mrs. Morrison Waud, and Miss Dorothy Dewes were among those bidding Miss Smith au revoir.

Also sailing for Europe today are Mrs. Alexander H. Revell, Miss Helen Bell, Miss Virginia Hobart, and Mrs. John Jay Abbott, all of whom are going to England.

Good Morning!

There's a title to make you prick up your ears!

And what do you behold come to pass in the picture that the title heralds?

Why you see the POLICEMAN traveling in the G-MAN'S shoes; making life plenty hot and death extremely permanent for racketeers in high and low places.

"Bullets or Ballots" aims to demonstrate what concerted action by honest police serving under honest guidance to secure evidence for an honest grand jury could accomplish.

Edward G. Robinson, expert depicter of either a mug or a dealer with mugs, turns in a characteristically sincere and convincing performance. He is seen first as a cop—victim of racketeers, who has been demoted through influence brought to bear on his superiors by powers of the underworld. His demotion has had no effect on his loyalty and he pounds the sidewalks of the Bronx, confident that he'll be reinstated if ever his good friend, Capt. Dan McLaren, gets to be commissioner.

Capt. McLaren is made commissioner—and Johnny Blake is fired BY Capt. McLaren! Whereat Johnny plants a haymaker [I think it was a haymaker] on the new commissioner's chin and goes over to be henchman for Al Kruger, racketeer boss who long has admired Johnny and yearned to have him on HIS side. . . .

From the time that Johnny joins Kruger's forces Commissioner McLaren and his forces, sworn to clean up the city, have uncanny success and I suspect you can read what's written in the tea leaves from here on. . . .

A well acted drama of crooks, cops, and courts, "Bullets or Ballots" with some pithy dialog and a lot of action. The only mistake I could see in the direction was making Kruger such a darn likable fellow! It's just not ethical to give a rat—wings.

"SLALOM."
Filmed in Switzerland.
Presented at the Sonotone theater.

The Sonotone should prove to be a sort of sportsman's paradise this week.

Besides "Slalom"—dear knows what the word means, but it SHOULD mean "skiing"—the screen presents an interesting short subject on deep sea fishing that I, who am a lady who would like to catch a fish larger than a rock bass but have about given up hope of ever doing so, found perfectly thrilling.

"Slalom" is an unusual sort of thing. It was screened at St. Moritz and tunes its exhibitions of marvelous skiing and skating and scenery to a slight but entertaining comedy romance. Practically all of the story action occurs while the characters are skiing or otherwise engaged in the exhilarating out of door sports for which Switzerland is famous. The finale is a fantastic wedding.

The picture has been directed with skill and there is a delightful musical accompaniment.

She's using two powders, one light in texture and tint beneath another that is heavier and a bit darker; after both are fluffed on, a soft blending brush is used, and the skin looks luminous and fresh for hours on end.

We've been enthusiastic about the trick of using two powders—one lighter both in shade and texture than the other—since we learned last year what it can do for the face that needs glorifying. The lighter tint beneath one subtly darker gives the skin a luminous, fresh quality that lasts almost all day. It's a marvelous makeup tip introduced by one of our great beauty specialists.

This same specialist now has her powders worked out in the perfect combinations. At your favorite shop you'll find powder pairs assembled in an attractive pink box with a soft little blending brush tossed in for good measure.

There are six powders in lighter shades, all in a texture that's incredibly light. These powders, to be used for the first dusting, are extremely airy-fairy. Each light shade has a somewhat darker and heavier powder that complements it perfectly. Buying the two at once eliminates guesswork and saves expensive experimentation.

When you've decided on the pair that best enhance your complexion charms you must use them properly. Fluff the lighter powder on first—and do it rather generously, always remembering that powder should be dusted on—never, never rubbed in! Then over this directly dust on the second one, also generously. Wait for a moment and then set to work with your blending brush. This last is important. In fact, we're inclined to feel that no makeup step is as vital as the use of a blending brush. Its use gives a smooth, beautifully soft coating of powder, and the two shades blended in this way do nice things for any face.

Marquisette Styles Crisp, Cool Outfits

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Cool looking daytime clothes, trim tailored and designed by imaginative souls with the mind on pictorial quality as well as practical use, have been unpacked in one shop and they should go out in a hurry. They are of filmy, dark, high fashion marquisette, a transparent summer material a bit softer than organdy, and yet retaining some of the organdy crispness without wrinkling as much.

Two models and two street colors are yours for the choosing. The navy blue is a good deep blue and the black is satisfyingly dull of texture without any trace of a grayish cast.

Simple tucks in vertical formation fashion the elbow sleeved one piece dress, with a high neck line. The skirt is straight and the only color is introduced in the 3 inch wide grosgrain belt of pale gold color. The other model is of the plain marquisette, with fluting of the material edging the convertible V collar and outlining the very brief sleeves.

Both these models are good buys to wear with wide brimmed straw or fabric hats, the leghorns especially—those flattering, floppy straw hats that are trimmed with a bit of black or navy blue lace or with color bows of soft velvet ribbon. Or these dresses can go with snowy white costume accessories, the wide cuffed gloves of white, the clever snappy berets of white pique, white linen hats, and white linen handbags matched to equally spanking white footgear.

For shoppers who spend the day in town and dine late in the evening in town, for fastidious young business women who appreciate the impeccable smartness of a filmy, cool, dark outfit made doubly smart with white or pastel accessories, these black and blue thin things are the finds of the week.

Ravinia Park Concert Series Near Reality

Group Formed to Support Symphony Season.

BY EDWARD BARRY.

According to an announcement by Henry E. Voegeli, manager of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, the much discussed project of reopening Ravinia park, whose wooded north shore acres were for many years the center of the summer musical life of the middle west, came a long step nearer reality yesterday with the formation of a Ravinia Festival association. This organization will take advantage of the offer of Mrs. Louis Eckstein to donate the park this coming season, and will sponsor a five weeks concert series there by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, if the $25,000 fund deemed necessary to place the idea on a sound financial basis can be raised. Encouraging progress has already been reported.

Tentative plans call for a July 3 opening, four concerts each week-end, eminent guest conductors, and popular admission prices.

The meeting out of which grew the Ravinia Festival association took place at the Midday club yesterday. Willoughby G. Walling was made acting chairman of the new organization and R. E. Pritchard its treasurer.

The plan for the association provides for a board of fifteen trustees. The following have already agreed to serve: Maurice Berkson, Donald S. Boynton, Arthur Cable, Thomas H. Fisher, Ralph Poole, Clarence B. Randall, Edward L. Ryerson Jr., Durand Smith, Mrs. Alfred K. Stern, Mrs. Robert E. Wood, and Mr. Walling.

Among the north shore residents who are members of the association are Robert Adler, James Becker, Richard Bentley, Donald Boynton, Ambrose Cramer, Gilbert H. Fuller, Jack Griswold, Harry C. Holloway, James Kemper, T. W. Kimball, F. M. Knight, G. Knight, H. B. Mulford, H. W. Murray, John Newey, Allen Noyes, Felix Simon, R. P. Sherer, G. R. Schaeffer, A. K. Stern, George Voevodsky, Howard R. Will, Cloud Wampler, Rawleigh Warner, Elmer Wieboldt, Werner Wieboldt, and Donald Welles.

A single month's intensive study of pedal technique would turn Samuel Sorin from a good pianist into an excellent one. This thought presented itself quite strongly last night, after I had heard about half of the young

Here's a Visit to Set of New Crawford Film

With Lionel Barrymore in Historical Movie.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., May 27.—[Special.]—Through a gloomy passageway on one of M. G. M.'s sound stages and around a high temporary canvas wall, one approaches a scene which is all sunlight and roses. This scene is the courtyard of Franklin inn, as it stood in Washington, D. C., in 1825, the period of the current Joan Crawford-Lionel Barrymore picture, "The Gorgeous Hussy" [Peggy O'Neale]. The sunlight and roses are man made.

"These same buildings are still standing in Washington as they stood in Andrew Jackson's time [Barrymore plays 'Old Hickory'], but not in anything like the shape we have recreated them here," Director Clarence Brown says, pointing to the shingled roofs with spired dovecote, the red brick walls, the clambering roses, whitewashed doorways and little porticos. "What was then Franklin inn is now a collection of small flats or residences at 21st street and Pennsylvania avenue near the intersection of I street."

Thirty-five chickens were scratching busily in the dirt three inches thick, which makes it really an 1825 stableyard. As many pigeons are cooing on the roof and fluttering lazily to artificial limbs of some of the trees which have been put up branch by branch, twig by twig, and leaf by leaf, inside the vast sound stage. An old buggy with the shafts up stands in one of the carriage houses. A few Negro children contribute touches of color and motion to the scene covering almost an entire city block in area. The place is illuminated by the hard, yellowish light from gigantic overhead arcs that project an artificial indoor sunshine.

Joan Crawford, her chin and lower cheeks seeming thinner than this observer had ever noticed before, and her chestnut hair in perky long curls, is wearing a pale blue mousseline, with tight basque and full skirt in double pleated flounces. She appears on one of the little courtyard porches from the kitchen of the Franklin inn.

The inn belongs to her father, Tavernkeeper O'Neale, where the great men of those days in public life took lodging, got convivial or belligerent with each other, and tightened the lines on those political feuds which were to flower in blood in 1861.

Joan, who plays Peggy O'Neale, the girl most sought by men and most slurred by women in the Jackson days, stood in the frame of the white doorway while the cameraman fussed with his gadgets. Prop men came running to hoist heavily leafed twigs from olive trees on long poles where the artificial sunshine from above would cast just the right leafy shadows to frame the scene between the actress and Louis Calhern. Calhern plays Sunderland, the only nonhistorical person in the film, whose rôle is typical rather than historical. Sunderland represents a plausible promoter who talks patriotism and high sounding economics and who gets his from the rattle brained congressmen of the day.

Looking like a living print from the quaint pages of the earliest Godey's Lady book, Miss Crawford waved a welcome from the set. It proved to be a wave to Robert Taylor, playing Beau Timberlake, soon, as the story unrolls, to become the first of Peggy O'Neale's husbands and later to die a suicide off the American naval vessel on which he was a young officer in foreign waters. At this moment Taylor was in his shirt sleeves, bending over a chess game with Franchot Tone, Joan's husband, who had dropped in from the "Suzy" set on an adjoining stage.

While Director Brown philosophically waited for cameraman George Folsey to get his focus for the shot, with Joan's recently divorced sister-in-law, Kasha Haroldi, who also is Joan's stand-in, holding the pose the actress swept forward to greet the chess pair.

James Stewart, playing one of the Washington men about town [Rowdy Dow], who becomes involved in the grim faced President's flare-up in which he fires a cabinet to spank the wives who slurred Peggy, looked a bit mournful as he tried a note on his piccolo. Stewart has given up his saxophone because of neighbor trouble. Melvyn Douglas, one of the politicians [John Randolph], pulled gravely on a three foot clay pipe.

"Two more cartons of matches," he said, smiling and relaxing his effort, "and I think I will have the knack of keeping this thing lit."

Walter Abel, another who lays his heart at Crawford's feet in the picture, and who as Jackson's secretary of war, John Eaton, marries the girl and takes the ambassadorship to Spain to take her out of reach of further gossip embarrassing the administration, was talking politics of 1836 and 1936 with Lionel Barrymore. The latter's face has been given a remarkably natural looking makeup by Jack Dawn, the studio expert.

"——and Jackson says, 'The Union must and will be preserved,'" Director Brown's voice comes from a little group. "It is a great scene. It is particularly great at just this time because many people fancy that we are in the same kind of a growing national crisis. The issue is developing where a strong American will say the same thing, only he will say it about another issue—perhaps about the constitution, or about a citizen's rights."

McLaglen Is Egged as Hand Print Is Taken for Theater

Hollywood, Cal., May 27.—(AP)—Accompanied by uniformed members of his Light Horse troop, Victor McLaglen—like most Hollywood stars—pressed his hand prints in the cement of a theater foyer here, only to be greeted by a shower of eggs.

Members of the Light Horse troop dashed away, returning promptly with a man who told them he was R. T. W. Hughes. He said he once sued the actor for a broken nose he suffered in the making of a film.

Meddler Must Be Treated as Family Enemy

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"Would you consider you had a friend in a woman you'd known for years who makes it her business to report to you on your husband's doings, the nature of which I shall not disclose? Would you consider her a friend to urge you to get a divorce, or threaten him with one?
"UNHAPPY."

Your Public Enemy No. 1, we'd appoint the woman. Suspicions you entertain yourself about her confirm her appointment to the enemy status. BUT neighbors, friends, or enemies do not come bearing tales of one's husband's misdoings a second time if the meddling is handled properly in no confidences to the woman, or she has you in her power for life.

Aside from the disloyalty to one's mate, a further menace to your future peace lies in conceding to an outsider any of the intimate details of domestic life. It may be hard to do sometimes, but the closed mouth of the busybody is the swiftest route to recovery.

We say unqualifiedly that any individual who makes it his or her business to inform on one mate to the other is the lowest form of animal life. In no way may the move be construed as a kindly act. It's no outsider's affair to act on another's mistakes or misdeeds as detective, judge, jury, or informer. We speak of love matters, not offenses against the law.

Investigators have trapped the psychology behind the home wrecking informer. But they've been kind in their classification of him or her. They call it a bad inferiority complex, the telling of stories an attempt to make the informer appear important! Gossips of a milder sort likewise are included in this interpretation. You are told that if you want to unmask an inferiority complex to the world just go around gossiping.

There is a breed of trouble makers whose motive may be without vicious intent. The Mr. and Mrs. Fixits of the world. But their ill-advised performances often cause as much trouble as the really malicious interferers. Treatment of them, however, should be just as sharp knifed.

ARMS AND LEGS LIKE POLISHED MARBLE

No ugly hair—no razor stubble and no shadow, no need to spoil the smooth perfection of marble-like limbs. Before you appear in the semi-nudity of summer sports apparel, use DeMiracle, the liquid depilatory that removes every trace of unlovely leg and arm hair. Just pat DeMiracle lightly over the surface—wait three minutes — then wash hair away with cold water.

REMOVES UNSIGHTLY HAIR
Unlike the masculine razor, DeMiracle, the truly feminine hair remover, leaves no stubble. Infant-smooth skin follows its use, and it does not promote a coarser, faster re-growth. DeMiracle is the indispensable aid to feminine loveliness.

Women Investors Launch Newspaper to Arouse Followers

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—To provide a "medium for intensifying its activities on behalf of women jobholders and property owners," Women Investors in America, Inc., today launched its newspaper, Woman Courageous, and set as its goal the enlistment of 1,000,000 "women who believe in preserving the American system of government."

Women Investors in America, Inc., was formed in May, 1935, for the purpose of "arousing women to a realization of their ownership of approximately 70 per cent of the wealth of the country and to provide a militant, nonpartisan, nonprofit-making organization devoted to the protection of women's interests in property and government."

The newspaper announces the approaching convention of Women Investors in America, Inc., which will be held in Chicago June 3 and 4.

City Manager Group.

A conference on the city manager plan of government for Chicago will be held at 10:30 o'clock today at the Chicago Woman's club, 72 East 11th street. The woman's division of the Chicago city manager committee is sponsoring the meeting. Victor Yarros, Benjamin Becker, Dr. A. Hatton, Mrs. Ralph Webster, Miss Harriet Vittum and Mrs. Guy Tawney will speak.

ONE CREAM TO BUY... ONE CREAM TO APPLY

Here is the most remarkable cream you ever bought. It does the work of three. It is called DELV, and it cleanses, lubricates and clarifies.

DELV is different, blended by an entirely new principle in the making of cosmetics. No other cream you have ever tried is like it. Women everywhere are amazed and delighted at its cooling and stimulating effect.

The very texture of DELV is different. It is absorbed instantly, and never seeps back through your make-up, no matter how warm the weather.

The regular use of DELV will give your skin a soft, dewy freshness. Try a jar. You will never be without DELV again. On sale at drug and department stores.

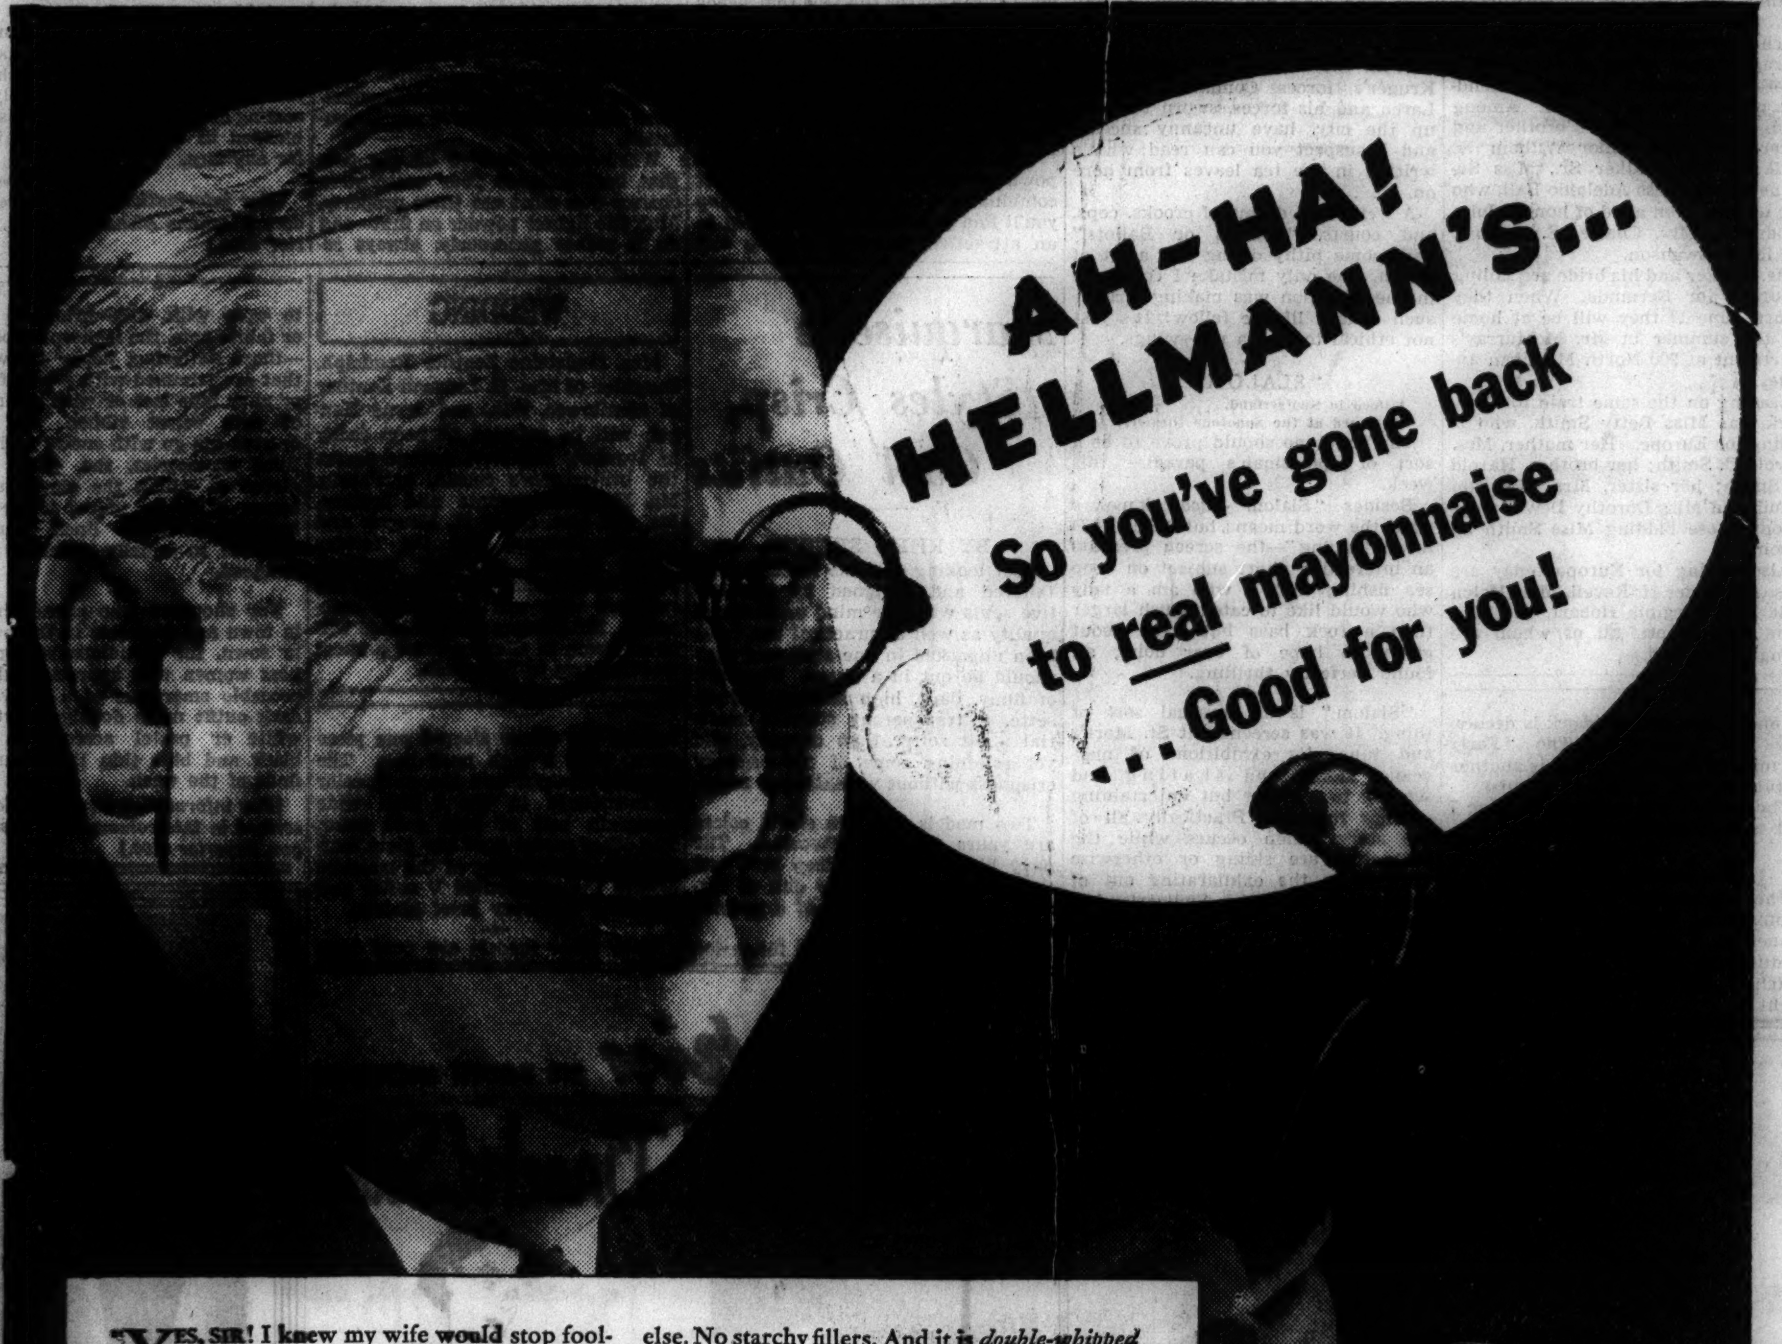
CLEANS WHITE SHOES RIGHT



"YES, SIR! I knew my wife would stop fooling around ... and go back to Hellmann's!

"Because, believe me, there's a world of difference between ordinary dressings and real mayonnaise! Hellmann's gives you that real full flavor and tempting, creamy goodness that nothing else can equal."

You're right, Mister! And the reason is simply this: Hellmann's is made differently! It is all mayonnaise—made from only the choicest ingredients ... a full measure of fine salad oil, freshly-broken eggs, a specially selected vinegar, and imported spices. Nothing else. No starchy fillers. And it is double-whipped for its famous velvety smoothness!

So, when you select your dressing, be sure it's Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise. It is so good —yet costs but a trifle per salad!

SO MANY DELICIOUS WAYS TO VARY HELLMANN'S

You can vary Hellmann's to suit any salad you serve. For Hellmann's is real mayonnaise ... and is so much richer and creamier—so much more full-bodied. For instance, try blending it with milk or cream ... chopped pickles ... chili sauce ... fruit juices ... or with dozens of other delicious ingredients.

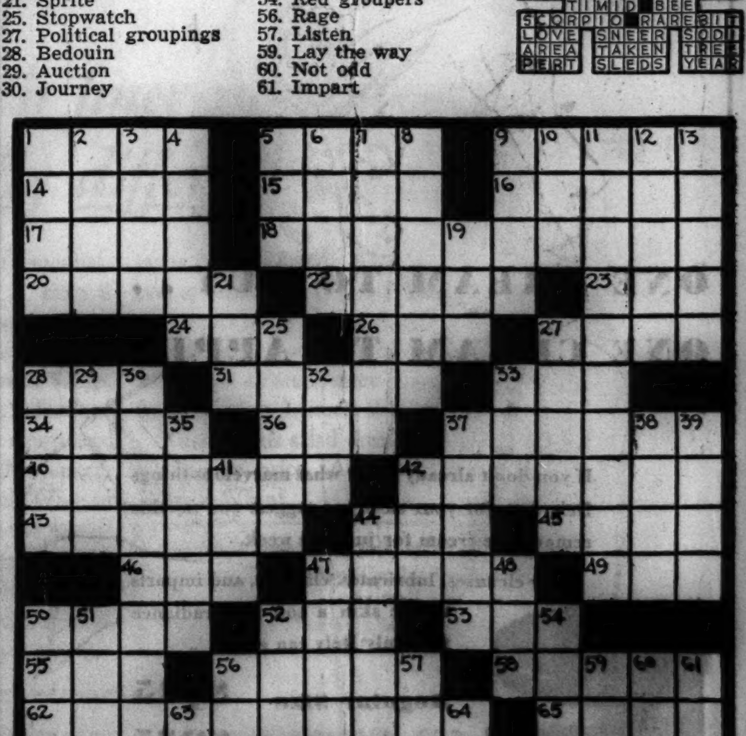
YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE SOLVED



June Brides Reveal Plans for Weddings

Attendants Are Selected; Dates Set.

is going east for Mr. Hamilton's graduation from Yale on the 17th. They are returning a day or two later to Winnetka for a gay week of festivities before their wedding.

The wedding will be a simple one at the home of Miss O'Brien's parents, the Howard Vincent O'Briens, in Winnetka, with a reception there afterward. Miss Virginia Waller, Miss O'Brien's cousin, who introduced Miss O'Brien and Mr. Hamilton when Miss O'Brien was visiting her in Palm Beach two years ago, will be the maid of honor.

Miss Allene Withers, who recently moved with her family from Winnetka to Pasadena, will return to be one of Miss O'Brien's bridesmaids. She will visit Miss Bette Rich while here. Miss Nancy Thomas of Winnetka and Mrs. Craig Whitney and Miss Frances Myers of New York, who were at school in Switzerland with Miss O'Brien, also will be bridesmaids.

Joseph E. Rich of Evanston will be Mr. Hamilton's best man, and Bayne and Donel O'Brien, Miss O'Brien's brothers; Willard Hosford of Omaha, and Donald Higgens of Canada will usher.

Mr. Hamilton and his bride are planning a leisurely motor trip through England, Scotland, and Ireland before they go to Omaha to live.

Anna Howe Wedding to Take Place in East.

Mrs. Lawrence Howe went east Thursday to open her summer home at Long Pond, near Plymouth, Mass., for the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Miss Anna Shippen Howe, to Joseph Livingston Delafield of New York. Miss Howe is another of the brides who will be married on the 27th.

Although their plans are not yet complete Miss Howe and her fiancé have decided to have the wedding at noon at Long Pond. Miss Dorothy Gerhard will be Miss Howe's maid of honor and her only attendant from Winnetka. Fisher Howe III., who will be going east with his father and others of the family a little later for the wedding, will be one of Mr. Delafield's ushers.

Miss Howe is going directly to Long Pond from Hartford, Conn., where she has been teaching at the Oxford school, and so her Winnetka friends will not see her until she returns for a visit as Mrs. Delafield.

Tell Engagement of Susan Miller.

Of interest today is the announcement that Mr. and Mrs. William Southworth Miller of Winnetka are making of the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to Albert Sise, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lincoln F. Sise of Brookline, Mass. The wedding will take place early in September in Winnetka.

Miss Miller attended the North Shore Country Day school and was graduated from Smith college in 1932. She was introduced to society at a reception with dancing in the fall of 1929 at the Indian Hill club, given jointly by the Barret Conways for their daughter, Louise, who will be married on June 27 to Gail Belden.

Mr. Sise was graduated from Harvard in 1928. He has visited here several times, and when he comes out again in September he will take his bride back east to make their home. Miss Miller's elder sister, Mary, and her husband, Charles N. Proctor, reside in Cambridge, Mass. Joseph S. Miller, who is being graduated from Yale next month, will return from a summer abroad in time for his sister's wedding.

Former Jean Schweppe Hurt; Cancel Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe yesterday recalled invitations to the reception they were to give on Saturday at their home in Lake Forest for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson Armour III., because of an accident the former Jean Schweppe had last week. She was thrown from her horse and her spine injured so that she will be confined to her bed for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Schweppe are not canceling the dinner they are giving Saturday night for Cyrus H. Adams and his fiancée, Miss Harriet Haynes, but they will take their 30 young guests to the Onwentsia to dance that night instead of having an orchestra in their own home.

Woods Family Will Cruise to Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Woods and their sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woods of Lincoln, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Woods of Chicago, are boarding the senior Mr. Woods' cruiser on Saturday of this week to start on what sounds like a delightful vacation, a fortnight's cruise of the Great Lakes.

They plan to reach Cleveland in time for the opening of the Republican convention on June 9 and during the activities that will make that city the hustling, bustling place that the scene of a national convention always is, the six Woodses will escape all housing problems by living aboard the cruiser.

Mrs. Leslie Wheeler and Mrs. William H. Mitchell are planning to go to the convention in Cleveland, too, and before returning home they will make several visits in the east. Mrs. Wheeler's elder son, Leslie Jr., arrived in Lake Forest yesterday from St. Mark's school where several cases of infantile paralysis were the cause of a number of the students being sent home a week ago, among them Harry, the Wheelers' younger son; the A. Watson Armours' Charles, and young Philip D. Armour.

None of the boys shows the slightest sign of having contracted the disease, but their parents have taken every precautionary measure just the same, of course.

I. Newton Perry Jr. arrived at home yesterday from St. Mark's also. It had been expected that the older boys would remain at the school until the regular closing time, but it was decided that they, as well as the lower form students, had better return to their homes.

Mrs. Henry and Daughter Return from East.

Mrs. Huntington B. Henry and Miss Annie May Henry arrived at home yesterday from New York where Mrs. Henry went to meet her daughter upon her return from a winter with Miss Stout's Traveling school. The Henry family will move to Lake Forest for the summer next week.

Miss Anne Winston and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farwell Winston, are arriving in Chicago this morning. Miss Winston also traveled abroad with Miss Stout during the winter and so did Miss Betty Keith, the younger daughter of the Stanley Keiths. Mrs. Keith and Miss Betty will not return to their home in Lake Forest until next Wednesday. These three young girls will be debutantes of the coming season and are certain to be among the most fêted and popular of the 1936-'37 buds.

Saddle and Cycle Starts Dinners Tonight.

The first of this summer's Thursday buffet dinners at the Saddle and Cycle club will be served tonight, and there undoubtedly will be a large number of members and guests there to enjoy it for every year these affairs are among the most popular in town. That "some like it hot and some like it cold" is well known to the house committee, so on the long tables from which dinner is served are cold lobsters with mayonnaise, cold meats, and great steaming roasts of beef as well as hot and cold soup, vegetables, salads, and various desserts, including fruit, ice cream, cake, and pies.

During the summer there is a spirited baseball game every Thursday before dinner with the wives and sweethearts of the players providing a cheering gallery, but there will be no game today. The first one of the season will be on Memorial day.

According to CULBERTSON

CLUMSY SIGNALS.

The fact that many inexpert players use signal cards as though they were bludgeons [instead of the rapierlike weapons they really should be] can be put to great advantage by an observant declarer. The only point to be determined is the truthfulness of the signaler. In the case of stolid, unimaginative players, this may be taken for granted. Obviously the consistent false-carder is just as easy to analyze. In bridge, as in warfare, there must be feints and parries. Once the enemy can depend on a never varying form of attack, defensive measures become greatly simplified. In today's hand, East shouted for a heart lead. His partner heard him, but could do nothing about it. The declarer heard him, too, and did plenty!

South, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	4 spades	Pass
Pass	Pass

North's preëmptive raise probably was the best bid at his command, although it was slightly shaded from a distributional standpoint. In the Culbertson system such a raise should be based on one to one and one-half honor tricks, five trumps, and a singleton in some suit.

West opened the club king and declarer dropped the seven on the trick. The club queen followed and then, not knowing which of dummy's red kings to lead through, West continued with a low club lead which declarer ruffed.

Two rounds of trumps were played, on the second of which East planked down the nine of hearts with great gusto. Declarer stopped for a moment to think things over.

He knew East to be a player who probably never had given a false signal in his life. It was inconceivable that he would be signaling for a heart lead if he held only the ace over dummy's king-jack. Such a play simply would take the guess out of the heart situation if declarer lacked the queen. He must, therefore, have both the ace and queen, and two heart tricks would be lost by declarer leading the suit.

On this reasoning, declarer determined to avoid leading hearts and to try for a diamond finesse instead. It is true that this plan of play, if unsuccessful, would be penalized an extra trick, but that possibility was small on an undoubled contract as compared to the chance for game.

The four of diamonds to the king and a finesse of the jack on the diamond return did the trick. Now the ace lead permitted the discard of one of dummy's hearts, and cut the losing trick total to three.

Without East's violent signal, declarer undoubtedly would have tried for the one heart trick that would make his contract safe. Far from calling for a heart lead, East should have discarded his lowest heart in an attempt to lure declarer to his own destruction.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: The bidding having gone South, one spade; West, two diamonds; North and East, pass; what is the correct rebid on South's hand, which was:

♠ A K 6 3 ♥ A J 9 5 ♦ 6 ♣ K Q 8 4?

Answer: South now should make a take-out double.

musician's Kimball hall recital. One might also counsel a greater repose, but that habit of befogging a brilliant mechanical dexterity with faulty pedaling seems to be the thing which demands immediate attention.

Sorin has the other qualifications for excellence. There is drive and enthusiasm in his playing, a calm and competent swing to his meter. He phrases skilfully, and seldom lets rhythmic and dynamic excitement run away with him. The delivery of the more lyrical passages of the Waldstein sonata was clear and singing, although this clarity had a bad habit of disappearing sometimes when the original tempos were resumed.

Sorin made much of a work which is rather poorly suited to the modern instrument, and apt to sound muddy in more than one place. Those glissando octaves, in the right hand, at least, were really played glissando—quite a feat in itself on the piano of the present day.

The Bach D major organ prelude and fugue were genuinely majestic, revealing in the interpreter an understanding of and reverence for the greatness of the music. There was good poetry in the Rameau elegy, a deficiency of lightness in the Loeilly gigue.

Abram Haitowitsch, blind Russian violinist, played in the Drake hotel ballroom last evening. His program offered the Brahms D minor sonata [with Rudolph Reuter], Lalo's Symphonie Espagnole, and two groups of smaller works. The accompanist was Harold Van Horne. A large and brilliant audience attended the recital.

Vivian Della Chiesa, the radio singer who burst into fame by winning an unknown singers' contest, has been signed by the Chicago City Opera company. Miss Della Chiesa will make her debut next season in the rôle of Mimi, in "La Boheme."

High School Music Festival Is Held at Orchestra Hall

The annual Chicago High School Music festival was held in Orchestra hall last night. The program opened with selections by the Lane Technical High school band, led by Oscar W. Anderson, followed by three modern songs by the All-Chicago Girls' chorus. The chorus, directed by Mrs. Bernice Hartle, is composed of students from each of the city's schools.

The All-Chicago High school A Cappella choir, led by David M. Nyvall Jr., and the All-Chicago Boys' chorus, with Joseph M. Taylor directing, gave selections. A feature of the evening was the playing of the Rimsky-Korsakov's difficult "Festival of Bagdad," by the Harrison Technical High school band, John H. Barobash directing.

The program closed with Oscar E. Robinson, president of the Chicago High School Music Educator's club, directing the massed choruses and brasses from the bands in George Schumann's "Wake, Arise, the Night Is Flying," with Samuel Burkholder at the organ.

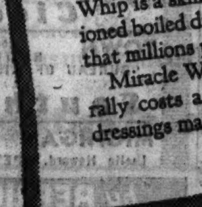
A new type of salad dressing that millions prefer!



FAR MORE OF THE COSTLY INGREDIENTS

Here is a fact that every woman ought to know: in many salad dressings offered for sale today the costly ingredients are deliberately skimped. Some contain even less than the bare minimum standard that was approved by the government.

The special Miracle Whip recipe, on the other hand, calls for an abundance of these costly ingredients. Miracle Whip is a skillful cross between mayonnaise and old-fashioned boiled dressing—a wholly new type of salad dressing that millions prefer to any other kind.

Miracle Whip is very moderately priced. But it naturally costs a little more than the many so-called salad dressings made primarily to sell at a low price.

Made with finer ingredients a wholly different way

Even if you're completely "sold" on whatever dressing you are using . . . even if you're convinced that its flavor is finer than that of any other kind . . . still you owe it to yourself to sample Miracle Whip.

For Miracle Whip has given millions of discriminating women entirely new ideas. One taste, and they found to their amazement that they preferred Miracle Whip to every other kind of dressing in the world!

In Miracle Whip, Kraft created something entirely new in salad dressings . . . totally unlike ordinary commercial mixtures. A special blend, with a unique delicious flavor, Miracle Whip is a combination of boiled dressing and mayonnaise.

Miracle Whip contains more of the costly ingredients so essential for fine flavor. And it is mixed a better, more painstaking way in Kraft's own Miracle Whip beater.

This famous salad dressing is very reasonable in price. Ask your dealer for Miracle Whip!

NOW you tune in at 9 P. M. to get the Kraft Music Hall! Bing Crosby, Bob Burns, Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra, and guest stars . . . every Thursday; 9 P.M.; WMAQ.

THE MOST POPULAR SALAD DRESSING EVER OFFERED FOR SALE!
Because of its special, tantalizing flavor, far more people buy Miracle Whip than any other dressing. Miracle Whip today actually outsells the next 20 salad dressings combined!

Her Husband's Past

By Elizabeth York Miller

SYNOPSIS.

Nell Martin elopes to London with Eric Cameron, an older divorced man, who had been visiting in Wellsport, her home town, ignoring her parents' pleas to marry Dick Holmes, her childhood sweetheart. Eric has two children, Meg, 17, and Robin, 15. Mrs. Beaumont, the mother of Hilda, his first wife, lives with them. Hilda has married again and lives in South America. Her children have been told she is dead. Granny tortures Nell with constant reminders of Hilda. The family moves to Wellsport, where Eric has an engineering job. A solicitor's clerk, Shyner, calls and tells Nell that Hilda's husband had died, leaving her destitute. Nell arranges to send her a weekly sum secretly. Meg receives a string of pearls from her mother from London. Eric suggests looking up Hilda. Nell threatens to leave him. Granny says she'll go away, but breaks her leg and has to stay. She arouses Eric to jealousy of Dick Holmes. A letter comes for Nell from Shyner.

INSTALMENT XXXIV.
BAD NEWS.

Mrs. Beaumont's eyes were on Nell.

Why did she suspect there was anything in that dull looking envelope which Nell might not want any of them to know? Because it had been addressed to the farm? Granny's experience with her own daughter had taught her to expect intrigue of everybody.

If Eric had been looking at his wife he would have been as convinced as was granny that Nell welcomed that envelope with about as much enthusiasm as she would have held out her hand for a viper. Yet she took it and slipped it face downward under the edge of her plate. Then she drank off half a tumbler of water. The color left her face, leaving it as white as marble.

"What's the matter with you?" granny demanded, excitement pounding fast in her arid breast. "You look as though you were going to be sick. Why don't you open your letter? Are you afraid it's got bad news?"

Nell pushed back her chair.

"Perhaps it's the heat—I might have caught a little touch of the sun," she said, ignoring granny's reference to the letter.

Thank heaven, Eric would think the baby was the cause of her sudden faintness.

She motioned him back with a wry smile as he rose with the intention of helping her.

"It's all right, darling. I don't want anybody," she said.

She flew out of the room with the fatal envelope clutched in her hand.

She flew out of the room with the fatal envelope clutched in her hand.

If only she had thought to tell mums that if any letter came for her at the farm to keep it until she might happen to pay them a visit.

"It does look as if she was expecting bad news in that letter," said granny. "I think you ought to find out, Eric."

"She's all right," he said. "She's been having turns like this, but they pass over quickly."

He gave granny a meaning look. It was about time she began to understand how it was with Nell.

Nell crept up the stairs, her knees threatening to let her down at every step.

Perhaps she was going to be sick. She felt like it. She went into the bathroom and locked the door. Then she tore open the envelope.

Mr. Shyner had written:

Dear madam:

I am very sorry to bother you. The payments for Mrs. D. have been coming along regular, but I did not send receipts as you asked me not to.

The trouble now is that Mrs. D. has been taken ill and has to go into a nursing home for a couple of weeks. She wanted to write to Mr. C., but I told her what you said, that you would not send any further remittances if she worried Mr. C. I told her the best thing to do would be to ask you if you could raise the money. Fifty pounds will be needed. Mrs. D. is very delicate and might not come out of it, in which case I will let you know promptly.

She hopes Miss C. got the package she sent awhile back.

Very truly yours,
MORRIS SHYNER.

Nell did not need to read this letter a second time. The main fact was clear enough. Fifty pounds was needed to send Hilda to a nursing home. Somebody would have to find it.

She tore the letter and envelope into tiny bits and disposed of them. Then she washed her face and hands, sharpening the cold water with a little eau de Cologne. The feeling of faintness was passing. No matter what questions were asked about that letter, she could not produce it now. She hoped devoutly that Mrs. Beaumont had not memorized the solicitors' address, although she might easily remember Mr. Shyner's name. It wasn't his fault she was in this pickle. He had merely followed her instructions. She had told him if he was obliged to communicate with her to write to the farm.

Nell realized she had nobody to blame but herself. Sheer carelessness in not mentioning it to mums. Only mums would have wanted to know why she didn't want her husband to know about it.

She went into her bedroom and sat down in a chair by the window, leaning back and drinking in deep draughts of the sweet, cool air.

It had been such a happy day. These last few weeks altogether had been happy.

Something seemed to stir under her heart and she put her hands there. A sense of awe came over her. Her baby was trying to comfort her. A rush of joy put warmth into her veins and her eyes filled with tears.

She was going to keep right on being happy—yes, and deeply grateful, too. Grateful to God for this gift He had promised her; grateful for Eric's love that could ride any storm, and for Robin's helpfulness and comradeship. Perhaps some day granny and Meg would come to be fond of her, too. But, of course, one must not expect too many miracles.

For a long time now Hilda had seemed to leave her alone, except for that weekly reminder when she had to send off the postal order to Mr. Shyner.

But it was a little queer how she had felt a presage of ill omen in Meg's electing to wear that string of pearls tonight.

The fifty pounds must be found somehow. It was exactly the sum her mother had given her to tide them over the baby's arrival. Already she had spent £12 in remittances to Hilda, and although she had tried to economize in every way and the foodstuffs her mother was always sending helped considerably to ease the housekeeping bills, still she hadn't seemed to be able to lay by anything.

There wasn't a week passed that some extra expense cropped up. Granny's broken leg had taken every penny Eric could spare. The doctor wasn't paid, either, nor yet the chemist. Their bills had only just come in.

If Nell was to send that £50 for Hilda she would be obliged to find another £12 to make up the sum she had in hand.

She didn't feel she could go to her mother again.

The door opened and Eric came in.

"Sitting all alone in the dark, my sweet?"

Yes, it was getting dark. She hadn't noticed.

A few stars gleamed in the clear pale sky and Tewbury light flashed its beam across the horizon.

Eric came over and sat on the arm of her chair.

"I'd get early to bed if I were you," he said. "It's been a long day."

Nell sighed and pressed her head into the crook of his arm.

"Yes, I think I will go to bed," she said.

There was a little silence as he bent down and touched his lips to her soft hair.

"Things aren't going too badly, are they, my sweet?"

"No, they're going fine."

"Nothing's happened to upset you this evening, has it?"

She knew he was referring to that mysterious letter. Granny wouldn't have dropped the subject.

"Nothing out of the ordinary," she replied. "Mums says it won't be long now before these faint attacks leave me. I'll be glad."

If You Court Coat of Tan, Do It Slowly

Complexion Suffers from Rapid Browning.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Unless you have everything else to go with the nut brown skin, girls, don't go in for it this summer. Better let the Polynesian maids have all they want of it. They can pin an hibiscus in their hair and forget the sun ever touched them. You can't. Not many of you, anyway. And comparatively few women look well tanned a dark tone. Besides, it isn't the fashion any more. It wasn't done at any of the resorts, Lida, Bermuda, down south, or anywhere among the fashionables who set the style, even in tans.

It's not becoming. It's ageing, emphasizing every little line and wrinkle. And it's cruel to the skin. It takes so long to get over it.

A nice, light tan, yes! You may aim for that with comparative safety, but even courting the beige tan you will have to put a certain amount of protective cream and lubricating oil between you and the sun, or you won't come out the desired shade. You may just come out with new lines around the eyes and with that puffed out cheek appearance that doesn't do anything flattering to your eyes.

Of course, you want to take advantage of the health giving sun rays. But every year one hears board of health advisers and doctors everywhere warning you to take your sun in graduated doses, beginning with a small one and working up. A badly sunburned face is one of the most depressing sights on earth. No one ever saw a girl or woman yet who improved her appearance with a burn. The skin drying, shiveling, and hardening that takes place along with the burn takes months and months to overcome. Some of this drying and peeling occurs before you blossom forth with your nice tan coat, if you are lucky enough to tan.

So, this year, if you never have done it before, get into the skin protecting spirit. It will pay. Become familiar with the protective creams and lotions on the market. There are some excellent ones which are so compounded that you don't have to look as though you had just bathed your face in oil. If your skin is not dry or sensitive you may need only one of the protectors that leaves a thin coating on the skin that looks like powder. There are the sunburn oils and those like foundation creams. Even so, with the use of these skin protectors, be on the safe side and lay in an extra stock of cleansing cream for plenty of extra applications.

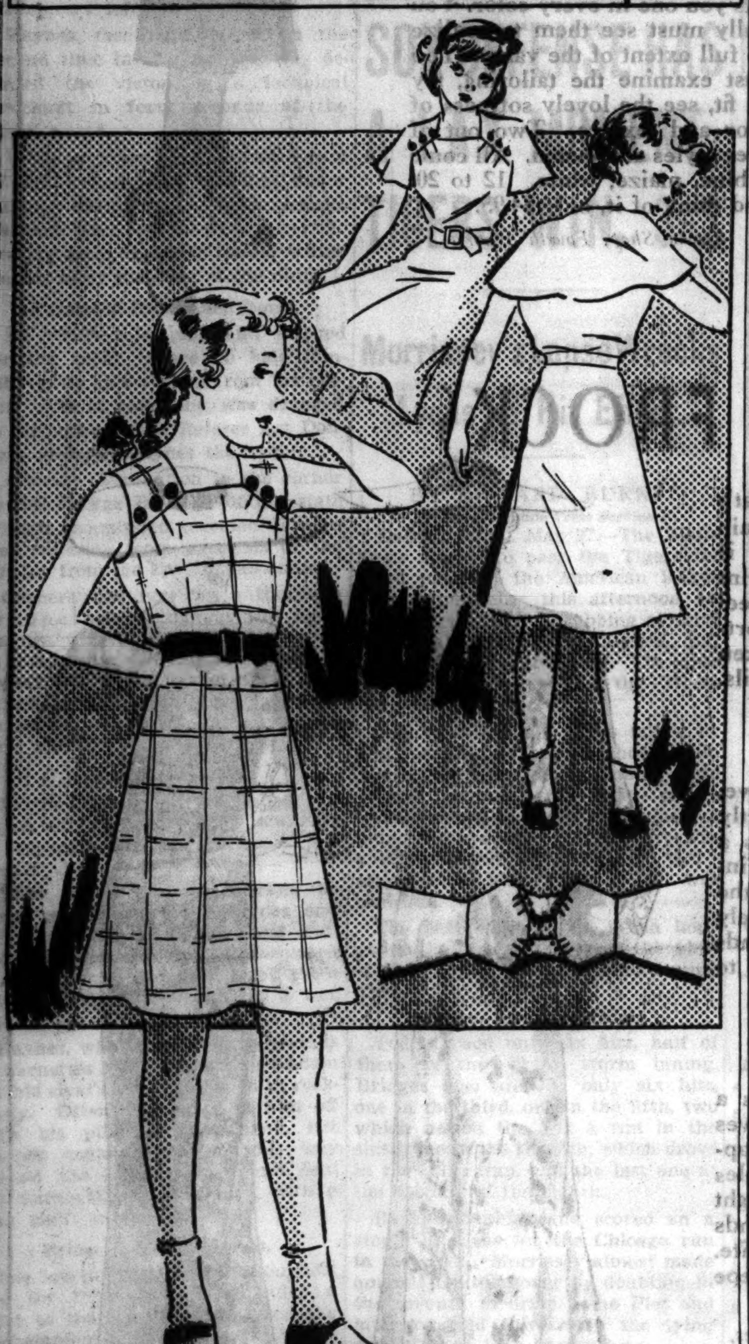
Juvenile Frock Has Cape



GIRL'S FROCK.

Many of the smart summer frocks for adults are employing the principle of the detachable cape for chic and cool comfort. The designer of the juvenile dress illustrated today realized that girls prefer their frocks to have style points which they admire in the clothes their mothers and sisters wear, and incorporated the cape in this lovely frock.

The frock itself is exceedingly plain, in deference to the extensive outdoor activity of youngsters which makes laundering a real problem to mothers. This dress may be pressed in a jiffy. There is neither collar, sleeves, nor plaits. Buttons trim the square neckline, and serve to "anchor" the cape when the young wearer of this dress decides to leave the playground and accompany mother on a shopping tour.

The original model is fashioned in aqua dropstitch crêpe. Pique, dimity prints, dotted swiss, cotton challis, and cotton shantung are other fabrics which wear well, tailor nicely, and take to the laundry tub like "naturals."

Style No. 2961 is designed for sizes 8, 10, 12, 14, and 16 years. Size 12 requires 2⅝ yards of 39 inch material for both dress and cape.

Cooking Editor Suggests New Frozen Salads

You Will Approve These for Summer Menus.

"Parties for the Bride-to-Be," a booklet of recipes and menu plans for announcement parties and "showers" for the bride, is on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street, and Tribune Tower, for 3 cents. By mail, 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address mail requests to Mary Meade, Chicago Tribune.

BY MARY MEADE.

One of our favorite comic strips went through a spell of mysterious ice pellet murders a few weeks back. Today we're going to fire away with some frozen missiles, but with harmless intent and [we hope] pleasant consequences. So prepare for the bombardment! Here comes a volley of some of the best frozen salad recipes we've been able to collect in the last month or so!

Frozen Peanut Butter Salad.

1 3 ounce package cream cheese
½ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup chopped pimiento
1-3 cup peanut butter
½ cup chopped celery
Salt
Juice of 1 lime
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup heavy cream

Blend all ingredients together with a fork and, when thoroughly mixed, fold in the whipped cream. Freeze, stirring once, in the trays of an automatic refrigerator, set at lowest temperature, or in a freezer surrounded by 3 parts of ice and 1 part of salt.

Frozen Pears.

Use small halved canned pears. Fill centers with chopped maraschino cherries, nuts, and raisins moistened with sherry wine. Place two halves together and insert a whole clove for a stem. A "blush" may be added, if desired, by painting the cheeks of the pears lightly with red vegetable coloring. Place in trays of automatic refrigerator and freeze rapidly until firm, but not hard and icy. Serve as salad or salad dessert on a bed of crisp salad greens and pass mayonnaise separately.

Fruited Frozen Cheese Salad.

1 3 ounce package cream cheese
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup heavy cream
½ cup mayonnaise
½ cup chopped dates
½ cup drained crushed pineapple [fresh or canned]

Mash cheese with fork and blend with lemon juice. Add mayonnaise, heavy cream [whipped], and dates and pineapple. Turn into freezing trays and freeze rapidly until firm but not hard. Serve in slices on crisp lettuce with an orange flavored mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Frozen Chicken and Rice Salad.

1 tablespoon granulated gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
1 cup chicken stock
1 cup cooked rice
1⅓ cups chopped cooked chicken
½ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup chopped stuffed olives
Salt, pepper, cayenne
1 cup heavy cream

Soften the gelatin in the water, then dissolve in hot, well seasoned chicken stock. Cool and add the other ingredients, then fold in the stiffly whipped cream. Turn into trays of automatic refrigerator and freeze rapidly without stirring. Serve as main dish salad, cut in slices.

Seminole Creeper.

BY NANCY CABOT.

The botanical name of the seminole creeper is terrifying to spell and pronounce, but to reproduce the flower as a quilt design is one of the major pleasures of any quilt maker. It is designed to be used as an all-over applique pattern, and is exceptionally suitable for twin beds. The color combination is as tropical as the name, and yellow, orange, and green are the favored shades. Twenty-four applique blocks set block to block form a single coverlet, which is finished with a 4 inch border and a half inch yellow binding.

Tuberculosis Institute Greets New Members at Annual Meeting

Five of the seven new members of the board of the Chicago Tuberculosis institute were presented last night at the 29th annual meeting of the organization at the Chicago Woman's club. They are Miss Elaine Blackman, Dr. Isaac Abt, Dr. Hollis E. Potter, Dr. Robert H. Hayes, and Arthur Freytag. The other two, Maj. Frank L. Beals and Thomas Quinn Beesley, were unable to attend.

Officers were reëlected. They include Mrs. Harry Hart, president; Abner J. Stilwell, treasurer, and Miss Frances Hooper, secretary.

Copies of a 50 page report on activities of 1935 and the program for 1936 were distributed. This year's plans call for continued work in educating and testing school children in the Chicago area, promoting the study of tuberculosis by professional groups, and improved efforts to reduce tuberculosis among Negroes.

Baby's Bath Is Not Problem It First Seems

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

Giving the baby his bath sounds like a simple and an easy affair. And yet young mothers, when first confronted with this inevitable operation, often get a bad case of stage fright and strong young fathers have been known to blanch at the prospect!

It's easy to learn to lift the baby and put him down, to cuddle him [yes, that style is coming back], and to feed him. But many a mother has become panicy when the time came to give the baby his first bath.

Bathing the baby is really simple, if you only know how. It can get to be one of the major indoor sports of the day.

In this and subsequent articles which will appear from time to time within the next few weeks, instructions on how to give the baby his bath will be covered in great detail. We shall leave no stone unturned, as you might say, to prepare you to take your final examination, which is called the baby's first bath.

It is largely through the routines of his physical care—feeding, sleeping, dressing, and so forth, that the baby learns, and the way in which you carry out these routines is often the measure of your success both in handling him and in his learning. If you are a little careless one day, so that the baby slips and gets water in his eyes, and firm and strong the next, then your baby is not going to be serene and unworried and have that sense of security in his mother and comfort in her ministering to which he is entitled.

Even though the running of the household takes so much of a mother's time, with a little planning the giving of the baby's bath can be a pleasant affair. And, if it is your first baby, a most absorbing one. It is in the bath that a baby is often his most appealing self.

WOULDN'T we be foolish to say, "Double your money back," if we didn't have something worth shouting about? But we certainly have it in Spry. Here's a shortening so different from the ordinary kind—so very, very much better in every way—that we'd be safe in offering you ten times your money back! You wouldn't ask for it.

Spry is ALL-vegetable. It's whiter, smoother, creamier. And here's proof that Spry is purer. It stays fresh and sweet at ordinary room temperature. Don't keep Spry in the refrigerator but right on your pantry shelf. Then it will always be right for easy creaming. Spry won't smoke at frying temperature, either. Won't absorb food flavors or odors. You can fry with it over and over again.

Here's the final test—taste!

Follow your usual recipe but use Spry for your shortening. Taste the difference. Revel in cakes that are lighter, more delicate. Pastry that's unbelievably tender and flaky. Fried foods so crisp and tasty you'll marvel at every bite—so wholesome they're as easy to digest as if baked or boiled! Don't wait. Take us up on our offer. Try Spry today.

READ THIS DARING OFFER

Get a can of Spry from your grocer. Use all of it you want. Give Spry every test in pies, cakes, biscuits, fried foods. If you don't find Spry absolutely the best shortening you've ever used, simply send your name and address to Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge, Mass., with the strip of tin that comes off the can when you open it. You will promptly receive back, without question, twice what you paid for Spry. This offer is limited to one can to a family.

TRY SPRY NOW—offer expires June 11th

LEROY HAYNES STOPS CARNERA IN NINTH ROUND

Italian Temporarily Paralyzed.

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—Leroy Haynes beat Primo Carnera so badly at Ebbets field tonight that he induced a state of temporary paralysis in the former heavyweight champion's left leg.

Haynes, meeting Carnera for the second time in two months, was declared the victor by a technical knockout in forty seconds of the ninth round.

While a crowd of 20,000, who paid $23,686, looked on at the first major outdoor boxing show of the season, Carnera, who had absorbed a terrific beating from the first round, wilted shortly after the start of the ninth.

Paralyzed from Knee Down.

He writhed in pain and lurched for the ropes, where he held himself up as aids rushed from his corner. The ex-champion was dragged to his corner while Referee Art Donovan declared Haynes the victor.

A hasty examination in the corner by Dr. George B. Reitz of the state athletic commission, revealed Carnera was suffering from paralysis of the left leg from the knee to the ankle.

Carnera had received a thorough trouncing throughout the fight. Haynes, who knocked out the Italian in three rounds in March, was out to repeat this triumph, and, though he failed to bring Carnera down, he demonstrated clearly he is the Italian's master.

Nearly Goes Down.

In the first round he landed two rights and a left to the jaw, and only a desperate grip on the ropes prevented Carnera from falling.

Then, after the rest period, he came back to surprise Haynes and the crowd by outboxing and outroughing the Philadelphia colored heavyweight in the second and third rounds. After that, however, it was all Haynes.

Haynes, who weighed 200½ pounds to Carnera's 265, showed utter disdain for his rival's size and waded in recklessly. Often Carnera held him off with his pillarlike left hand, but Haynes contrived to find his way around the huge weapon and deal out unremitting punishment with a long right to the head.

Primo Weathers Storm.

The fourth round was the toughest one for Primo. Haynes landed a right to the jaw that staggered the ex-champion, and followed with several more. Carnera saved himself by holding desperately.

In the fifth and sixth rounds Carnera did little except jab, while Haynes ripped right after right to the head. At the end of the seventh and the eighth Carnera wobbled to his corner.

In the ninth he stepped into a clinch and proceeded to spar until his leg gave way under him and he was unable to continue.

Funny Semi-Windup, Too.

The semi-final bout also had an unusual ending. Steve Dudas of Edgewater, N. J., and Isidoro Gastanaga, Spanish heavyweight, had been waging a slam-bang match when suddenly near the end of the third round Gastanaga walked to the ropes gesturing to Referee Jack O'Sullivan to call a halt. He claimed to have sustained a fractured rib. Dudas was proclaimed the winner.

Sol Flaum, 199, knocked out Frank Gregor, 177½, in 1:20 of the first round of the opening preliminary.

Sandy McDonald, Texas, 199, scored a technical knockout over Al Demedowitz, Brooklyn, 187, in 2:50 of the sixth round.

Abe Simon, New York, 253½, stopped Lew Berg, Brooklyn, 220¼, in 2:18 of the third round, and Abe Feldman, New York, 179½, stopped Ralph Barbara, New York, 182½, in 2:20 of the first round.

M'SPADEN WINS MASSACHUSETTS OPEN GOLF TITLE

Fitchburg, Mass., May 27.—(AP)—Harold [Jug] McSpaden, former Kansas City professional, won the Massachusetts open golf title with a 71—75 finish today at Oak Hill.

McSpaden, who forged into a first place tie with a par morning round, scored a total of 292 for seventy-two holes to triumph in his first major eastern start and take Gene Sarazen's last golf crown.

McSpaden, now attached to the Winchester Country club, topped Wilfred Crossley, young amateur from Norfolk, by a stroke. Emil Mashie, the home club's greenkeeper, was third. His total was 296.

Sarazen and Bob Crowley of Norfolk were tied for fourth with 297; then came Guy Paulsen of Longmeadow, runner-up last year, and Dave Hackney, Lowell professional, with 298 totals. John Shimkonis of Andover, with 299, was the only other competitor to break 300.

SOX DEFENSE HAS A LAX MOMENT; TIGERS WIN, 3-2

Morrissey's Lapse Wrecks Lyons' 6 Hit Effort.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—The White Sox's chance to pass the Tigers for third place in the American league went glimmering this afternoon because Joe Morrissey, subbing at third base for Manager Jim Dykes, quit thinking for a split second. The lapse led to three runs and the Tigers beat the Sox, 3 to 2.

Joe, who is not a dumb fellow by any means, had one of those brain storms in the fourth inning and started running around in circles with the ball in his hand instead of launching a double play. There was a surge of further confusion, thereafter, and the Tiger total was achieved.

The game was played in an hour and a half due mostly to the skill of the pitchers, Ted Lyons and Tommy Bridges.

Some Swell Pitching.

Ted allowed only six hits, half of them in the brain storm inning. Bridges also allowed only six hits, one in the third, one in the fifth, two which netted the Sox a run in the sixth, one in the seventh, which drove in the other run, and the last one at the opening of the eighth.

Radcliff doubled and scored on a single by Haas for the Chicago run in the sixth. Morrissey almost made amends for his boner by doubling in the seventh to drive home Piet and later reached third with the tying run. It was Joe's second hit.

Radcliff also got to third with the tying run after leading off the eighth with his second hit. Exceptional work by Gehringer blocked the Sox every time they were on the verge of catching up, however.

Here's Lesson in Control.

The White Sox accomplishment against Bridges in the first three innings was a single with which Morrissey led off the third inning. The Tigers were almost as helpless against Lyons in the first three innings, although they did get a pair of runners on base in the third.

Lyons put on an unusual exhibition of control in the first inning. He threw nine straight strikes to retire the side. Ted pitched three strikes and no balls to Rogell. His first two pitches to Cochrane were strikes and Mickey knocked the third good one to Bonura for an out. Gehringer singled to center on the seventh straight strike and the first pitch to Goslin went by for strike No. 8. The next was a good one which Goslin tapped to Morrissey for an out.

The Sox got out in a hurry on three grounders to Rogell in the fourth, but the Tigers rose up and chased across three runs on a combination of hitting, a mental lapse by Morrissey and one of Bonura's famous "Salute to Mussolini" plays.

All Is Chaos.

Goslin led off with a single to left and stopped at second on Simmons' single to right. Walker bounced to Morrissey, who advanced to the grass for the play. He then lost his bearings. Instead of launching an elemental double play, Joe turned and ran toward third. Goslin had reached

He got his opportunity only because of a moment of rare carelessness by Hartnett, who dropped a foul popup which Riggs hit just before making his single. Nothing came of it, however, the Reds reserving their big offensive until the ninth.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

WOMEN GOLFERS.

AMERICAN women golfers have yet to lift the British women's amateur title, the only British crown which always has resisted Yankee invasions. This might not be surprising, considering the handicap of playing on strange courses in a strange country, except that teams of American golfers have won all matches in the Curtis cup international series, played home and abroad, except this year, when a formidable English squad emerged with a tie at 4 points each.

The Wake put the question "Why?" to a veteran professional. He replied, "O, our girls are interested in so many other sports like riding, tennis, yachting, and so on, that they do not concentrate on golf to the same extent that the English girls do."

That seemed to us fallacious reasoning and we reminded him of Curtis cup results, for which he had no explanation. Another veteran pro advanced this explanation:

"Perhaps our American teams, as shown by Curtis cup matches, do average as good or better golf for a squad of players. But as Bobby Jones dominated our golf among men for a number of years, as Glenna Collett Vare and later until her retirement Virginia Van Wie dominated our women's golf, Great Britain had several invincible match players able to repel all attacks on the title—Joyce Wethered, Enid Wilson, and Diana Fishwick.

"Even with a sturdy defender always in English ranks, I regard it something of a happenstance that American women have not at some time lifted the title. Unquestionably they will do so some year when a player of exceptional steadiness and ability gets the breaks."

There once was a ball team that really could play,
It had Tinker and Evers and Chance;
We would flock to the west side most any old day
To watch them cavort and to prance;
When the Giants were here and the weather was hot,
They always put on their best stance;
"There's a whole lot of swag in that world series pot,"
Said Tinker to Evers to Chance.
With the schedule complete and the pennant all cinched,
"The series is ours at a glance;
We will take them aboard without feeling the pinch," Laughed Steinfeldt to Evers to Chance.
Before the series began it looked awful good,
They had co...ed in under wraps;
But the Sox showed them how to lay on the "wood"
With George Rohe's murderous raps.

Erjavec Stops Max Marek in Eighth Round

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Johnny Erjavec, Duluth heavyweight, took a terrific beating from Chicago's Max Marek last night at the Chicago Arena. For seven rounds Marek, former Golden Gloves champion, hammered Johnny as he pleased. But a cut over the left eye, sustained in the sixth round, and which was deepened by a glancing punch in the seventh, kept Marek from answering the bell to start the eighth round, and Erjavec was awarded a technical knockout. Dr. Frank Lagorio, commission physician, made the official decision after Referee Tommy Thomas had requested him to come to Marek's corner.

Paid attendance was 1,755 and the gross receipts were $1,733.88.

Marek Scores at Will.

Marek won each of the seven rounds. He was the aggressor throughout, with Erjavec a bewildered receiver of his punches.

Johnny had no defense for Marek's right hand except to retreat. And his only showing of consequence came in the fifth when Marek slowed up to take a rest after pommeling Johnny at will.

In the third round Marek landed a right to the jaw which forced Erjavec to squat on the bottom rope for a count of two. He came back, however, to take better punches and keep his feet.

Erjavec opened the cut over Max's eye in the sixth round with a counter right hand blow. The same punch brought victory in the seventh.

Crowd Boos Decision.

The crowd booed the physician's decision, not because Marek could not continue but because Erjavec received an undeserved victory.

Puggy Weinert, Brighton Park welterweight, beat George Trapp in the four round opener. Chet La Vere of Chicago, 173, stopped Ray Raymond, also of Chicago, 165½, in two rounds. Al Nettlow, former Golden Gloves champion, beat Jimmy Sullivan, Milwaukee lightweight, in six rounds.

Toots Bernstein, Milwaukee welterweight, won a six round decision over Pat Murphy of Danville. Mickey Patrick of Chicago beat Red Johnson.

LABOR PLANNING SPORTS SHOW TO RIVAL OLYMPICS

New York, May 27.—(AP)—As an outgrowth of the controversy over American participation in the Olympic games, Charles Ornstein, one of the leaders of the unsuccessful boycott movement, today announced plans for a world labor athletic carnival in the city owned Randall's Island stadium, Aug. 15 and 16.

The dates for the two day competition, which Ornstein said would receive the approval of William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, coincide with the last two days of the Olympic games in Berlin.

DICKEY IMPROVED BUT WILL BE OUT MONTH OR MORE

Boston, Mass., May 27.—[Special.]—The condition of Bill Dickey, Yankee catcher who was injured in the fourth inning of yesterday's game between the Yanks and the Red Sox, was reported improved today by Dr. Edward O'Brien at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

The length of time he will be out of baseball is undetermined. It will probably be a month, however. If it is found necessary to operate Dickey will be lost to the Yankees at least until Aug. 1. He is suffering from a contusion of the left kidney.

Olympic Tickets Sell for Five Times Original Price

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, May 27.—Tickets for the Olympic games are selling at five times the original prices, according to a report in the Schwarzes Corps, organ of the Hitler Guard. The newspaper commented today "this might be regarded as natural in New York, but in Germany it is considered as fleecing."

Fairmount Calls Off Summer Race Meeting

East St. Louis, Ill., May 27.—(AP)—No race meeting will be held at the Fairmount Park track this summer, Robert S. Eddy Jr., Chicago, one of the owners, announced today.

Mahmoud Sets Record to Win English Derby

EPSOM DOWNS, England, May 27.—[Special.]—The Aga Khan today became the first owner since 1895 to sweep the English Derby two successive years when his big gray colt Mahmoud scored a record-breaking victory in the 158th running of the historic turf event.

Ridden by Charlie Smirke, the big horse covered the mile and a half course—with a hill at the finish—in 2 minutes 33 4-5 seconds, to break by one-fifth of a second the mark established by Windsor Lad in 1934. Smirke also was astride Windsor Lad in that record making run.

Mahmoud, son of Blenheim, the Aga Khan's first Derby winner in 1930, defeated his stable mate, Taj Akbar, by three lengths in a driving finish. He rewarded his backers at a price of 100 to 8.

Thankerton Is Third.

Three-quarters of a length behind the runner-up came Mrs. James Shand's Thankerton, and in fourth place trailed Lord Astor's Pay-Up, the favorite, which bore out what seems to be a tradition—that the Astor horses never win the Derby. Taj Akbar went to the post at 6-1, while Thankerton started at 33-1.

His Grace, Lord Carnarvon's bay colt, finished fifth. He had been backed at 28 to 1. H. G. Blagrave's Couvert came in last.

Mahmoud was far back during the first half of the race. Rounding Tattenham corner, coming into the stretch, he made his challenge and soon took command, leading the way up the final 200 yard grade where Derbies are won and lost.

Carioca Sets Early Pace.

The start was delayed almost five minutes as several of the twenty-two 3 year old colts acted up at the post. When it came, however, the field was off in perfect alignment.

Carioca was the early pace setter, taking the lead shortly after the start. Barry Star was second, two lengths behind, while the rest of the field was strung out on the long back stretch.

William Woodward's Boswell, the only American owned horse in the race, never was a contender. He failed to show the speed which his American backers had believed would carry him through to the first American triumph since 1914.

The placing of the first three horses, however, had its solace for Americans. There was a golden harvest for those who held $2,000,000 worth of Irish hospital sweepstakes tickets on Mahmoud, Taj Akbar, and Thankerton.

Jocky Makes Comeback.

Mahmoud's victory climaxed a sensational comeback by Jocky Smirke, who was banished several years ago for questionable riding. Smirke could not regain his license until 1934—just in time to ride the Maharajah of Raji-

CINCINNATI GETS ALL OF ITS RUNS IN NINTH INNING

French Again Fails to Finish Game.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The Reds from the Rhineland did things in a big way in the ninth inning yesterday. With the champion Cubs needing only two outs to officially record a winning streak of two straight, the Cincinnati delegates decided to change the setting. They rose up without warning, crowded Larry French out of the scene, continued to make merry with Tex Carleton and rammed home a cluster of five runs good for a 5 to 3 triumph before a sparsely settled house of 4,390 spectators.

Until the unhappiness of the last few minutes, French had run the show to suit himself. For eight innings he had been able to maneuver successfully out of slightly messy situations. Meanwhile his opponent, Paul Derringer, a performer of consequence, had been equally skilful. But the Red righthander couldn't avoid yielding a run in the third, partly because of Stanley Hack's bat, and another in the eighth when the same Hack hoisted a drive into the right field seats.

Reds Start Uprising.

The bad news in the ninth started with Riggs bouncing a triple past Galan in right center. Thevenow batted for McQuinn and flied to Demaree, but Riggs preferred to stay at third after the catch. He wasn't there long. Kampouris batted for Derringer and singled to left for the Red's first run.

Byrd sustained the action by singling to center. Then came the hit that hurt. Alumnus Ki Cuyler forced French into a 3 and 2 count, whereupon he whacked the next pitch for two bases, Kampouris going home with the tying run and Byrd stopping at third. The Cuyler hit also finished French, giving him a record of being chased from his last six games after completing his first two starts of the season. Incidentally the developments fastened on French his first defeat of the year.

With French out of the way Carleton took over the assignment and was told to pass Chapman. This was done on four pitched balls, filling the bases. This should have been the stopping point for the Reds, but the agony continued because Gene Lillard, the Coast league youth stationed at short in the absence of English and Jurges, misfired mentally on a double play ball.

Lillard Misses Cue.

Slow motion Lombardi hit a grounder to Herman, just the item the Cubs wanted to lift themselves out of the hole. Herman picked up the ball and heaved it to Lillard, but the youth had forgotten to move over to the bag. He caught the throw all right, but nobody was retired and Byrd registered.

Campbell ran for Lombardi and Goodman swung for Handley. He sent a fly to Demaree, Cuyler scoring after the catch. Another pinch man appeared in the shape of Walker for Myers. He pushed a single into left and Chapman went home with the fifth run. Then Riggs, who started all the rumpus, ended it with a pop to Lillard.

The Cubs bounced back with a little affair of their own in their portion of the ninth, but had to be contented with getting the tying runs as far as third and second. Hartnett led off with a tap to Don Brennan, Derringer's successor, and the portly Don threw it high over first, Gabby going to second.

Grimm Drives in Hartnett.

Demaree and Allen were set down, but Grimm singled to right to score Hartnett. Grimm summoned Bryant to do his running and O'Dea to bat

CHARLES WILSON WINS IN C. D. G. A. HANDICAP EVENT

Westward Ho Golfer Gets 74-6-68.

Charles R. Wilson, a good looking young man from Westward Ho, won all there was to win at the Chicago District Golf association's second handicap meet at Calumet yesterday. He had 36—38—74, two over par, for low gross, and his six handicap gave him low net in Class A, with a 68. Dr. J. Earl Harris of Olympia Fields was second winner with 75—5—70, while Johnny Lehman and Russell Martin had 75s to get in a three way tie for second low gross. The only disappointment they got was the fact that there were no prize awards for low gross.

In Class B the winner was Dave B. Johnson of Midlothian with 86—16—70, and second was a home club member, E. A. Eulass, with 85—11—74.

In the high handicap section R. W. Higgins of Ridge won with 92—19—73, and J. B. Victor of Butterfield was second with 94—19—75.

TERRY AND THE PIRATES—NOT CLAIRVOYANT—BUT CLOSE

Entries Close June 12 in U. S. College Golf

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Entries for the national intercollegiate golf championship, the only major event of the year the Chicago district will witness, will close on June 12 at the offices of the United States Golf association, 73 East 57th street. The tournament will be held at the North Shore club in Glenview from June 22 to 27, inclusive.

The caliber of college golf within the last half dozen years has made the intercollegiate one of the outstanding shows of the sport, producing such nationally known players as George T. Dunlap Jr. of Princeton, Johnny Fischer and Chuck Kocsis of Michigan, Ed White of Texas, Rodney Bliss of Cornell, Fred Haas Jr. of Louisiana State, and Charley Yates of Georgia.

The 1936 tournament is the first Chicago has seen since 1931, when Dunlap won the individual crown for the second time in two years at Olympia Fields. In the final at Washington, D. C., last year White defeated Haas, 5 and 4. White was then a senior, and so will not compete this year, but Haas will return as a strong favorite.

The team championship, 18 holes on both June 22 and 23, also will serve as the qualifying round for the individual championship, which will be decided on the basis of match play.

The Junior Traffic club of Chicago will hold the first of its four all day golf tournament of the 1936 season today at the Cherry Hill Golf club in Flossmoor. H. S. Wilson is chairman of the club's sports and pastimes committee.

The Navajo Fields Golf club will hold its official opening on Saturday. Low gross and low net events for both men and women will be held in the morning, followed by a two ball mixed foursome event in the afternoon. Roy Pridgen, formerly assistant at Barrington Hills, has been appointed club professional for the season.

Acacia Country club will hold its official opening on Saturday. The sports and pastimes committee has scheduled two ball foursomes in the morning, mixed foursomes in the afternoon, followed by driving and putting contests, and a dance in the evening.

Flossmoor Country club has made plans for the biggest Decoration day party in its 38 year career. Golf events will be played on Saturday and Sunday, with prizes for all classes. The main event will be a 36 hole medal play affair at full handicap. Pivot bridge will be played by women members and their guests.

A blind bogey tournament that will attract scores of North Shore golfers will feature the official opening Memorial day of the Sunset Valley course in Highland Park. Formal opening ceremonies will be directed by M. J. Headacre, president of the park district commission, assisted by Commissioners Edward M. Steele, C. H. Witt, W. Fred Gallagher, and Art Olson.

WALTER HAGEN SCORES 71; LEADS IN GOLF TOURNEY

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—(AP)—Walter Hagen conquered a high wind that sent scores soaring, to lead a field of 120 in the first round of the True Temper open golf tournament with a sub-par 71 today.

Hagen was the only player to crack par today as he went out in 34, two under perfect figures, and came home in 37.

Another former national open champion, Olin Dutra of Los Angeles, was a stroke behind Hagen with a 37—35—72. Tied at 73 at the end of the first round of the 72 hole tournament were Ralph Guldahl of St. Louis, Harold Kelly, Detroit amateur, and W. B. Barbour, Cleveland pro.

Babe Ruth, perspiring freely from frustration as much as exertion, wound up with a 40—48—88.

CAMPBELL GOES HOME FOR REST AFTER ILLNESS

Boston, Mass., May 27.—(AP)—Bruce Campbell, Cleveland Indian outfielder, left by train for Cleveland today after Dr. Edward J. O'Brien had discharged him from St. Elizabeth's hospital cured of the spinal meningitis that sent him there May 1.

Dr. O'Brien said Campbell was "completely cured" and would rest at his home in Cleveland for three weeks before rejoining the Indians. Dr. O'Brien said Campbell weighed 190, his usual playing weight, and "looked fine." His mother accompanied him on the trip home.

Americans Are Dropped from British Golf

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 27.—[Special.]—The last two American survivors, Theodore Bassett of Rye, N. Y., and Douglas Grant, a former New Yorker living in England, stroked and tarried their way out of the British amateur golf championship play today to make the tournament a strictly domestic affair.

Bassett, regarded as something of a mystery man because he had not been seen since the championship play started last Monday, was scratched from the list today when he failed to appear on the tee for his third round match. He drew a bye in the initial round and won his way into the second round via the default route.

Grant was eliminated today by P. W. L. Risdon, 6 and 5, in his third round encounter. Thirteen years ago he reached the semi-final rounds of the tourney, but his play this year, climaxed by his losing round today, was different.

Cyril Tolley, one of the favorites, was carried to the nineteenth green before defeating S. B. Roberts, after being 3 up at the turn. Lord Charles Hope was defeated, 5 and 4, by Robert D. Sweeney. Dr. William Tweddell, the Walker cup team captain, eliminated C. G. B. Stevens, 4 and 2. James Ferrier, Australian star, moved into the fourth round by defeating Kenneth Braddon on the 19th after being 3 down on the 12th.

Other well known British players eliminated in the third round play were Eric Fiddian, runnerup for the British amateur title in 1932; Tony Torrance and Rex Hartley.

Japanese Nine Arrives Today to Play Chicago

Japan's championship baseball team from Waseda university will arrive in Chicago today for a two day series with the University of Chicago at the Midway tomorrow and Saturday. The squad of 14 players, including three pitchers, will work out at Greenwood field at 1 o'clock today.

The Waseda and Chicago series dates back to 1910. The last meeting, in 1930, when the Maroons visited the Orient, consisted of a six game series, which was divided. Waseda won the first three by scores of 8-5, 8-3, and 7-6, and Chicago the last three, 6-4, 4-1, and 4-1. The first two of these games were played in the Meiji Shrine stadium, before crowds of 30,000.

Waseda's last visit to the United States was in 1927, when it won, 1 to 0, over the Maroons and then lost, 8 to 5 and 9 to 3.

Capt. Kenichi Oshita, a left hander, is expected to pitch for Waseda in the first game. The Maroons plan to start Harry Yedor, who held Purdue to four hits last Saturday.

From past experience the Maroons have found Japanese batters hard to pitch to. They are good waiters, good bunters and emphasize strategy, according to Coach Kyle Anderson of Chicago. On their last visit to Japan, the Maroons found Japanese umpires call balls on pitchers above the batter's letters, rather than above his shoulders.

The Waseda squad will be guests of the Japanese consul at tea late this afternoon, will participate in a broadcast over station W-G-N this evening, and will attend a theater tonight. They are to stay at International house on the Midway.

KELVYN PARK AND SCHURZ WIN IN PREP PLAYOFFS

Kelvyn Park of the west section and Schurz of the north division advanced to the semi-final round of play for the Chicago public high school baseball championship, and Morton clinched the Suburban league title in the feature games yesterday.

Schurz was forced to go ten innings before defeating New Phillips of the central section, 4 to 3, at Mills stadium in one of the quarter final games. Kelvyn Park beat Parker of the south section, 10 to 6, at Greenwood field.

Brothers Lead Attack.

The battery work and hitting of the brother combination, Ed and John Zydowsky, stood out for Schurz. Ed who pitched, also hit a home run and double in four times at bat, while John made a double and two singles. The winning run was scored by Ed, who walked and went around on two errors.

Raymond Hoffman held Parker to two hits and struck out 12 in winning for Kelvyn Park. Each team made six errors. The two Parker safeties were made by Procter and Woyner. Bob Jorgansen led the Kelvyn Park attack, hitting three singles and a double in five times at bat.

Morton Beats Waukegan.

Morton beat Waukegan, 12 to 2, to score its eleventh consecutive victory and win the Suburban league championship. The Cicero attack was led by first baseman Emil Devan who drove in seven runs on three doubles and a single. Morton, co-champion last year, has won four titles in the last six years.

Lane of the north section and Lindblom of the central division will renew their rivalry in a quarter final game today at Mills stadium.

HUBBELL, GIANTS BEAT DODGERS, 5 TO 4, IN 12TH

Frankhouse Forces In Run with Base on Balls.

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Carl Hubbell picked on his most persistent jinx club, the Brooklyn Dodgers, today, to pitch the Giants into a first place National league tie with a 5 to 4 victory in 12 innings. The victory boosted the Giants into a tie with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Facing the Dodgers for the first time this season, the New York left hand ace not only outlasted three Brooklyn pitchers, including the Dodger star, Van Lingle Mungo, but contributed at the plate with a pair of singles and as many sacrifices.

The winning run was a gift from Fred Frankhouse, the Dodgers' third pitcher, who walked George Davis with the bases loaded, forcing Dick Bartell across. Score:

PHILLIES, 5; BEES, 2.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 27.—(AP)—A pinch hit double by Manager Jimmy Wilson with the bases loaded in the eighth broke up the Phillies' ball game with the Boston Bees today, giving the Phils a 5 to 2 victory and a sweep of the two game series.

Bob Reis set the stage for Wilson's smash by walking Chuck Klein, Pinky Whitney and Leo Norris. All three scored on the hit.

The second was the only other inning in which runs were made. The Bees scored two on singles by Al Lopez, Bill Urbanski, and Gene Moore. The Phils evened the count on doubles by Lou Chiozza and Johnny Moore, and Whitney's long fly. Score:

PIRATES, 11; CARDINALS, 2.

St. Louis, Mo., May 27.—(AP)—Pittsburg gained revenge today for the double defeat of yesterday by slashing out an 11 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Pirates got to the veteran Bill Hallahan early and showed no regard for Mike Ryba who replaced him in the fifth.

Manager Frankie Frisch entered the game in the eighth when Capt. Leo Durocher hurt his hand, taking over third and sending Charley Gelbert to short.

The defeat, plus the Giants' victory over the Dodgers, placed St. Louis and New York in a tie for first place. Score:

Yankees Beat Red Sox, 9-8; Increase Lead

Boston, Mass., May 27.—(AP)—The New York Yankees fought off the Red Sox' attack on the American league lead in an eleven inning battle today, winning, 9 to 8, to increase their first place advantage to a game and a half.

The Yanks collected 12 hits off three Red Sox hurlers, and Boston made 13, including Jimmy Foxx' 13tn homer of the season, off four New York pitchers. Joe Di Maggio of the Yanks also hit a home run.

The winning run came when Red Rolfe singled to score Frank Crosetti after the latter had walked and stolen second.

Manager Joe Cronin got into the Boston lineup for the first time since he suffered a fractured thumb early in April. He played four innings.

Lon Warneke to Pitch Against Cincinnati Today

Lon Warneke, who has pitched only one complete game in eight starts for the Cubs this season for a record of three victories and three losses, will attempt to take care of the Reds in the third of the series today. Albert Wayne Hollingsworth, a lefty, who owns a season's mark of five victories and two defeats, will attempt to baffle the champions.

Bill Jurges, the Cubs' cripple armed shortstop, put on a uniform and did a bit of running before the game yesterday, but refrained from throwing. Woody English, who had been subbing for Jurges, wasn't able to report any improvement in his ailing finger.

Manager Grimm was rudely jolted by one of his former employés in the first inning. He had to stretch to get a throw from Billy Herman, and just as he caught the ball he was sent into a tail spin by the runner, Ki Cuyler.

Babe Herman was forced to limit his day's appearance to less than half an inning. He stopped short between second and third on Lombardi's single and pulled a charley horse.

Reds Rout French; Beat Cubs, 5 to 3

for Lillard. O'Dea doubled to left, Bryant halting at third. Then Cavarretta batted for Carleton but grounded to Kampouris for the final act of the show.

Worthy of mention is the fact that Gabby Hartnett dropped a foul ball, not a rarity for a catcher but a rarity for the Cub veteran. In some way he neglected to hold on to a popup off Riggs' bat in the fourth. Gabby had committed such an offense only twice previous in his major league career.

Reds Threaten in First.

The Reds gave French a slight case of chills in the first inning. After two were out, Babe Herman walked. Lombardi banged a single into left and the Babe, after sprinting half way to third, decided to return to second. This mild threat vanished when Galan galloped in and got his hands around Handley's liner.

The Reds were on the job again in the second and would have scored if Lillard hadn't happened to make a good guess. Myers was thrown out for a starter. Riggs was hit and forced by McQuinn and Derringer singled to center. Byrd singled off Hack's glove and Lillard, who had run over from his post, managed to slap down the ball and keep it from escaping to the outfield. This feat forced McQuinn to stop at third. Then with the bags loaded Cuyler bounced to W. Herman for the third out.

Cubs Get a Run.

A pair of hits and a long fly was all the Cubs needed for their run in the third inning. French engineered the move by singling to right center with one out. Hack aimed a single between first and second, French sprinting to third. Billy Herman sent Derringer's first pitch on a long ride into Cuyler's hands and French scored after the catch. Then Hack stole second and Galan walked but Hartnett was expunged on strikes.

The sum and substance of the Cincinnati attack in the fourth inning was a single. That is worthy of mention only because it wouldn't have happened if Hartnett hadn't made one of his rare blunders. Riggs lifted a foul between the plate and the grand stand and Gabby, seemingly taking the task too lightly, permitted the ball to slip off his glove. Then Riggs singled to center but nothing happened. The last time Hartnett committed a similar offense was way back when in a game at Brooklyn.

Grimm Drops Fly.

French had a little more to contend with in the fifth. He slipped free passage to Byrd who led off. Galan took care of Cuyler's fly. Chapman popped high over the infield and all the boys gathered around and Grimm, being the boss, ordered himself to take it. Charley neglected to hang onto the ball, but the miscue amounted to nothing. French simply picked it up and tossed to Lillard to force Byrd at second. Lombardi survived on Hack's excusable fumble of a tricky grounder. The third out was easy on Handley's fly to Galan.

Allen singled to center to open the seventh and this was the first peep out of the Cubs since Hack's hit in the third. Allen was forced by Grimm who missed being doubled only because Myers' relay pulled McQuinn off the bag. However, the Reds made up for this a moment later. Lillard's grounder caromed off Derringer's glove to Handley who tagged Grimm and tossed to McQuinn for the double play. Lombardi put himself in position to get a run for his nine in the eighth but his pals couldn't assist. The ponderous catcher spanked a drive against the right center field fence for two bases. One was out at the time. After the hit, Handley fanned and Myers lofted to Galan.

Hack Gets Homer.

Hack made his second notable contribution after one was out in the home eighth. He slammed his season's initial homer into the bleacher in right. After two were out in the same inning, Galan bounced a single into center and died in an attempted steal. Not long after this the Reds put on their big parade.

Kennedy Faces Sorrell, Tigers for Sox Today

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—Vernon Kennedy will pitch the fourth game of the Tiger series for the White Sox here tomorrow. He probably will be opposed by the rejuvenated Tiger veteran, Vic Sorrell.

Invalid James Dykes had bridled his charley horse to the extent that he was able to pitch in batting practice today.

Pitcher Monty Stratton, who remained in Chicago to nurse a sore throat, will not join up until the team reaches New York, according to a sick bay bulletin received today.

One of the smallest crowds that has watched the Tigers since 1933 turned out today. A night of rain and threats of more during the morning may have had something to do with the falling off. Reaction of a double-header and the week-end holiday program also were given as possible reasons. Insofar as the Sox as an attraction are concerned, it may be said that they have vied with the Yanks for two years as the best customer bait among Detroit visitors.

Chicago Mills Nine Will Play Five Games

Five games in as many days face the Chicago Mills semi-pro baseball team. It will meet the Kansas City Monarchs at Mills stadium, Lake street and Kilpatrick avenue, in a double-header Saturday, oppose the Israelite House of David in a pair of games Sunday afternoon and then play the same team in a night game Wednesday night.

third, so this startling bit of amnesia filled the bases.

Burns grounded to Bonura, Goslin scoring; then Owen was given an intentional pass, again filling the bases. Bridges bounced to Morrissey, and Simmons was out at the plate, Morrissey to Sewell. Rogell singled to right, the ball grazing Bonura's beard as he gave his familiar salute to balls that whiz along the foul line. The hit scored Walker and Owen, but Rogell was out, Haas to Appling, when he tried to reach second.

The Sox scored in the sixth after Lyons fanned for the second time. Radcliff doubled to right center and got to third on Kreevich's tap to Gehringer. Rip scored while Haas was beating out an infield hit.

Gehringer Nips Rally.

Appling walked at the start of the seventh, but was forced by Piet. Piet stole second as Morrissey ran the count to three balls and two strikes. Morrissey doubled to the left field wall, scoring Piet. Gehringer made a brilliant scoop play to get Sewell at first by an eyelash, Morrissey reaching third. Lyons left the tying run on third when he struck out for the third straight time.

Radcliff led off the eighth with a single to center and went to second on Kreevich's sacrifice. Rip reached third as Haas bounced to Gehringer. Gehringer made a nice play back of second to get Bonura's grounder and throw him out. The Sox went out in order in the ninth.

CHANCEVIEW WINS HIGHLAND PARK PURSE

Beats Transmutable in Hawthorne Stake.

BY FRENCH LANE.

A big horse from Texas, Chanceview, 4 year old son of Chance Shot-Look Up, looms this morning as one of the real threats in the future stake races scheduled for Chicago this season.

He turned in a smashing performance at Hawthorne yesterday when he won the 6½ furlong Highland Park purse, in which he showed his flying heels to some of the fleetest sprinters at the course.

When he came from behind and ran the distance in 1:18 1-5, he was within three-fifths of a second of the track record, which is held by the world record holder Clang. Clang's time over the same smooth course last fall was 1:17 3-5.

West Main Is Favorite.

The largest crowd of the week, a gathering of some 6,500, watched Chanceview demonstrate his speed and courage, but not a great many of them profited. The players rushed to the support of West Main and made him an even money favorite.

West Main wasn't in a running mood. He was last in the early stages and at one time was trailing the field by nine lengths. He showed some of his old dash in the stretch and moved into third place right at the finish. Yet he still was nearly five lengths back of the leaders, Chanceview and Transmutable.

The speedy but weak hearted Transmutable showed a burning effort in the early part of the struggle. He dashed out into a lead of two lengths and held it for a half mile with Patchpocket running second and Chanceview right with them in third place.

Patchpocket Folds Up.

Patchpocket was the first to show the distress signal. Chanceview sprinted past him on the turn into the stretch. Then he took after Transmutable. He wore that fellow down before the stretch run was half completed. He drew away finally to beat Transmutable by a length and a half.

Chanceview's connections backed him and some of the clockers had caught him running so fast during the training hour that they bought tickets on him. They got $7.40 to win, $4.60 to place, and $3.40 to show. Transmutable paid $8.20 to place and $4.60 to show. West Main's show price was $2.20.

Finishes were so close during the afternoon that the camera eye had to work over time. The first photo finish came in the first race, in which Quotum, a longshot, got up in the closing strides to beat Sir Midas and Sable Scarf. There was another photo finish in the fourth when Caliban also moved up on the outside and snatched victory from Emigrante in the last stride. The favorite Flavor was beaten out of third money by Bohemian Lass.

Camera Favors Teddy.

The fifth race, engaging some top grade platers, also sent the camera eye into action. There wasn't any question about Watercure beating Irish Ford, but the dispute this time was for third money. Teddy Haslam's nose was showing in front when the picture was developed.

Jaber and Border Queen had been backed the stoutest. Border Queen showed speed for a time, then faded out of the picture. Jaber never was able to get up a real brisk gallop until he was hopelessly beaten. He was full of run at the finish, but still out of the money.

Reaping Reward, a son of Sickle-Dustwhirl, won the Lakeside purse for 2 year olds. He showed fine courage in the stretch when he moved up from behind and conquered Mondorf from the John Marsch stable of Chicago.

CHANCEVIEW, never far back, responded well to urging, disposed of TRANSMUTABLE after a brief duel, and won going away. The latter displayed his usual burst of early speed and held on with good gameness, though tiring. WEST MAIN was far back in early stages and closed a big gap.

KIEVSON, well up from the start, took command when ready and drew into a safe lead in last quarter. REDRESS began sluggishly, made up ground rapidly after going three-quarters, and finished strong. TECHNOCRACY was hustled into the lead, set the pace under slight restraint, and held on gamely, though tiring.

MEYER QUALIFIES FOR AUTO RACE AT INDIANAPOLIS

Lou Moore, Mauri Rose Also Earn Places.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—(AP)—Louis Meyer, Lou Moore, and Mauri Rose won starting places in the 500 mile automobile race to be run here Saturday by successfully qualifying their speedsters today.

Meyer, who lives in Huntington Park, Cal., and who twice won the race, showed the best speed, averaging 114.171 miles per hour.

Moore qualified at 113.996 miles per hour for the twenty-five mile dash, while Rose averaged 113.890 miles per hour.

Meyer Rebuilds Car.

Rose, victim of an accident on the track more than a week ago, piloted a four wheel drive car, the only one of its kind entered in the twenty-fourth annual renewal of the long race. He turned one lap at 117 miles per hour.

Meyer, who won in 1928 and 1933, worked nearly twenty-four consecutive hours to rebuild his motor for today's qualifying run. It is a four cylinder rear drive mount.

The number of qualifiers was increased to 32 with the entries of Meyer, Moore, and Rose, leaving only one position open in the standing lineup.

Frame Fails in Attempt.

An accident this morning involving Russell Snowberger, of Philadelphia and Detroit, enlivened the pre-race activity. Snowberger crashed his car into the upper retaining wall on the first turn while driving 100 miles an hour. Neither he nor his mechanic was injured, but the car was so badly damaged it probably will not be fixed in time to try to qualify.

Fred Frame, veteran Los Angeles speed merchant and winner here a few years ago, failed in his first attempt to qualify late today. He gave up after driving four laps at approximately 108 miles per hour.

Charles Merz, Indianapolis, steward in charge of the race, said only three more hours would be allowed for this year's qualifying trials.

Aga Khan's Mahmoud Wins English Derby; Sets Record

pla's Windsor Lad, which he drove to the then record breaking triumph. Today, as he rode Mahmoud to the unsaddling circle, the crowd of almost 500,000 gave him a thunderous salute.

SWEEPSTAKE PRIZES

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—A butcher, a widowed social worker, and a woman with a mortgage to pay were among eight New Yorkers whose tickets won $150,000 each in the Irish sweepstakes today when Mahmoud finished first in the Derby at Epsom Downs.

A 60 year old man who spent his last cent for a half share in a ticket while his wife lay critically ill was among five in the New York area holding tickets on Taj Akbar, which finished second, making each ticket worth $75,000.

Six in the metropolitan area held tickets on Thankerton, which finished third, winning $50,000 for each ticket.

The winnings on these tickets held in this area totaled $1,875,000. It was reported from Dublin that Americans held nine of the twelve tickets on Mahmoud and that American winnings on the three horses in the sweepstakes totaled $2,025,000.

Wins Money Just in Time.

Though he didn't win the biggest prize, the winner who probably needed the money most was Morris Parker, 60. He is a notary public.

"Business has been in a bad way," he said. "Last Monday I got a dispossess notice. Last week the telephone company took out my coin telephone. My wife's got cataracts. One of my sons hasn't got a job and he's got a wife and three children to support. Things were pretty bad.

"The $1.25 I spent for half a ticket was the last money I had. I went halves with my friend, Alfred Nadler. He's a salesman, but he hasn't got a job.

"Well, we sold half our ticket on Taj Akbar to the British fellows for $12,000. With what we win we'll each get about $25,000.

"The first thing I'm going to do is to take my wife to the best hospital I can find. I'm going to have the best specialists in the world operate on her."

Some Sell Half Shares.

A number of other American winners, including some of the holders of tickets on Mahmoud, sold part of their tickets to the British brokers, "Duggie's." Those who sold half of their ticket on Mahmoud got only $5,000, which was $70,000 less than half a ticket was worth when the race was run.

One Mahmoud holder who didn't sell was Mrs. Mary Rigney Scofield, 56, Irish-born trained nurse, whose husband, John, has been a subway guard for eighteen years.

Having received no official confirmation that she had drawn a horse, she has refused to make any plans. She even said, "What's $150,000? Only a drop in the bucket."

Another $15,000 was held by George Curry, 52, and his wife, Ida, who live in a two room flat and run a restaurant in the basement.

Their ticket was bought in the name of "My Pal Chickie," and both gleefully gave all credit for their luck to the ticket's namesake, their brown and white Pekinese, Chickie.

Attribute Luck to Dog.

"We've been lucky ever since we got that dog," said Mr. Curry.

They both gazed fondly at Chickie, and Mrs. Curry picked up the dog, cuddling the animal as she said:

"Very stubborn, yes, indeed. She's been whining and restless and independent. It was just as though she knew something was going to happen."

Mr. and Mrs. Curry took a case of wine, mostly champagne, to their apartment, invited their three waitresses and a couple of friends to join them.

Far less enthusiastic was Mrs. James Philbrick, wife of an oil burner salesman, of 5862 43d avenue, Woodside. She, too, drew a ticket on Mahmoud, but she was persuaded to sell half of it for $5,000 to Duggie's. The whole family will share the winnings.

Plans to Pay Mortgage.

She is going to pay off the $5,000 mortgage, buy her two sons a model of the Queen Mary, and take a trip for a couple of weeks, maybe out as far as Yellowstone Park.

Another who sold half of her ticket on Mahmoud for $5,000 was Mrs. Gizella Kopp, 59, of Brooklyn, wife of a jobless cabinetmaker. They have lived for thirteen years in the house, which is mortgaged, and the thing that most pleased Mrs. Kopp today was that now they can pay off the mortgage.

Wins $150,000, but It Seems He Will Get Nothing

San Francisco, Cal., May 27.—(AP)—For a few hours today Jack H. Bruce, radio salesman, appeared to be a $150,000 winner. He held a ticket on Mahmoud, victorious horse in the Derby at Epsom Downs, England.

But the situation didn't seem to be working out exactly that way tonight.

First, Jack explained, he sold half of the ticket to a London syndicate for $5,000. That would make his gross winnings $75,000 plus the $5,000, or $80,000.

Then, he said, two sisters-in-law held a half interest in his half, which would knock $37,000 off the $80,000.

On top of that, William Leithe, another salesman, insisted he had paid for half the original ticket along with Bruce and was going to get his share. As an alternative he mentioned something about punching some noses.

Also there's the federal tax of some $60,000.

ZALE FINISHES FIRST IN MIDGET MOTOR CAR RACE

Wally Zale of Chicago won the 30 lap feature race on the Chicago Midget Speedway's racing program at Lincoln and Devon avenues last night. Ray Richards finished second and Everett Rice third. Shorty Sorenson took fourth place. Zale covered the distance in eight minutes and 49 seconds.

Marshall Lewis, Los Angeles pilot, came from sixth position to win the twenty-five lap feature auto race last night at the new Riverview speedway. He beat Pat Warren in a close finish. Chuck Niesel was third, and Art Hartsfeld took fourth money. Ten cars started.

HOLD TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Fullerton Tennis club's annual open doubles tournament will open Saturday at the club's courts, Sheffield and Fullerton avenues. Finals will be played Sunday.

TWO AMATEUR BOXING SHOWS ON TONIGHT'S CARD

Fights at Marigold and Loyola Gym.

Amateur boxing shows will be held tonight at Marigold Gardens, Broadway and Grace street, and Loyola university gymnasium, Sheridan road and Loyola avenue. Tony Musto, wild swinging Blue Island heavyweight and Bernie Bowman, representing Trafton's gymnasium, will be opponents in the five round headliner at Marigold. There will be six other boxing matches and two wrestling bouts.

The program at Loyola is sponsored by the Father's club and university alumni and will be composed of five bouts in addition to vaudeville entertainment. Proceeds will be used by the Loyola academy scholarship committee to help needy students, sixty of whom were aided in this manner last year.

J. Perry Quinlan and Thomas Barron, two of the 25 who entered the academy when it was opened in 1909 will be in attendance. Each will be accompanied by his son, now students at the school.

Cecil Payne, Louisville lightweight has been offered a match with Frank Sagillo, Cicero slugger, at Marigold Gardens next Monday.

Jim Mullen, Chicago Stadium matchmaker, in line for an appointment as promotion manager at the west side sports arena, is laying the groundwork for his first outdoor card at Mills stadium June 11. Harry Thomas, Eagle Bend, Minn., heavyweight, will return next week to open workouts in anticipation of a match on the card. Leo Lomski and Buddy Knox may clash. It also is planned to have Hank Bath appear. Billy Cepak will serve as co-promoter. . . . Jake Ing, Chinese bantamweight representing Madison Square loop gymnasium, yesterday was signed to meet Dave Schimmel, Joliet sectional Golden Gloves finalist, tomorrow at Northwest stadium. . . . Peoria amateur boxers will face a team of Chicago fighters at Wester nstadium next Tuesday. F. M.

CHICAGO TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO OPEN SATURDAY

Russell Ball will begin defense of his city tennis championship Saturday at the Oak Park Tennis club. He will be opposed by numerous veterans of local tournament play, including Thane Halstead, Frank O'Connell, Walter Gollond, Joe Kerrigan, and Gene Quinn.

O'Connell and Halstead, who won the doubles championship last season, will team up again this year. Gollond and Quinn are expected to form another strong combination.

Play for the women's championship may develop into a battle between Helen Fulton and Catherine Wolf, though there are a number of other skilful contenders in the field.

Matches will continue throughout the week, with the finals scheduled for Sunday, June 7.

COALS PLAY TONIGHT.

Night baseball makes its first appearance at Spencer Coal field, 4200 North Central avenue, tonight, when the Coals play the House of David.

MILLIONTH MILE RUN BY ZEPHYR IS CELEBRATED

Advance in Industry Told by Rail Heads.

BY HAL FOUST.

The development of light weight, streamlined trains—products of private initiative—was praised at a Chicago Association of Commerce luncheon in the Palmer house yesterday. The occasion was the completion of its millionth service mile by one of the Burlington railroad's Zephyrs operating between Chicago and St. Paul.

E. G. BUDD.

By radio, 800 business men at the luncheon heard the stainless steel, Diesel powered train burst through a paper loop near Savanna, Ill., the engineer sounding four long blasts on his compressed air siren for the microphones to carry the news of progress in railroad transportation.

Tells of Progress Ahead.

"The important thing," said Ralph Budd, president of the Burlington, "is not the million miles that have been run, but how quickly more millions of miles will be run. It took 563 days to complete the first million. By the end of 1936 there will be twenty streamlined Diesel trains in operation, all except five or six running out of Chicago, and covering between 5 and 6 million miles annually."

Mr. Budd said the railroads now were studying the possibilities of highway speed streamliners for suburban service. He said the high cost of equipment was a deterrent to this type of service since it was desirable to get twenty-four hour usage from the heavy investment.

Charles F. Kettering, president of the General Motors Research corporation, which perfected the Diesel power unit, said that "we of the automobile industry," as he referred to himself, will be able "to short circuit production methods and reduce original costs of these new trains just as the costs of automobile production have been slashed."

Railroad Prosperity Seen.

Edward G. Budd, president of the Philadelphia company bearing his name, which manufactured the Zephyrs, predicted prosperity for railroads in "this new era of railroading."

"I make the prophecy here today," he said, "of great revival in profits, public interest, and public confidence in railroad systems."

H. L. Hamilton, president of the Electro-Motive corporation, General Motors subsidiary that established a Cook county plant within the last year, announced that the first Diesel locomotive from this plant had been completed and is now ready for delivery.

"It accurately can now be stated," he said, "that Chicago has a new and going industry which is already resulting in not only more employment but new employment."

WHEELING ROAD VOTES TO PAY UP BACK DIVIDENDS

Cleveland, O., May 27.—(AP)—Directors of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad voted today payment of more than $4,000,000 in back dividends on prior lien stock, payable June 4.

Stockholders elected Frank E. Taplin, Warren Bicknell, G. A. Tomlinson, W. M. Duncan Jr., and George M. Jones to the board. Directors previously elected Charles S. Wachner and Robert Schaffner to fill vacancies.

Taplin interests, engaged with the Van Sweringen forces in a struggle for control, obtained six seats on the board of fifteen. Those aligned with Taplin are Jones, Wachner, Schaffner, Peirce, Butler, and E. J. Kulas. Kulas was elected to the executive committee to succeed William Nash. The remainder of the committee and all officers were reëlected.

The back dividends amount to $35 a share. The prior lien shares are held by the Reconstruction Finance corporation as collateral on a loan to the Nickel Plate railroad. Stockholders will meet June 29 to vote on a plan for recapitalization, submitted by Jesse Jones, chairman of the RFC.

ROOSEVELT ASKS NEW COAL LAW, LEWIS ASSERTS

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—A desire that a temporary substitute for the invalidated Guffey coal act be passed by this congress was ascribed to President Roosevelt today by John L. Lewis, United Mine workers president.

Lewis, leaving a conference with Roosevelt, told reporters:

"It is the President's viewpoint that, while the new Guffey-Vinson bill may not rightfully be considered 'must' legislation, he is definitly of the opinion that a bill of this character is necessary to maintain the temporary stabilization of the soft coal industry pending the working out of a permanent reform by congress."

During the day the house judiciary committee reported favorably a bill to authorize interstate compacts for the conservation and stabilization of the coal industry.

Carnegie Steel and Am. Sheet Merge June 1

Another step in the reorganization of the operating subsidiaries of the United States Steel corporation in the interest of efficiency was taken in Pittsburgh yesterday with the announcement that the merger of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation and the American Sheet and Tin Plate company will become effective on June 1.

B. F. FAIRLESS.

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of Carnegie-Illinois, announced that the combined companies will retain the name Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation and that headquarters will be maintained in Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Fairless will be president of the merged companies. C. W. Bennett, president of American Sheet and Tin Plate, announced his resignation. It is understood he is eligible under the United States Steel pension plan.

Fairless' Position Higher.

The merger will make Fairless, who was brought into the United States Steel corporation fold from the Republic Steel corporation last September, one of the outstanding steel figures in the world. The merged companies which he heads have combined assets of more than $500,000,000 and they employ about a third of the United States Steel corporation's 200,000 workers.

The United States Steel has been reorganizing its operating companies to enable them to meet more effectively the competition of smaller concerns in the steel business. One of the most important steps in this direction was the merger last fall of the Carnegie and Illinois Steel companies.

Officials of the United States Steel, when they visited Gary last week, said that inclusion of American Sheet and Tin Plate in the Carnegie-Illinois setup would not affect operations as the former's big plants in the Gary district.

Announce Executive Staf.

The announcement in Pittsburgh yesterday gave the following executive staf when the latest merger becomes effective on Monday.

Fairless, president; G. C. Kimball, Chicago, executive vice president; C. V. McKaig, vice president and general manager of sales; J. H. McKown, assistant vice president and assistant general manager of sales; W. I. Howland Jr., vice president of western sales, Chicago.

J. W. Hamilton, secretary; F. C. Haroer, treasurer; E. B. Harkness, assistant treasurer, Chicago; William Donald, controler; J. D. Lose, vice president in chorge of operations.

D. A. Barrett, vice president; Walter Mathesius, manager of operations, Chicago; H. D. McIlvried, assistant manager of operations, Chicago.

C. F. W. Rys, chief metallurgical engineer; Sidney Dillon, chief engineer; J. A. Hagan, chief industrial engineer; F. J. Ries, purchasing agent, Chicago.

Seattle Potato Prices Highest in Ten Years

Seattle, Wash., May 27.—(AP)—Potato prices here reached the highest level in 10 years today when new crop supplies sold for $5 and $5.25 a hundred pounds. This was an advance of 75 cents to $1 a hundredweight over yesterday's quotations. Exhaustion of old crop supplies and small offerings of new crop from Washington and California were given as causes.

CHICAGO PARCEL POST SHIPMENTS FAR ABOVE TOTAL AT NEW YORK

The Chicago postoffice handled 65,069,480 parcel post shipments in 1935, as compared with 49,856,250 handled by the New York postoffice, according to statistics contained in the new guide book for shippers released yesterday by the Chicago Association of Commerce. The book, prepared by the association's transportation department, is said to be the most comprehensive of its kind that has been published in any city.

The guide contains information on all phases of shipping freight by mail and express. It contains a complete list of postoffice and express stations in the United States and a ready reference to indicate the cheaper method of shipping to each point. Information on foreign mail shipments and air express shipments is also given.

Parcel post revenues of the Chicago postoffice for 1935 are listed at $14,176,986, as compared with New York collections of $11,133,443.

NET OPERATING INCOME OF B. & O. RISES SHARPLY

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad reported April net operating income of $2,636,471, compared with $349,330 in March and $979,873 in April, 1935. The Milwaukee road had April net operating income of $695,999, compared with $941,593 in the preceding month and $326,142 in April, 1935. Net operating income for the first four months was $2,116,654, compared with $629,061 in the like four month period of 1935.

The Chicago Great Western reported April net operating income of $179,384, compared with $90,876 in the preceding month and $94,165 in April a year ago. The Chicago and North Western April operating deficit was $498,761, against an income of $234,813 a year ago. The operating deficit for the first four months was $1,324,675, compared with a net income of $414,375.

Santa Fe had net operating income of $732,135, compared with $681,338 in March and $819,554 in April a year ago. For the first four months the net operating income was $2,078,018 against $1,186,486.

SENATE MAY ACT ON COMMODITY CONTROL TODAY

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—Senate action tomorrow on the house approved commodity exchange regulation bill was indicated today after debate on the Smith amendment to limit cotton futures trading again delayed a vote on the measure.

At the conclusion of today's session, Democratic Leader Robinson of Arkansas said Chairman Smith [Dem., S. C.] of the senate agriculture committee, had assured him the measure would be disposed of tomorrow.

Smith has three other amendments pending, relating to cotton, but the most controversial is his proposal to limit trading in cotton futures to 600,000 bales a year by an individual or firm.

Senator Connally [Dem., Tex.] led the attack on the latter amendment while Senator Frazier [Rep., N. D.] came to Smith's aid, saying he was convinced that the big cotton firms through their futures operations manipulated the cotton market.

Effort to Halt Surface Line Plan Expected

An effort to block the reorganization of the Chicago Surface lines under the Abbott plan is expected to be made this morning by the stockholders of the Chicago Railways company, which operates the north and west side lines. It was indicated yesterday that the Chicago Title and Trust company, trustee for the stock, will file a petition in federal court for reorganization of the company under section 77B of the bankruptcy act.

If the stockholders are successful in transferring the reorganization from the equity court to the bankruptcy court, consent of two-thirds of all security holders will be necessary before any plan may be declared operative. Between 85 and 95 per cent of the senior security holders of all the surface lines have deposited in favor of the Abbott reorganization.

Sale Expected Tomorrow.

While the effect of today's schedule filing on the Abbott plan is somewhat uncertain it was predicted that public sale of the surface lines' properties set for tomorrow will be carried out. M. H. MacLean and Frank M. Gordon, members of the Abbott committee, have served notice with the federal court that they will file a bid for the properties.

Sale of the surface lines' assets was ordered by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson several weeks ago. Objections to the sale may be made within twenty-one days after the submission of bids tomorrow. The Abbott group is expected to be the only bidder.

Decision to file the 77-B action was made yesterday at a conference of stockholders attended by Amos B. Miller, attorney for the Chicago Title and Trust. The company is trustee for the stock and common stock participation certificates.

No Action on Change.

The trust company asked the directors of the surface lines to agree to a transfer of the reorganization proceedings to the bankruptcy court some time ago, but no action was taken. At the time the Abbott plan had already been declared operative with nearly all the secured creditors assenting.

The Abbott plan is the third reorganization proposed since the first street car receivership in 1926. Both earlier plans collapsed. Under this plan the property would be bid in at the foreclosure sale and the securities of the three separate companies making up the street car system would be exchanged for securities in a single successor company.

COMMERCIAL BUILDING AWARDS AT HIGH LEVEL

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Engineering construction awards this week for commercial buildings totaled $8,375,000, the highest volume since the week ended April 11, 1935, Engineering News-Record reported today.

In a week shortened by the coming Decoration day holiday construction awards of all classes amounted to $35,466,000 against $31,047,000 for the like period last year. Private works accounted for $12,662,000. Public works totaled $22,804,000, divided as follows: Federal, $4,701,000; state and municipal, $18,103,000.

STOCKS REDUCE EARLY GAINS IN LATER TRADING

Final Prices Slightly Higher on Day.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 27.—Changing its direction swiftly the stock market went sharply into reverse today as a flurry of selling beset the list near the close, paring early advances ot 1 to 3 points and in some instances replacing them with losses. However, final quotations were slightly higher than those of the preceding session, although gains of a point or more were the exception rather than the rule.

Scattered profit-taking was manifest intermittently but the list resisted well. Traders recalled that just a year ago today the Supreme court handed down its famous decision that killed the NRA and touched off a bull market of more than a year's duration. From that date until the first setback, according to the figures of one statistician, industrial stock prices appreciated 43 per cent.

Volume Expands.

In addition to the encouragement engendered by the ability of the list to overcome profit-taking financial circles were cheered by the expansion in volume, indicating that the public is once again taking positions in the market. Activity was the fastest pace in two weeks, sales amounting to 1,221,000 shares.

Optimistic predictions on car loadings and earnings carried the rail shares into higher territory, though several issues saw early advantages wiped out. Atchison lost a point and fractional losses were sustained by Delaware and Hudson, New York Central, and Great Northern. Gains of fractions to a point were recorded by Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, New York, Chicago and St. Louis, Baltimore and Ohio, and New Haven.

Youngstown Sheet and Tube featured dealings in the steel division by rising 3⅜ points on reports of better earnings. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Crucible picked up fractions.

Motor Shares Decline.

Motor shares continued to back away with the seasonal decline in production. Utility shares finished slightly lower on the day, though electric production figures showed a substantial increase. The preference shares of American Power and Light continued buoyant in response to the doubling of dividend payments.

Sears, Roebuck climbed to a new high in the mail order division while farm implement shares quieted down. Case lost 1½ points. Allied Chemical spurted 4 points.

Gains running to a point or more were registered by American Metal, Hercules Power, which flared up 6 points on a dividend boost, Johns-Manville, Lima Locomotive, and U. S. Smelting.

LONG, SHORT HAUL REPEAL UNLIKELY, SAYS WHEELER

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—Chairman Wheeler [Dem., Mont.] of the senate interstate commerce committee said today there was "no chance" that the Pettengill bill to repeal the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act would be enacted at this session of congress.

He expressed this view to reporters after his committee had heard J. G. Bruce of Helena, Mont., representative of the state board of railroad commissioners, and E. H. Walker of Reno, Nev., representative of the state public service commission, attack the proposal. The bill would eliminate a provision in the act prohibiting railroads from charging a lower rate for a long haul than for a short one over the same route.

Wheeler said "there is so much sentiment against the bill both in the committee and in the senate as a whole that I see no chance of its passage at this session. Besides there are more than 35 witnesses against it who have yet to be heard."

"There would be a whale of a floor fight against it and we all are trying to adjourn, you know."

April Auto Plant Weekly Pay Roll Highest Since '29

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—[Special.]—Motor car manufacturing plants paid to workers an average of $11,600,000 a week in April, their largest weekly pay roll since 1929, the Automobile Manufacturers' association announced today. Average weekly income of employés last month was $32, compared with the peak of $35 for the spring of 1929.

Bankers of Illinois Demand U. S. Withdraw from Business

St. Louis, Mo., May 27.—[Special.]—The Illinois Bankers' association closed its forty-sixth annual convention today with the adoption of a declaration of policy which asserted that the government should withdraw from emergency activities because "there is every indication that recovery has set in and that the country has definitly emerged from the economic chaos which made necessary many governmental activities of an emergency nature."

"The unfortunate condition which confronted our people should not be made an excuse for permanent assumption by government of private initiative and enterprice," the bankers declared.

Time to Cut Costs.

"The time has come when the excess cost of emergency measures should cease, the normal cost of government should be reduced, and the ultimate payment of the debt must be considered."

The bankers said they "assumed" the obligations would be met without repudiation or inflation.

In view of political trends today it seems probable another epidemic of bank troubles similar to that in 1933 would result in complete socialization of banks, Paul T. Betz, executive vice president of the First National bank, Lincoln, Ill., said in an address.

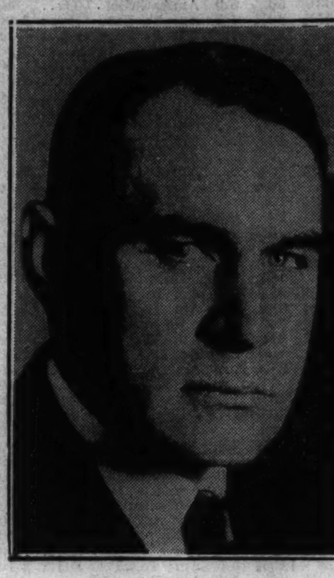
"I do not believe this will happen in our day," he said. "However, the independent banker cannot afford to lose sight of this fact and this trend. If independent bankers fail now to see the broader implications here involved, an incensed populace may readily strip them of what power they still retain."

Rathje Named President.

Frank C. Rathje, Chicago banker-lawyer, whose daring broke a "run" on two banks he heads in 1931, was elected to the presidency of the Illinois association. Rathje outbraved hysteria in June, 1931, and kept his two banks open far into the night to pay depositors who rushed to withdraw funds after a banking chain had failed. His surprise stroke aroused confidence and the Rathje banks resumed business in a normal manner the next day.

Rathje has been first vice president and chairman of the legislative committee of the Illinois association. He has advocated modernizing state banking laws and reconciling them with national banking laws and practices. He is president of the Chicago City Bank and Trust company and the Mutual National bank of Chicago and senior member of a prominent law firm.

Heads State Bankers



FRANK C. RATHJE.

Caution Urged.

O. P. Decker, vice president of the American National Bank and Trust company, Chicago, spoke on the present day bank investment problem.

"While we are now in a period that appears to be one of expanding business and rising bank deposits, we are, nevertheless, in a period that is subject to wide fluctuation in public psychology, commodity prices, and methods of business management," he said. "This might easily make the use of a secondary reserve, either to provide loanable funds or to pay out deposits, necessary for many institutions," he said.

Urging a cautious investment policy, he asserted:

"Conservatism in handling the investment account of a bank has more than its own reward. The greed for profit rather than the desire to earn an interest return can frequently lead an institution into making commitments which its head might justifiably make for his own account and with his own funds, but which he cannot justifiably make with the funds of his institution."

ROOSEVELT SIGNS BILL CONTINUING UNLISTED TRADE

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today signed a bill authorizing continuation of trading in unlisted securities on exchanges registered with the securities commission.

Introduced by Chairman Fletcher [Dem., Fla.] of the senate banking committee on request of the securities commission, the measure also provides for registration of over the counter brokers and dealers and for the filing of up to date information and periodic reports by issuers of securities.

APPALACHIAN COALS VOTES TO RESUME ACTIVITY

Cincinnati, O., May 27.—(AP)—Stockholders of Appalachian Coals, Inc., marketing agency for 200 high volatile miles in Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, and West Virginia, decided today to resume active operations June 1.

The corporation, the largest coal marketing agency in the world, decided to resume operation as the result of the Supreme court's invalidation of the Guffey act.

Unofficial estimates placed the tonnage under contract at 70,000,000 of the 85,000,000 total which the affiliated mines are capable of producing.

U. S. TO BORROW 2 BILLIONS, PEAK FOR PEACE TIME

Lifts National Debt Above 32½ Billions.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., May 27.—Pressed by New Deal expenditures and bonus costs the United States treasury will undertake the biggest peace time borrowing operation in the nation's history, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau disclosed today in an official announcement revealing that $2,050,754,416 of government securities will be offered the middle of June. This financing calls for an even billion dollars of new money, in addition to the $1,050,754,416 required to meet maturing obligations.

Details of the June 15 financing operation are to be announced next Monday. The borrowing of a billion dollars of new funds will raise the gross public debt beyond $32,500,000,000.

Debt Kited 10.6 Billions.

Next to largest borrowing and refinancing operations in peace time was also under the New Deal, occurring in December of 1934 when 900 millions of dollars were borrowed and 992 millions were refunded. The New Deal borrowings were topped only by the liberty loans of the world war.

The public debt of the United States, which has already been increased by $10,600,000,000 since Roosevelt took office, or about $252 per capita, will be kited to a record peak.

The new funds, it was learned, will carry the New Deal's continued spending above income until Sept. 15, when another substantial borrowing is expected.

Morgenthau's announcement was made calmly and precisely when he was asked how much money he needed.

"We're going to ask for one billion dollars in fresh money," he said coolly.

Figures on Bonus Costs.

Morgenthau said that the treasury had to take the "outside top" figure on bonus costs. If all the veterans cashed their new bonds that will be distributed to them in June, according to the secretary, the drain on the treasury would amount to 2 billion 300 million dollars. The veterans personally would get approximately 1 billion 700 million dollars while the government insurance fund would obtain 500 million dollars and banks about 60 million dollars, he said.

The treasury, however, has on hand a little more than enough cash to pay the "outside top" figure for the bonus. The latest cash balance reported was 2 billion 257 million dollars. Thus, the borrowing of a billion dollars in "fresh money" would mean the accumulation of

RATE OF STEEL ACTIVITY FALLS ½ POINT TO 68%

Heavy June Shipments Expected.

Steel ingot production last week fell one-half point to 68 per cent of capacity, the magazine Iron Age reported yesterday. Operations dipped slightly at Chicago, Philadelphia and Cleveland, gained at Buffalo and St. Louis and remained unchanged at Pittsburgh and Wheeling.

Price advances for the third quarter were announced during the week by leading producers of semi-finished steel, bars, plates and shapes, all grades of sheets and hot rolled strip steel. The increase amounts to $2 a ton on all products except cold finished carbon steel bars which will go up $3 a ton. Third quarter quotations on wire products, tubular goods, rails, track accessories and cold rolled strip have not yet been named.

Price Advance Slated.

Iron Age said that cold rolled strip is slated for an advance of at least $2 a ton, and rails may be marked up to $40 a ton. Certain revisions are expected on merchant wire products, but pipe will probably be unchanged. Skelp has already been reaffirmed at 1.80 cents per pound at all basing points. Tin plate will remain the same.

The journal pointed out that the new schedules contain one significant innovation. All quotations and sales will be made f. o. b. place of delivery, which is defined as the railroad freight station at or nearest the place where the product is to be used.

Iron Age says that if the point of delivery is at a basing point, a switching charge of 2½ cents a 100 pounds will be added to the base price to obtain the delivered price. Chicago and Gary are exceptions, the switching charge at these points being 3 cents a 100 pounds. At other points of delivery the prices will be determined as under the code.

Expect Heavy Shipments.

June shipments should be very heavy and will probably reach the highest point of the year because the new prices go into effect July 1, a full month for consumers to cover their needs under the old prices. However, Iron Age says, it is felt that it will be physically impossible to satisfy customer requirements of low priced steel in the remaining five weeks.

Automotive requirements are definitly declining, but are still substantial enough to maintain sheet and strip mill operations at a high rate.

The Iron Age scrap composite for No. 1 heavy melting steel declined to $13.08 a gross ton because of a 50 cent drop at Philadelphia. The finished steel composite remained at 2.097 cents a pound and pig iron held at $18.84 a gross ton.

WAVE OF BUYING AND SHORT COVERING BOOSTS BUTTER

A wave of buying and short covering swept the November delivery of butter up ⅜ cents yesterday to a new high for the season on the Mercantile exchange. Prices closed at the top at 28⅛ cent per pound. Trading was heavy with sales totaling 103 cars of futures.

A light into storage movement, failure of receipts to come up to seasonal expectations, and reports of a better consumptive demand were the bullish influences. No purchases by the government were reported. The spot market was ¼ cent higher.

Egg futures gained ⅛ to ⅜ cent with May storage packed closing at 22⅛ cents. Trading in the latter will cease today. Sales of futures were 58 cars. Prices follow:

UNCERTAINTY OF COMMODITY BILL RESTRICTS COTTON

Uncertainty as to the action of congress regarding the commodity control bill now before the senate is greatly restricting speculative operations in the cotton market. Prices held within narrow limits yesterday with Chicago closing 1 point higher to 8 points lower.

Other markets were 1 point higher to 5 points lower. [A point is equal to 1-100 cent.] The government weekly weather report, while saying conditions in the western belt were generally favorable, mentioned a need for dry weather in some sections of Texas and Oklahoma, while rain is badly needed in some of the eastern states.

Spot cotton closed unchanged with New Orleans, 11.70 cents; Houston and Galveston, 11.60 cents, and New York at 11.75 cents per pound. Prices follow:

LARD CLOSES AT TOP WITH GAINS OF 7½ TO 12½ CENTS

Trade interests which led in the selling of lard futures late Tuesday were good buyers of September yesterday. There also were purchases of October for an outside packing interest. Strength in cotton seed oil attracted considerable attention. Closing trades were at the top with net gains of 7½ to 12½ cents. Deliveries of 150,000 pounds of cash lard were made on May contracts.

Clear bellies [salt pork] closed nominally unchanged. Cash lard was quoted at $10.05; loose, $9.42½; leaf, $9.25, and clear bellies at $12.50 per 100 pounds. Prices in dollars per 100 pounds:

POWER OUTPUT DIPS SLIGHTLY, BUT EXCEEDS '35

Chicago Area Production 11.9% Above Year Ago.

Production of electric power in the United States for the week ended May 23 decreased slightly from the total of the preceding week, but continued sharply above the corresponding week of 1935, the Edison Electric institute reported yesterday.

The Commonwealth Edison company reported that in the Chicago area power production for last week declined less than seasonally from the preceding week, but held well ahead of a year ago.

15.3 Per Cent Above 1935.

Total power output for the country was 1,954,830,000 kilowatt hours, a decrease of .3 per cent from the preceding week, but an increase of 15.3 per cent over the same week of 1935.

While power output declined a trifle contraseasonally for the week ended May 23, substantial increases were reported from most geographical districts over a year ago.

The total for the Chicago district was 108,097,000 kilowatt hours compared with 96,643,000 in the corresponding period of last year, an increase of 11.9 per cent.

Chicago Area Figures.

Following are output in kilowatt hours and percentage comparisons with last year for the Chicago district [last 3 ciphers omitted]:

May 16	108,979	98,679	10.4
May 9	108,612	97,658	11.2
May 2	109,488	100,731	8.7

The Rocky Mountain states had the sharpest increase over last year, its gain totaling 23.3 per cent. The central industrial states had an increase of 17.3 per cent; west central, 14.9 per cent; southern, 16.9 per cent; Pacific coast, 13.2 per cent; New England states, 12.8 per cent, and middle Atlantic states, 12.1 per cent.

LARGE COTTON TRADER ON N. Y. EXCHANGE FAILS

New York, May 27.—(AP)—The New York Cotton exchange announced today that William B. Averell, a prominent member, was unable to meet his obligations. In cotton circles, where Averell was known as one of the largest traders in the business, his failure was described as "one of the biggest shocks the exchange ever had."

The blow to cotton circles was largely psychological, however, and market prices for the staple were not disturbed following the announcement.

Well known in New York social circles, and in the cotton trade, Averell was said to have carried some of the heaviest commitments ever seen on the Cotton exchange at one time. In exchange quarters it was said Averell had not been actively trading for the last several weeks.

He was an independent floor broker and not a member of any firm, was said in trade circles in former days to have been also a heavy trader in stocks. By some cotton men it was said that inasmuch as he had not been active in the cotton market for some time, inability to meet his obligations was probably a matter of previously contracted debts.

AMERICAN POWER VOTES DIVIDENDS ON PREFERRED

Directors of American Power and Light yesterday voted a dividend of 75 cents a share on the $6 preferred stock and 62½ cents a share on the $5 preferred, both payable July 1 to stockholders of record June 8. On April 1, when 37½ cents a share was paid on the $6 preferred, the arrears were $15.37½ a share.

Hercules Powder company voted a quarterly dividend of $1.25 a share on the common stock, payable June 25 to stock of record June 12. This will place the stock on an annual basis of $5 a share, against $3 paid in the preceding year. The company disbursed a quarterly of 75 cents on March 25 and paid an extra of 50 cents last Dec. 20.

Wesson Oil and Snowdrift company voted an extra dividend of 37½ cents a share and a regular payment on the common stock, payable on July 1. A similar extra disbursement was made in the preceding quarter.

Wheeling Steel corporation voted a dividend of 50 cents a share on account of accumulations on the 6 per cent preferred stock, payable on July 1.

Standard of N. J. Unit to Redeem Preferred

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Standard Oil Export corporation, controlled by Standard Oil company of New Jersey, has called for redemption June 30 the outstanding 764,935 shares of preferred stock at $110. Funds for the redemption will be supplied partly from the recent sale of $85,000,000 of 3 per cent debentures of Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

ACCORD REACHED ON CONSUMERS REORGANIZATION

Plan Voting Trust to Run Company for 4 Years.

Reorganization of the Consumers company under which control would be placed in the hands of five voting trustees for a period of four years has been agreed upon, representatives of the numerous litigants in the case reported yesterday to Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

Under terms of the plan Joseph H. Hock, vice president and a substantial stockholder in the company as well as the largest single creditor, will assume the presidency of the reorganized concern. Hock will also be one of the voting trustees.

Other nominees for trustees are George F. Harding and Martin H. Kennelly, trustees of the court now administering the property; John O'Laughlin, vice president of the company, and William J. Lynch, a contractor with offices at 844 Rush street. Lynch was chosen as an independent to settle the controversy which has existed over the division of control in the new company.

June 15 Set for Hearing.

Judge Wilkerson set June 15 for a hearing on the new plan. He asked counsel for the various groups yesterday if there were any objections to the terms and all indicated their agreement.

The affairs of the company have been in litigation since July, 1934, when proceedings were instituted for reorganization under the amended bankruptcy act. Efforts to bring about an agreement have been marked by bitter dissension. Hock at one time threatened to withdraw from the reorganization negotiations because of criticism of his proposals by the bondholders committee.

The new plan was not presented in written form to the court but was outlined orally by Edward J. Hennessey, attorney for the present trustees of the company.

The choice of voting trustees and the length of time the trust should continue were the principal points of controversy during the negotiations. Both have been settled to the satisfaction of all parties, Hennessey said.

Debt to Be Refunded.

As in the previous plan the debt of parent company and subsidiaries, amounting to $6,910,804, will be refunded by issuance of bonds and stock of the new company. The secured debt will be reduced by about 50 per cent.

Holders of the present outstanding bonds of three subsidiaries, the Wisconsin Lime & Cement Co., North Shore Material company and the Central Lime & Cement Co., will get from 47½ to 52½ per cent of the face amount of their present bonds in first mortgage 5 per cent bonds of the company.

For the balance of their claims, including accrued and unpaid interest, the bondholders will receive new $50 preferred stock which is cumulative as to dividends to the extent earned up to $3 yearly. The stock carries full voting rights.

Holders of Consumers company 6 per cent prior preference stock will receive for each 10 shares held, five and a half shares of new class A and two and a half of new class B stock. Holders of the parent company concern's 7 per cent preferred will get for each 10 shares held, seven and a half shares of new B stock. Holders of the present common stock will get one share of new B common for each 67 shares held.

RAIL FREIGHT FORWARDING PROBE STARTED

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—Officials reported today the interstate commerce commission had launched an investigation to determine the relationship between railroads and freight forwarding agencies.

The investigation was ordered on the commission's own motion, and is designed to trace "direct or indirect" connections between the carriers and carloadings or freight-forwarding companies. This includes a determination of securities or other "pecuniary" interests which railroads might have in such agencies.

Other phases of the investigation include rail rates for "consolidated carload freight" and related services performed in connection with this trafic, and the amount of tonnage transported for forwarding companies at consolidated carload rates.

U. S. STEEL CO. EXEMPTED FROM UTILITY ACT LAW

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—The securities commission today exempted United States Steel corporation and several associated companies from the Public Utility Holding company act of 1935.

The commission found that the power and gas business of these companies was only "incidental" to their other operations and that they were not important in the utility industry.

The other companies included in the exemption were American Sheet and Tin Plate company, Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, and Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company.

Great Western Sugar Elects New President

Denver, Colo., May 27.—(AP)—Frank A. Kemp today was elected president of the Great Western Sugar company and was reappointed general manager. Directors voted the regular divinded, $1.75 a share on preferred and 60 cents a share on common stock.

Open Trading Tomorrow in La Salle-Wacker Bonds

The Chicago Board of Trade has authorized the opening of trading tomorrow in the bonds of the La Salle Wacker corporation, exchange officials said yesterday.

Oil Executive Assails Tax of $1,000 Per Man in Industry

Houston, Tex., May 27.—[Special.]—The petroleum industry is being taxed at the rate of $1,000 per worker per year, W. R. Boyd Jr., executive vice president of the American Petroleum institute, asserted here in a speech today in which he assailed the tax burden which is being imposed on the industry. He said the industry is being taxed, retaxed, and overtaxed.

W. R. BOYD JR.

Boyd declared the petroleum industry was instrumental last year in directing to government treasuries more than 11 per cent of all taxes collected by nearly 200,000 different taxing jurisdictions, national, state, and local.

"There are levied upon the property, products and operations of this industry 201 different types of taxes," Boyd said. "Of these 39 are federal taxes, 121 are state, and 41 are local. This shows the variety, multiplicity and duplication of taxes imposed upon one typical American industry.

Assails Huge Burden.

"As the unpaid collector of gasoline taxes, which comprise about three-fourths of the annual tax bill of more than 1 billion dollars on the petroleum industry, it is in the unique position of seeing the government derive from taxes on its principal income product far more revenue than it is itself able to make by manufacturing and marketing the commodity.

"It is in the position of seeing its annual tax bill practically equal to its annual pay roll."

Boyd said that an analysis of oil company financial reports for 1935 will show that taxes paid by or through them ranged from 200 to 800 per cent of net earnings. The report of one large company, he said, disclosed that its taxes were more than 40 times its net earnings. In the case of another oil company, taxes upon motor fuel and lubricants alone increased from $10,581 in 1922 to $25,789,185 in 1935.

Seek Equitable Levy.

"The petroleum industry is not objecting to bearing its fair share of the cost of any generally applied tax program," Boyd continued. "It is not complaining of the reasonable and economically administered cost of government. But it is protesting against being made with its employes and its customers the goat for 201 varieties of tax levies.

"It is objecting to being taxed, retaxed and over-taxed for the support of uneconomically administered and unnecessarily expensive government whenever and wherever that occurs. It is protesting sales taxes on its products ranging from 20 to 100 per cent, respectively, of their retail and wholesale market value, as is the case with gasoline."

U. S. TO BORROW 2 BILLIONS, PEAK FOR PEACE TIMES

funds to carry on New Deal spending until next September.

Following conferences with the open market committee of the federal reserve board, Morgenthau made public the text of a letter to the presidents of the twelve reserve banks setting forth regulations to curb the so-called "free riders" or "padding" of subscriptions for the new government paper.

In the past, Morgenthau declared, many persons had padded their subscriptions with the result that "legitimate" bonds buyers had been squeezed out.

The regulations are practically the same as have been in vogue orally heretofore, according to the admission of Daniel W. Bell, acting director of the budget, with one exception. This was that the cash deposit on subscriptions by the general public, other than banks, would be raised from 5 to 10 per cent.

Text of Letter.

"Cash subscriptions from banking institutions for their own account will be received without deposit," read the letter, "but will be limited on each issue to an amount which will be stated in the treasury offering. A cash subscription from any other subscriber must be accompanied by payment in an amount which also will be specified in such offering.

"The purpose of this initial payment is to limit the amount of customers' subscriptions to their legitimate requirements and it tends to defeat this purpose if unsecured loans without collateral other than the securities subscribed for are made to cover the initial deposit. Banking institutions will greatly assist if they will coöperate in avoiding this practice."

Whether the offering would be bonds or notes, or a combination of both, Morgenthau refused to say. He also declined to say for how long a period the treasury would continue to float 100 million dollars of short term bills each week, or 50 million above the usual amount.

CHEVROLET HEAD CHEERFUL OVER FIRM'S BUSINESS

Business of the Chevrolet Motor company continues to be "marvelous," E. M. Coyle, president, said yesterday on his arrival here. Coyle, en route from Winter, Wis., to Detroit, with his wife, spent last week-end fishing in the Wisconsin lake district.

"We have at the present between 58,000 and 60,000 persons on Chevrolet payrolls," Coyle said. "We had expected that in advancing the time for bringing out new models we would push back our employment level into the winter months instead of having a concentration in the spring. However, our business has been so good we have had to operate our plants at capacity."

Court Action Keeps Mitten Group from Utility Control

Philadelphia, Pa., May 27.—[Special.]—Federal Judge George A. Welsh today continued permanently in office the six trustees, headed by Mayor Wilson, whom he appointed temporarily two weeks ago to control the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company during its reorganization. This action ousts permanently the three trustee-directors named by Judge Harry S. McDevitt in 1931 and once more keeps the company's stockholders dominated by Mitten Bank Securities corporation from regaining control.

Beef Prices Under 1935 Despite Recent Upturn

Fresh beef is wholesaling from 20 to 36 per cent lower than a year ago despite recent advances, Frank A. Benson of Chicago, chairman of the committee on marketing methods of the Institute of American Meat Packers, said yesterday. Benson said the greatest declines from a year ago have occurred in the highest quality beef, although all grades have shown substantial declines as compared with a year ago.

J. P. MORGAN AGAIN HAS REPRESENTATIVE ON N.Y. CENTRAL BOARD

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—J. P. Morgan & Co., after a lapse of more than five years, again today secured representation on the New York Central railroad board of directors through George Whitney. Whitney was elected at the annual stockholders' meeting in Albany to succeed George F. Baker, who retired of his own volition.

Whitney, who is now in Europe, handled many important railroad investment issues before the house of Morgan retired from that field when the federal banking act of 1934 became effective. Baker has not been an active attendant at the monthly directors' meetings recently.

New York Central's net income for April approximated $280,000 after all charges, which compared with a net loss of $894,000 in April, 1935, it was figured today on the basis of the statement just released.

Officials of the road, however, point out the road will just about break even in May, which, however, will show considerable improvement over the same month last year. The Memorial day holiday will restrict earnings this month, it is reported.

C. & O. HOLDINGS OF CHESAPEAKE CORP. REDUCED

New York, May 27.—[Special.]—Chesapeake corporation's holdings of Chesapeake and Ohio railway at the end of 1935 were reduced 3.3 per cent to 47.7 per cent, according to a statement filed with the securities and exchange commission today. Sales of stock and conversion of bonds reduced the ratio, it was declared.

The report showed that O. P. Van Sweringen, George A. Ball, and G. A. Tomlinson held 100 per cent control of Midamerica corporation, which in turn held 48 per cent control of Alleghany corporation last year. Alleghany's holdings of 69.4 per cent of Chesapeake corporation were shown in the report to be held by nominees for the Guaranty Trust company.

C. L. Bradley, vice president, receivel $4,000 from the Chesapeake last year, besides $28,312 paid by the Chesapeake and Ohio and companies directly or indirectly controled by the C. and O., according to the report. D. S. Barrett Jr., vice president, received $4,000 from the corporation and $27,742 from the C. and O. group; John P. Murphy, treasurer, secretary, and counsel, received $2,140 salary from the corporation and $13,892 from the group.

ANTI-TRUST SUIT AGAINST A. T. & T. IS DISMISSED

A decision has been handed down by Federal Judge John C. Knox in the United States district court for the southern district of New York granting the motion of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the Western Electric company, and the Electrical Research Products, Inc., to dismiss the complaint of Bernard Gogel, who brought suit against these companies for $3,000,000 damages for their alleged violation of the Sherman and Clayton anti-trust acts.

Gogel instituted the suit as assignee of the Standard Sound Recording corporation.

The action was one of eighteen so-called "treble damage" suits brought by makers of talking machine equipment or users of such equipment who have sought to collect damages from the Western Electric company and its associates on the ground that the group was engaged in a monopoly in restraint of trade in the sale and lease of talking picture equipment.

Steel Men Gather in East for One Day Meeting

New York, May 27.—(AP)—Steel men converged on New York tonight for the spring meeting of the American Iron and Steel institute tomorrow. Eugene G. Grace, head of the institute and president of Bethlehem Steel, will open the one-day session. Other speakers include William A. Irvin, president of the United States Steel corporation; E. T. Weir, chairman of the National Steel corporation; Charles R. Hook, president of the American Rolling Mill company, and Tom M. Girdler, chairman of Republic Steel corporation.

LONDON SILVER DROPS BELOW NEW YORK PRICE

Pound Rises on Dollar; Franc Declines.

Foreign exchange markets were quiet yesterday, but silver fell again in London to the lowest quotation since early March. The metal dropped a quarter pence an ounce to 19 3-16 pence in London, equivalent to 44.27 cents, while the price of foreign bar silver in New York remained steady at 44.75 cents.

As a result the London price dipped under the New York quotation for the first time in a month.

Follows Chinese Silver Export.

The break in the silver market follows closely on the news of the first shipment of Chinese silver to the United States to be made under the agreement recently concluded in Washington between American and Chinese treasury officials. The shipment of $4,600,000, consigned to Seattle, Wash., left Shanghai Tuesday.

In the exchange market the French franc dropped slightly in terms of American funds, but held above the gold export point.

The franc closed at 6.58¾ cents, off ⅛ point from Tuesday. The British pound closed slightly higher in the New York market at $4.98¼, up ⅛ cent.

Money Parley Considered.

Dispatches from Paris reported that the new French government may soon call an international monetary conference to discuss means of stabilizing the dollar, pound, and franc at fixed ratios. It was indicated that the French would propose pegging the franc at a lower figure in relation to the dollar and pound than now prevails.

Discussion of such a conference has been going on for several months. The chief barrier at the present time is the uncertainity over the policy of the new French government. It is believed that the United States and Great Britain want further clarification of the French policy before such a conference should assemble.

More Gold Engaged.

Gold totaling $4,100,000 was engaged in Paris yesterday for shipment here, bringing to $175,000,000 the total engaged abroad since April 24 and to $141,100,000 the total taken in France in that period.

The receipt of $1,335,500 gold from India Tuesday and $55,500 from Holland yesterday was reported by the federal reserve bank, which also reported the release from earmarking of $349,400 gold.

RAILS FINISH CASE AGAINST RETIREMENT ACT

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Counsel for more than 400 railroad enterprises attacking the constitutionality of the railroad retirement legislation of 1935, closed their case in the District of Columbia Supreme court today and the government began its defense of the retirement system.

As the government began its opening statements a hot debate over the admissibility of the claim that the legislation is justified under the federal authority over interstate commerce, took place before Justice Jenning Bailey. Emmett E. McInnis, chief counsel for the railroads, declared that such evidence is irrelevant.

Justice Bailey refused to rule on the motion to exclude the statements, explaining that he wishes to hear the evidence, "broadly" presented. He will entertain written objections when the hearings are completed, he said.

Railroad employés were the concluding witnesses for the petitioners today. They invariably opposed the government retirement plan, explaining that they consider the retirement system set up by their employers more secure than that offered by the government.

NEBRASKA POWER PROGRAM TRIAL DELAYED TO FALL

Washington, D. C., May 27.—(AP)—Public Works administration attorneys agreed with five utility companies today to postpone until fall the trial of an injunction suit involving a $56,000,000 Nebraska power and irrigation development.

Justice Oscar Luhring of the District of Columbia Supreme court ordered the hearing postponed until "a date not earlier than Nov. 2." He accompanied the order with a temporary injunction which will, in effect, prevent PWA from linking its three Nebraska projects into a single statewide public power system.

The injunction also forbids construction of a generating plant and transmission lines on the tri-county project. It permits work to go ahead on both irrigation and power features of the Loup river and Platte valley projects, although it enjoins the completion of an interconnecting network of transmission lines, an important feature of the original PWA scheme.

House Concludes Debate on Anti-Chain Store Bill

Washington, D. C., May 27.—[Special.]—Five hours of debate on the anti-chain store bill, designed to prevent price discrimination by manufacturers, was concluded in the house late today and the measure thus put in position for the amending stage tomorrow. Leaders hoped to obtain a vote before adjournment. A similar bill has passed the senate.

Advertising Men to Hear Northwestern Professor

Lloyd Herrold, professor of advertising at Northwestern University School of Commerce, will address the Chicago Federated Advertising clubs this noon at a luncheon in the Hotel Sherman. He will discuss "contests as a merchandising strategy."

SUGAR

NEW YORK, May 27.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw sugar was quiet and unchanged today at 3.72c per lb for spots, with no sales reported. Futures ruled steady on Wall street commission house buying at net advances of 1 to 3 points on sales of 2,050 tons.

Raw sugar prices in cents per pound:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
July	2.83	2.84	2.83	2.84	2.83
Sept.	2.79	2.80	2.79	2.80	2.78

JOBS AND WAGES IN CHICAGO AREA HIGHER FOR APRIL

Totals Near Best Levels Since August, 1930.

Improvement in employment and wages during April in the seventh federal reserve district and in Illinois was reported yesterday by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and the Illinois department of labor. The seventh reserve district embraces the northern sections of Illinois and Indiana, the lower peninsula of Michigan, including Detroit; Iowa and the greater part of Wisconsin.

Except for the holiday peak in December, the reserve bank said that employment and pay rolls in the district for April were at the highest level of any month since August, 1930. Helped by the increased activity in the automobile industry the level of employment for April was 2 per cent higher than in March and pay rolls were 5 per cent higher.

The 7,520 companies reporting to the reserve bank employed a total of 1,282,162 persons whom they paid $33,620,000 in wages.

Jobs, Wages Up in Illinois.

The Illinois department of labor's estimate of conditions within the state was based on reports from 4,686 manufacturing and non-manufacturing enterprises. The April results showed a gain of 1.9 per cent in employment and .7 of 1 per cent in pay rolls over March. These increases contrast with the usual seasonal declines.

Compared with April, 1935, there was an increase of 4.6 per cent in the number of employed and 10.5 per cent in total wage payments.

For the third consecutive month, greater than seasonal increases were reported in both the number employed and wage payments by the stone, clay and glass group of industries and for the second consecutive month by the metals and machinery group.

Sharpest increases were reported by the construction industry which had a gain of 60 per cent in employment and 38.7 per cent in pay rolls.

Reserve Index at 100 Per Cent.

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The federal reserve board reported tonight that the volume of industrial production rose from 93 per cent of the board's 1923-25 average in March to 100 per cent in April. The gain was accomplished by an increase in employment and pay rolls in the durable goods industries, the board said in its monthly report.

The average rate of production at steel mills during April was 69 per cent of capacity. Output of automobiles totaled 503,000 passenger cars and trucks in April and, except for the spring months of 1929, was larger than in any previous month. In the first three weeks of May, activity in both the steel and automobile industries was maintained at about the levels reported for April, the board said.

CANADA REPORTS DECLINE IN BIG WHEAT STOCKS

MONTREAL, Que., May 27.—[Special.]—Encouraging progress is being shown in the reduction of Canada's heavy wheat stocks, it was revealed today when official announcement was made that wheat in store as of May 22 totaled 166,623,115 bushels, a decrease during the week of 9,253,922 bushels, and a decline of 37,564,362 bushels from a year ago. The Canadian wheat board is continuing to press wheat for sale, showing no disposition to hold up offerings despite this week's drop in prices to the lowest levels in two years.

Exports of Canadian wheat in the week ending May 22 totaled 6,619,042 bushels, an increase of 2,822,347 bushels over the corresponding week last year. Export from Canada in the crop year to date, or Aug. 1, 1935, to May 22, 1936, totaled 166,095,876 bushels, against 123,473,450 bushels in the corresponding period a year ago. Shipments to the United States for consumption and milling in bond for the crop year to date aggregated 39,375,709 bushels.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, May 27.—After a long period of indifferent trading, railroad bonds came into favor today, receiving enough insistent buying orders to force prices of many up 1 to 3 points.

Obligations of the Milwaukee, particularly the general mortgage bonds, were the feature of trading. Gains of more than a point were recorded in Chicago and North Western issues, Big Four refunding 4½s, Lehigh Valley general 4s and 4½s; New Orleans, Texas and Mexico first 5s; Missouri Pacific refunding bonds, and Wabash 5½s. Gould Coupler 6s advanced sharply.

High Grades Stronger.

Meanwhile, high grade corporate issues were in fair demand, but price movements were narrow, although higher. Utilities were quiet.

The market for United States government obligations reflected the tendency of traders to remain "on the sidelines" until details of the treasury's June financing will be announced on Monday. On a turnover of only $288,500, the smallest of the month so far, the group showed a mixed trend, prices closing 1-32 to 4-32 higher to 1-32 to 3-32 lower.

Polish 6s Advance.

An advance of 2⅞ points in Polish government 6s was outstanding in the foreign department. Colombia 6s and German 7s also were 1 to 2 points higher. Others were mostly about steady.

Transfers of $11,201,000 were somewhat smaller than on the preceding day, but were far ahead of the light volume of the last two weeks.

McKesson & Robbins.

Investors' Guide: Please give me your latest report on McKesson & Robbins. Do you consider the 5½ per cent bonds a good buy at 103½?—W. A. B.

Answer: McKesson & Robbins, Inc., is essentially a wholesale drug house. Products of its own manufacture net the widest profit margins but make up only 6 per cent of sales. In all, more than 40,000 products are handled, selling being done directly to a majority of the retail druggists of the United States.

Earnings tumbled sharply from their 1929 peak, and in 1932 a loss was sustained, but substantial recovery has been made. A rather complete line of liquors was added in 1933 and accounted for 15 per cent of 1935 sales.

Sales in the first quarter of 1936 were $35,782,000, compared with $31,521,000 in the corresponding 1935 period. Net income of $551,000, or 12 cents a share on the common stock, compared with $229,000, or a deficit of 13 cents a share. The record of the last seven years:

	Net sales.	Net income.	Inc. per com. shr.
1935	$132,097,000	$2,029,000	$0.34
1934	124,453,000	1,637,000	0.14
1933	104,961,000	236,000	*1.18
1932	104,227,000	*1,604,000	*2.89
1931	119,967,000	1,758,000	0.24
1930	134,865,000	2,530,000	0.96
1929	140,635,000	4,014,000	2.48

*Indicates deficit.

Earnings for 1935 are computed on the capitalization of 533,000 $3 preferred and 1,282,983 common shares resulting from recapitalization which canceled old preferred dividends arrears of $14 a share on Dec. 15, 1935. The old $3.50 preferred was exchanged at the rate of 1 share for 1¼ new preferred and ⅕ share of common plus 50 cents in cash. Capitalization prior to the change was 426,400 preferred and 1,069,763 common shares.

Dividends on the new preferred were begun with a 75 cent quarterly payment on March 16, 1936.

Strong financial condition was evidenced by current assets of $56,809,000, against current liabilities of only $10,329,000.

Funded debt consists of $17,751,000 5½ per cent debentures due in 1950. Interest charges have been covered amply except in 1932. The company is reported to be considering plans to refund the debentures, which are rated as a business men's investment.

The preferred stock is medium grade. The common is speculative.

GRAIN BROKER BUYS GLENCOE RESIDENCE SITE

Several Other Real Estate Deals Completed.

BY AL CHASE.

Stanley K. Peirce, Chicago Board of Trade broker has purchased from Elmer F. Wieboldt, president of Wieboldt Stores, Inc., vacant land 160x190 feet, on the south side of Briar lane, Glencoe, for an undisclosed consideration. Sketches have been prepared for a residence which the new owner contemplates building later on.

The property, title to which was taken by Dorothy Day Peirce, fronts north on Briar lane and overlooks the Skokie Country club to the south. It lies directly east of and adjoining the residential estate of Wieboldt which has several hundred feet of west frontage on the club grounds. The buyers now live at 460 Washington avenue, Glencoe. Cutting, Moore & Sidley were attorneys in the transaction.

30 Flat Building Sold.

Mrs. Elsa N. Westerlin yesterday purchased the thirty apartment building at Bosworth avenue and Jonquil terrace from the 7626 Bosworth Avenue Building corporation, for an indicated $70,000. Of this amount the buyer paid $46,000 cash, according to Anderson & Anderson, her attorneys. This concludes a reorganization of the property.

The Spanish type residence at the southwest corner of Franklin avenue and Iowa street, River Forest, was purchased for investment yesterday by Frank S. Righeimer, attorney, and his wife, Helen E. Righeimer, from James C. Nichols, for $57,500, according to revenue stamps on the deed. The property fronts 200 feet on Franklin and 183 feet on Iowa.

Sales Reach Half Million.

Smart & Golee, Evanston realtors, reported yesterday that sales for the last five months reached the half million dollar mark. Among recent transactions was the purchase of the brick two apartment building at 2762 Eastwood avenue by Charles P. Woodworth, vice president of the Weber Chimney company, from Frank P. Kutten.

The nine room English farmhouse type residence, with half an acre of ground, at 975 Forest avenue, Glencoe, has been sold by Mrs. W. H. Davies to H. H. Leekley, an official of the Illinois Bell Telephone company.

The Gaper Catering company has leased a ground floor store in the 700 North Michigan Avenue building, and space on the second floor for executive offices. The lessee, who has been in business for more than four decades, will continue its plant at 61 East Chicago avenue. Robert M. Cole of Baird & Warner, represented the lessee, and Fred Wolff, building manager, the lessor.

MUCH CHICAGO PROPERTY IS REORGANIZED

Dallas, Tex., May 27.—[Special.]—Graham Aldis of Chicago told the convention of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers here today that property occupying 41.61 per cent of the land area in the Chicago central business district has gone through reorganization of some form in the last few years.

Aldis, who is president of the Chicago Building Managers association, traced the growth of the "taxpayer" type of building in Chicago. He described such structures as parasites on the surrounding large buildings without which they would be of little value. A saturation point for this type of building will eventually be reached, he said, but is not near. The utilization of downtown property as auto parking lots, which comprise 12.25 per cent of the district, is near the saturation point, he said.

Aldis said that the downtown business area represents only 0.35 per cent of the total land area in Chicago but carries 17.60 per cent of the real estate tax load of the city.

CHICAGO STOCK TRADE LARGEST IN LAST MONTH

Trading in Chicago stocks yesterday was the most active since April 30. Turnover was 50,000 shares, in which 51 issues advanced, 29 declined, and 25 remained unchanged.

Six issues moved to new high marks for 1936, paced by Zenith Radio. Zenith, in an 8,700 share turnover which was the largest of the day, touched 22⅜ and closed at 21⅞ for a net gain of ½. Williams Oil-O-Matic moved up 1 to 13 in 1,850 share trade. It touched a top of 13¼. Abbott Laboratories rose to 131½, but closed at 130, unchanged. Other highs were made by Gardner-Denver, up 2; Southwestern Light and Power preferred, up 6¾; and Goldblatt, up ⅝.

ALBERTA DECREES COMPULSORY CUT IN INTEREST RATE

Edmonton, Alta., May 27.—(AP)—Effecting a saving of $3,000,000 annually, compulsory reduction of the interest rate on the public debt of Alberta to 2½ per cent was announced today by Premier Aberhart and Charles Cockroft, provincial treasurer of Alberta's social credit administration.

The new rate will become effective June 1 under authority of the Alberta treasury act.

The whole $160,000,000 public debt of the province, with possible exception of $25,000,000 owing to the federal government, will come under the new rate.

HOGS DECLINE 10 TO 15 CENTS ON LARGE SUPPLIES

The hog market yesterday slipped back 10 to 15 cents under pressure of the heaviest Wednesday receipts in more than four months—16,000 head. Reports from the wholesale markets were not as bullish as recently, and packers sought concessions in live costs, giving consideration to the possible effect of the higher pork prices on consumer demand.

The trade this week has been handling the largest volume of fresh pork since January. Wholesale channels had been well cleared of pork as a result of last week's low receipts and retailers readily absorbed the increase at the year's highest prices this week.

stock 10 cents under Tuesday, and the average at $9.60 also showed 10 cents decline.

Cattle receipts were heavy at 11,000 head and most classes weakened. The kosher holidays this week were a factor favoring buyers. Most steer sales were 10 to 25 cents lower, with cows and hefers steady to 25 cents lower. Lightest hefers showed the least weakness and cheaper grades of light steers also escaped the cut in prices. Calves declined 25 to 50 cents.

Not enough sheep and lambs were on the open market to establish quotations for all classes. Of the 4,000 received, 3,200 were shipped directly to packers. However, the scant supply sold steady to 25 cents lower. Best native springers brought $12 to $12.75 and old crop shorn lambs, $10 to $10.65. Top old shorn ewes stopped at $4.

WHEAT FUTURES EASE SLIGHTLY IN DULL TRADING

Early Rally Is Erased in Late Dealings.

Wheat prices fluctuated narrowly in light trading and closed slightly lower here yesterday. The action was in striking contrast with the heavy activity which prevailed Tuesday when general evening up was under way in May contracts.

Short covering lifted 1936 wheat crop futures fractionally in early trading. A rally in Liverpool, continued dry weather reports from the spring grain area, and firmness in Winnipeg contributed to the upturn. The close, however, was fractionally lower, independent weakness in July wheat at Minneapolis bringing in some selling.

Rapid progress was reported in cleaning up the open interest in May contracts. At the close Tuesday there was still 3,444,000 bushels of May wheat and 785,000 bushels of May corn open on the Chicago Board of Trade, the former decreasing 5,279,000 bushels during Tuesday's trading. Yesterday, tenders and retenders of 1,622,000 bushels of cash wheat were made, cutting the outstanding open interest about in half.

Liquidate Cash Holdings.

Many speculators who found themselves the unwilling owners of cash wheat due to inability to liquidate their holdings of May contracts Tuesday were able to dispose of their cash grain yesterday. It was estimated that 500,000 bushels of the wheat delivered on May contracts was bought by elevator interests yesterday at 3⅛ to 5 cents a bushel over the July future quotations.

This was regarded as a much better figure than could have been secured in the pit had not exchange regulations checked the decline in the expiring May future on Tuesday when prices fell 5 cents.

Trading in May wheat will continue in Minneapolis and Duluth until Friday.

May wheat in Minneapolis closed unchanged and the deferred deliveries lost ⅜ to 1 cent. Price changes in Kansas City were negligible, while Winnipeg advanced fractionally. All deliveries of wheat in Liverpool except the May future sold at a new low for the season, but rallied later, although the close was lower.

Closing Prices Compared.

Closing prices on the July delivery of leading grains, with comparisons, follow:

	Tuesday.	Tuesday.	Wk. ago.	Mo. ago.
Wheat	$ .83⅝	$ .83⅞	$ .86¼	$ .86½
Corn	.60¼	.59¼	.60⅝	.61⅜
Oats	.24⅜	.24¼	.25⅝	.25¾
Rye	.53	.52⅝	.54⅜	.50⅞

Corn moved higher with the July contract gaining 1 cent per bushel. Tenders and retenders of cash corn on May futures yesterday aggregated 188,000 bushels.

Trade in oats and rye was light, the former closing at about the same level as the previous day, while rye gained fractionally.

How You Can BORROW at HOUSEHOLD

1. Whether or not you have furniture or a car, you can borrow here if you can make regular monthly repayments.
2. Payments are small. For example, the first payment on $100 is $8—the last payment is $5.15 on a twenty month schedule. Other amounts in proportion.
3. You do not need co-makers or endorsers.
4. You can secure the money quickly—the same day if you apply before 9 o'clock.
5. Rate on loans above $100 is less than the lawful maximum.
6. Repay at any time and reduce the cost.
7. Private offices. Your problem will have our sympathetic attention.
